Sydney Walkabout:

Walkabout, 1965 Tourism and the Branded City Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, John G. Gammack, 2016-02-24

Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Whilst all three cities compete on the world s stage for events tourists and investment they are also at the centre of distinct film traditions and their identities are thus strongly connected with a cinematic impression Using an interdisciplinary approach this book not only analyses the city branding of these cities from the more widely researched perspectives of tourism marketing and regional development but also draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches which offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The authors compare and contrast qualitative and quantitative original data as well as critically analyzing current texts and debates on city branding In conclusion they argue that city branding should contribute not only to regional development and identity but also to sustainable economic well being and public happiness

No Worries, Mate Ken Ewell, 2000-09-19 No Worries Mate is the journal of a modern day swagman on a manly adventure in the land down under Follow his manful exploits as he closes the pubs of Sydney tramps about the Blue Mountains of New South Wales cruises Victoria s Great Ocean Road searches for the elusive Tasmanian devil surfs the shores of Queensland dives along the Great Barrier Reef explores Kakadu National Park in the Northern Territory and as he manfully climbs Ayers Rock Follow him also as he hones his manly virtues on the beach around the barbie at the track and in the Australian Outback Needless to say his are feats seldom seen in these less than manful times

In Search of the Never-Never Ann McGrath, 2019-04-09 Mickey Dewar made a profound contribution to the history of the Northern Territory which she performed across many genres She produced high quality memorable and multi sensory histories including the Cyclone Tracy exhibition at the Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory and the reinterpretation of Fannie Bay Gaol Informed by a great love of books her passion for history was infectious As well as offering three original chapters that appraise her work this edited volume republishes her first book In Search of the Never Never In Dewar s comprehensive and incisive appraisal of the literature of the Northern Territory she provides brilliant often amusing insights into the ever changing representations of a region that has featured so large in the Australian popular imagination

The Reef Iain McCalman, 2014-05-20 Stretching 1 400 miles along the Australian coast and visible from space the Great Barrier Reef is home to three thousand individual reefs more than nine hundred islands and thousands of marine species and has alternately been viewed as a deadly maze an economic bounty a scientific frontier and a precarious World Heritage site Now the historian and explorer Iain McCalman takes us on a new adventure into the reef to reveal how our shifting perceptions of the natural world have shaped this extraordinary seascape Showcasing the lives of twenty individuals spanning more than two centuries The Reef highlights our profound desire to conquer understand embrace and ultimately save the world s most complex ocean ecosystem Opening with the story of Captain James Cook who sailed unknowingly into the southwest entrance of this vast network of coral outcroppings McCalman shows how Cook spent months navigating this treacherous underwater labyrinth struggling to keep his crew alive and his ship afloat sparring with deceptive shoals and wary native islanders Through a series of dramatic tales from intrepid explorers unwitting castaways inquisitive naturalists enchanted artists and impassioned environmentalists who have collectively shaped our ideas about the Great Barrier Reef McCalman demonstrates how this grand natural wonder of the world was built as much by human imagination as by the industrious beautiful creatures of the sea A romantic historically significant book and a deeply personal journey into the heart of a marine environment in peril The Reef powerfully captures the delicate relationship between humanity and the natural world

Watching the Sun Rise Jacqui Murray, 2004-01-01 Historians have long claimed that a tradition of fear of Japan dominated Australian thinking about foreign affairs and defense after Japan's defeat of Russia in 1905 and that this fear remained widespread throughout the Australian population until the Pacific War This study of Australian reporting on Japan challenges that claim by exposing a culture of state censorship intimidation of the media and neglect of official public discussion of foreign affairs in the years 1931-1941 which resulted in newspapers radio and news reels projecting a collective national consciousness of Japan as a nation of little import despite very real fears in senior political ranks about Japanese designs on Australia Jacqui Murray's argument for the Australian media's underestimation of Japan's threat is sustained by close examination of media practices publications and broadcasts which clearly show misleading representations of Japan before the Pacific War Watching the Sun Rise details not only government peace time media censorship but also war time propaganda flows from Australian British and Japanese sources into the Australian media and examples of cooperation and espionage among media personnel Sydney Walkabout 1 Janice Dewhurst, Margaret White, 1987 Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World Valerie A. Brown, John A. Harris, David Waltner-Toews, 2019-04-29 Any effective response to an uncertain future will require independently thinking individuals working together Human ideas and actions have led to unprecedented changes in the relationships among humans and between humans and the Earth Changes in the air we breathe the water we drink and the energy we use are evidence of Nature which has no special interest in sustaining human life looking out for itself Even the evolutionary context for humans has altered Evolutionary pressures from the digital communication revolution have been added to those from natural systems For humans to meet these challenges requires social re-organisation that is neither simple nor easy Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World explores workable field tested strategies from the frontiers of creating a viable future for humans on Earth Based on research results from hundreds of social learning workshops with communities worldwide many of them part of Australian National University's Local Sustainability Project authors with diverse interests explore the gap between open minded individual thinking and closed socially defined knowledges The multiple dimensions of individual social and biophysical ways of thinking are combined in ways that allow open minded individuals to learn from one another Visualizing the City Alan Marcus, Dietrich

Conor, 2016 Skin Deep looks at the preoccupations of European Australians in their encounters with Aboriginal women and the tropes types and perceptions that seeped into everyday settler colonial thinking Early erroneous and uninformed accounts of Aboriginal women and culture were repeated throughout various print forms and imagery both in Australia and in Europe with names dates and locations erased so that individual women came to be anonymized as gins and lubras The book identifies and traces the various tropes used to typecast Aboriginal women contributing to their lasting hold on the colonial imagination even after conflicting records emerged The colonial archive itself consisting largely of accounts by white men is critiqued in the book Construction of Aboriginal women's gender and sexuality was a form of colonial control and Skin Deep shows how the industrialization of print was critical to this control emerging as it did alongside colonial expansion For nearly all settlers typecasting Aboriginal women through name calling and repetition of tropes sufficed to evoke an understanding that was surface based and half knowing only skin deep Impressively researched written organized and presented highly recommended for community and academic library Aboriginal Studies Women's Studies Australian Studies and Colonial History reference collections Midwest Book Review MBR Bookwatch October 2016 Helen's Bookshelf Subject Cultural History Aboriginal Studies Women's Studies Australian Studies Colonial Studies Lost's Buried Treasures
