Meeting, 1987 Standing between Life and Extinction David L. Propst, Jack E. Williams, Kevin R. Bestgen, Christopher W. Hoagstrom, 2021-02-15 North American deserts lands of little water have long been home to a surprising diversity of aquatic life from fish to insects and mollusks With European settlement however water extraction resource exploitation and invasive species set many of these native aquatic species on downward spirals In this book conservationists dedicated to these creatures document the history of their work the techniques and philosophies that inform it and the challenges and opportunities of the future A precursor to this book Battle Against Extinction laid out the scope of the problem and related conservation activities through the late 1980s Since then many nascent conservation programs have matured and researchers have developed new technologies improved and refined methods and greatly expanded our knowledge of the myriad influences on the ecology and dynamics of these species Standing between Life and Extinction brings the story up to date While the future for some species is more secure than thirty years ago others are less fortunate Calling attention not only to iconic species like the razorback sucker Gila trout and Devils Hole pupfish but also to other fishes and obscure and fascinating invertebrates inhabiting intermittent aquatic habitats this book explores the scientific social and political challenges of preserving these aquatic species and their habitats amid an increasingly charged political discourse and in desert regions characterized by a growing human population and rapidly changing climate

Feral Future Tim Low, 2002-12 A decade ago Tim Low journeyed to the remote northernmost tip of Australia Instead of the pristine rain forests he expected he found jungles infested with Latin American carpet grass and feral cattle That incident helped inspire Feral Future a passionate account of the history and implications of invasive species in that island nation with consequences for ecological communities around the globe Australia is far from alone in facing horrific ecological and economic damage from invading plants and animals and in Low's capable hands Australia's experiences serve as a wake up call for all of us He covers how invasive species like cane toads and pond apple got to Australia often through misguided but intentional introductions and what we can do to stop them He also covers the many pests that Australia has exported to the
