Syllogismes De Lamertume:

, European Literary Immigration Into the French Language Tijana Miletić, 2008 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption Romanian Philosophical Culture, Globalization, and Education Alin Tat, Stefan Popenici, 2007 The Temptation to Exist E. M. Cioran, 2013-02-01 This collection of eleven essays originally appeared in France thirty years ago and created a literary whirlwind on the Left Bank Cioran writes incisively about Western civilizations the writer the novel mystics apostles and philosophers The Temptation to Exist first introduced this brilliant European thinker twenty years ago to American readers in a superb translation by Richard Howard This literary mystique around Cioran continues to grow and The Temptation to Exist has become an underground classic In this work Cioran writes about Western civilizations the writer the novel about mystics apostles philosophers For those to whom the very word philosophy brings visions of arduous reading be assured Cioran is crystal clear his style quotable and aphoristic A sort of final philosopher of the Western world His statements have the compression of poetry and the audacity of cosmic clowning The Washington Post Thought as Experience in Bataille, Cioran, and Rosset Joseph Acquisto, 2024-06-13 Examines how postwar French writers constitute the thinking subject and reshape its relation to the external social world Joseph Acquisto analyzes the writings of three thinkers during and shortly after the Second World War who address the question of what it means to think and what it means to constitute oneself as a thinking subject at a time that seems to come after everything with the ruins of attacked cities echoing the remains of a philosophical tradition that was confident in its establishment of human beings as rational of reason leading to progress and of both the self and the world as knowable What Georges Bataille calls inner experience and Emil Cioran labels thinking against oneself is something akin to a drama not a mere representation of the self in relation to the world but a process of remapping the relation of subject to object of thought dialectically Acquisto argues that both writers adopt an anti systematic approach to thinking that implicates fragmentary writing as a way of turning answers about subject object relations into questions Acquisto contends that this stands in contrast to the approach of Clement Rosset whose affirmation of the inaccessibility of the real leads to an anti intellectual grace filled affirmation of life as it is given under the guise of what he calls the tragic Bringing together thinkers that have seldom been discussed in a comparative light Thought as Experience in Bataille Cioran and Rosset examines the affective dimensions of thought as experience and considers the political stakes of postwar thought as out of order with the world from which it springs French and German Letters Today Gertrude Clarke Whittall Poetry and Literature Fund,1960

Literature and Capital Thomas Docherty,2018-09-06 What is the value of literature In this important new work Thomas Docherty charts a new economic history of literary culture and its institutions in the modern age From the literary patronage of the early modern period through the colonial exploitation of the 18th and 19th centuries to the institutionalisation of literature in the neoliberal university of the 21st century Literature and Capital explores the changing ways in which literary culture has both resisted and become complicit with exploitative economic notions of value Drawing on the work of economic and political thinkers such as Thomas Piketty Naomi Klein Edward Said and Raymond Williams the book includes readings of work by a wide range of canonical authors from Shakespeare Donne and Swift to Tolstoy Woolf and Ishiguro

Science, Vine and Wine in Modern France Harry W. Paul,2002-07-18 Science Vine and Wine in Modern France examines the role of science in the civilization of wine in modern France Viticulture the science of the vine itself and oenology the science of winemaking are its subjects Together they can boast of at least two major triumphs the creation of the post phylloxera vines that repopulated late nineteenth century vineyards devastated by the disease and the understanding of the complex structure of wine that eventually resulted in the development of the widespread wine models of Bordeaux Burgundy and Champagne This is the first analysis of the scientific battle over the best way to save the French vineyards and the first account of the growth of oenological science in France since Chaptal and Pasteur

Bruce Springsteen: Like a Killer in the Sun Leonardo Colombati,2017-10-01 Bruce Springsteen Like a Killer in the Sun originally published in Italian is the definitive book on the work of Bruce Springsteen showing his unique narrative talent and offering an accurate critical examination of his poetics It presents 117 among his best lyrics expounded and annotated with the philological care used for the classics of literature In his introduction Leonardo Colombati draws the attention to the fact that Springsteen is an author grafted on the line that goes from Whitman to Steinbeck from Flannery O Connor to Raymond Carver The book also contains Springsteen s biography and discography plus an exclusive interview with Bruce Springsteen With forewords by Academy Award winner Ennio Morricone and music critic Dave Marsh a committee member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Springsteen s biographer Like a Killer in the Sun is a book for anyone who wants to listen to a powerful and inspired voice coming from the heart of America

