metropolitan municipalities of mega cities to counties small town councils and villages Their focus is either multi purpose in the case of municipalities or single purpose in the case of special districts and school districts What unites these institutions of state is that there is no level of government below them That is also their strength and the source of their democratic claim they are the government closest to the people Political science experts from across the globe examine local governments by drawing on case studies of Australia Austria Brazil Canada Germany India Mexico Nigeria Switzerland Spain South Africa and United States Contributors include Martin Burgi Ruhr University Bochum Luis Cesar de Queiroz Ribeiro Federal University of Rio de Janeiro Jaap de Visser University of Western Cape Habu Galadima University of Jos Sol Garson Federal University of Rio de Janeiro Boris Graizbord National College of Mexico Rakesh Hooja HCM Rajasthan State Institute of Public Administration India Andreas Kiefer European Affairs Office of the Land Salzburg Andreas Ladner Swiss Graduate School of Public Administration George Mathew Institute of Social Sciences India Mike Pagano University of Illinois at Chicago Graham Sansom University of Technology Sydney Franz Schausberger Salzburg University Nico Steytler University of Western Cape Francisco Velasco Caballero Universidad Autonoma de Madrid and Robert Young University of Western Ontario

Beza, Brendan Gleeson, 2014-11-25 Paul Mees urban ideal counted on watchful confident and well informed citizenry to work collectively in a quest for fair and just cities As such The Public City is largely a critique of neo liberalism and its arguably negative influence on urban prospects As Mees explained it neo liberal urbanism was much more than a political aberration it was a threat that imposed many costly failures in an age overshadowed by grave ecological challenges Fifteen of Australia and New Zealand s leading urban scholars including Professor Emeritus Jean Hillier and Professor Brendan Gleeson have contributed to this collection The Public City includes a foreword by the late Professor Sir Peter Hall a world leader in urban planning from Britain Kenneth Davidson one of Australia s top economic columnists has also contributed a chapter The collective works in this book extend beyond an analysis of urban patterns to provide a blueprint for the improvement of civic and institutional purpose in the creation of the public city

A Comparative Study of Referendums Mads Qvortrup, Matt Qvortrup, 2002 In times of heightened national security scholars and activists from the communities under suspicion often attempt to alert the public to the more complex stories behind the headlines But when they raise questions about the government military and police policy these individuals are routinely shut down and accused of being terrorist sympathisers or apologists for gang culture In such environments there is immense pressure to condemn what society at large fears This collection explains how the expectation to condemn has emerged tracking it against the normalisation of racism and explores how writers manage to subvert expectations as part of their commitment to anti racism

Nationalist Exclusion and Ethnic Conflict Andreas Wimmer, 2002-06-06 Andreas Wimmer argues that nationalist and ethnic politics have shaped modern societies to a far greater extent than has been acknowledged by social scientists The modern state governs in the name of a people defined in ethnic and national terms Democratic participation equality before the law and protection from arbitrary violence were offered only to the ethnic group in a privileged relationship with the emerging nation state Depending on circumstances the dynamics of exclusion took on different forms Where nation building was successful immigrants and ethnic minorities are excluded from full participation they risk being targets of xenophobia and racism In weaker states political closure proceeded along ethnic rather than national lines and leads to corresponding forms of conflict and violence In chapters on Mexico Iraq and Switzerland Wimmer provides extended case studies that support and contextualise this argument
