Springboards For Todays Children:

Springboards to Inquiry Paige Jaeger, Mary Boyd Ratzer, 2019-07-23 This collection of ideas for lessons provides school librarians with inspiration for meeting the tsunami of new standards dictating change for today's next generation learners. Today's school librarian has less and less time to prepare for instruction. This book delivers lesson plans for the librarian to implement immediately as is or with a little adaptation. Using the new AASL standards and an Information Literacy scope and sequence carefully crafted for K-6 students, the authors package lessons that are both engaging and challenging. This book inspires librarians to go beyond their usual role in literacy promotion and instruction only and moves to preparing students to be inquiry learners by embracing inquiry-based learning. Lessons include the Essential Question, begin with the end in mind, pre and post assessment ideas, technology integration ideas, where applicable, reading and research ideas, and collaboration ideas when applicable. AASL Standards and others are noted via an integrated standards checklist while new educational research demonstrates that standards can be met via engaging, collaborative, and interesting lessons modeled throughout the text.

Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children La Verne Tolbert, 2014-05-19 Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children: A Holistic Approach answers questions about the most effective ways to help children, pre-teens, and teens develop spiritually. This collection of research gleaned from presentations during the Fourth Triennial Children's Spirituality Conference at Concordia University in 2012 is divided into four major sections: 1. theological and historical foundations; 2. engaging parents and congregations; 3. engaging methodologies; and 4. exploring children at risk: child pornography, social justice, intercultural diversity, and abstinence education. Researchers acknowledge that the home is the foundation for Christian nurture. In Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children, both scholars and ministry leaders come together with parents to promote a holistic environment where children are encouraged to love, respect, and obey God. From birth to high school, children's voices resonate throughout these studies as they are invited to share their reflections and experiences. Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children is a lively, easy-to-read collection that reflects a broad range of faith traditions and is ideal for all those who are committed to the spiritual development of children.

Children Today, 1981 The Springboard Alice Duer Miller, 1928 Springboard G. Richard Shell, 2014-04-29 Wharton professor Richard Shell created the Success Course to help his world-class MBA students answer two questions that aren't as obvious as they seem: What for me is success, and how will I achieve it? Based on that acclaimed course, Springboard shows how to assess the hidden influences of family, media, and culture on your beliefs about success. Then it helps you figure out your unique passions and capabilities so you can focus more on what gives meaning and excitement to your life and less on what you are supposed to want.

Springboards for Today's Children E. Rosalie Cempura, 1993 Education is on everyone's mind. Few are satisfied with what we've got: parents, children, teachers, administrators, legislators, social critics are all complaining. Can we do something spectacularly effective fast? Cempura's answer is yes. She writes about a monopoly that resists change about common sense reforms that are available tomorrow morning without another survey without more money Her very readable book on innovative teaching techniques is poised at the vanguard of a grassroots revolution that will change how we educate the next generation Capitalizing on the child's insatiable curiosity Cempura proposes offering primary age school children vast areas of knowledge She combines the best of whole language phonics teaching methods with new ideas of her own in a down to earth reading system that she has proved can work Some of her ideas are depicted in poignant stories of actual classroom situations remembered from her many years as a teacher administrator This important book is for parents teachers others who are interested in new ideas on how we can educate the youth of tomorrow
