Squadron Alert:

Hearings United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations, 1961 60/337th Fighter Interceptor Squadron Stan Lukasiewicz, 2006-11-19 During a portion of the 20th century known as the Cold War Era when the United States feared an attack on its land our armed forces kept a 24 hour vigil to meet any armed aggression against us A part of this vigil involved the United States Air Force keeping fighter interceptor squadrons on alert at all times with a certain amount of aircraft poised in alert hangars fully armed and ready to launch within five minutes from the sound of the alarm This history is about one such squadron the 60th 337th Fighter Interceptor Squadron assigned to Westover Air Force Base Chicopee Massachusetts Its task was to guard a specific area of airspace in the northeast from an airborne attack Their object was to destroy any enemy bombers penetrating U S airspace that was assigned to the squadron The Air Force assigned the newest all weather interceptor the F 86D Sabrejet to the 60th in May 1953 Sometime in mid 1956 the squadron began receiving a more advanced version of the Sabrejet known as the F 86L In 1958 the squadron converted to the fastest interceptor in the U S arsenal the F 104 Starfighter which they flew until the unit was deactivated in July 1960 You will follow the events of this fighter squadron from May 1953 until its last F 104 departed in June 1960 It tells the stories of the unit s accomplishments tragedies that befell the squadron the personal reflections and feelings of some of the members some eventful sporting news a few social events that occurred and the public relations work involved in helping the civilian population in the surrounding communities to better understand the importance of the mission of the fighter squadron and the significance it had on the civilian population Retread Squadron John Munn, 2001-08-26 RETREAD SQUADRON is about an Air National Guard Squadron that is fat and corrupt when the Korean War breaks out Captain Marshall Stone the central character loves flying almost as much as he loves his beautiful wife Georgie Through his perception we see the squadron reshaping into a fighting unit capable of carrying out the dirty missions that the F 84 pilots are ordered to fly in the war Hanging over all that happens is the conviction that military decisions are being by politicians who are willing to sacrifice the lives of American fighting men and our country s honor to avoid any confrontation with countries that support our enemy Captain Stone keeps his perspective as he flies dangerous and predictable missions while at home his marriage is threatened He focuses his skills on the missions achieving some glorious moments by flying all out beyond normal limitations when his comrades need help He comes through these experiences with a clear view of the priorities that can make his life worth living The squadron too survives and triumphs in the end The U.S. Air Service in World War I Maurer Maurer, 1978 Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Navy and Marine Corps and Reserve Officers on Active Duty United States.
