Murray,1910      Escape, Evasion and Revenge Marc H. Stevens,2020-01-24 A truly remarkable story Marc Stevens has produced a fitting tribute to his father who played a full part in the defeat of Nazi Germany HistoryOfWar.org Peter Stevens was a German Jewish refugee who escaped Nazi persecution as a teenager in 1933 He joined the RAF in 1939 and after eighteen months of pilot training he started flying bombing missions against his own country He completed twenty two missions before being shot down and taken prisoner by the Nazis in September 1941 To escape became his raison d'être and his great advantage was that he was in his native country He was recaptured after each of his several escapes but the Nazis never realized his true identity He took part in the logistics and planning of several major breakouts including The Great Escape but was never successful in getting back to England After liberation when the true nature of his exploits came to light he was awarded the Military Cross He then served as a British spy at the beginning of the Cold War before emigrating to Canada to resume a normal life This is the story of a heavily conflicted young man alone in a world that is in the midst of destruction He is afforded an opportunity to help his persecuted people to obtain a small measure of revenge It is at once a sad yet uplifting tale of thankless and unheralded heroism This is a wartime career that would make any son proud but Steven's real triumph is in writing a biography that will satisfy the most discerning historian National Defence Journal      The Vulgate Version of the Arthurian Romances Arthur (King.),1911      The Oxford English Dictionary,1989      Carnegie Institution of Washington Publication,1902