Romanian Literature as World Literature Mircea Martin,Christian Moraru,Andrei Terian,2017-12-28 Approaching Romanian literature as world literature

this book is a critical theoretical manifesto that places its object at the crossroads of empires regions and influences and draws conclusions whose relevance extends beyond the Romanian Romance and East European cultural systems This intersectional revisiting of Romanian literature is organized into three parts Opening with a fresh look at the literary ideology of Romania's national poet Mihai Eminescu part I dwells primarily on literary cultural history as process and discipline Here the focus is on cross cultural mimesis the role of strategic imitation in the production of a distinct literature in modern Romania and the shortcomings marking traditional literary historiography's handling of these issues Part II examines the ethno linguistic and territorial complexity of Romanian literatures or Romanian literature in the plural Part III takes up the trans systemic rise of Romanian Jewish Romanian and Romanian European avant garde and modernism Socialist Realism exile and migr literature and translation

Aufstieg und Niedergang der römischen Welt: Principat. v Hildegard Temporini, Wolfgang Haase, 1990

The Plays of Yasmina Reza on the English and American Stage Amanda Giguere, 2014-01-10 The seven plays to date of Yasmina Reza one of France's most prominent female playwrights are popular both in France and abroad Despite her commercial success her plays have often been ignored in academic circles and few scholars have attempted to explore the mechanics of her playwriting This text seeks to unpack the essentials of Reza's style and to explore each play as a component of Reza's theatrical oeuvre The result is a fuller understanding of her theatrical poetics and her development as an artist

Beckett and Cioran Steven Matthews, 2024-04-30 This Element discusses the association between Samuel Beckett and the Romanian born philosopher E M Cioran It draws upon the known biographical detail but more substantially upon the terms of Beckett's engagement with Cioran's writings from the 1950s to the 1970s Certain of Cioran's key conceptualisations such as that of the metekue and his version of philosophical scepticism resonate with aspects of Beckett's writing as it evolved beyond the siege in the room More particularly aspects of Cioran's conclusion about the formal nature that philosophy must assume chime with some of the formal decisions taken by Beckett in the mid late prose Through close reading of some of Beckett's key works such as Texts for Nothing and How It Is and through consideration of Beckett's choices when translating between English and French the issues of identity and understanding shared by these two settlers in Paris are mutually illuminated

Musical Scores and the Eternal Present Chiara Bertoglio, 2021-08-31 Music is played and heard in time yet it is also embodied in space by musical scores The observation of a musical score turns time into space and allows musicians to embrace the flow of time in a single glance This experience constitutes a symbol for the Eternal Present the simultaneous knowledge of all time outside time This book analyzes the implications of this view through a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives linking theology philosophy literature and music It also studies how this theme has been foreshadowed in the writings of Dante and J R R Tolkien demonstrating the connections between their masterpieces and the aesthetics of their times The result is a fascinating itinerary through the history of culture thought and music but also a deeply theological and spiritual experience

Picturing the Language of

Images Laurence Petit, 2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the work of particular authors such as A S Byatt W G Sebald and Art Spiegelman

Writing At Risk Jason Weiss, 1991-10-01 Much has been made of the image of writers in Paris romanticized and idealized in fiction and on screen these migr artists in sidewalk caf s spark our imagination with unusual force But rarely do the real life figures speak to us directly to comment on their work their lives and their reasons for choosing to live and work in Paris In these striking interviews E M Cioran Julio Cort zar Brion Gysin Eug ne Ionesco Carlos Fuentes Jean Claude Carri re Milan Kundera Nathalie Sarraute and Edmund Jab s do just this as they speak out on the risks they ve taken on their struggles and discoveries on tradition challenge and their near unanimous status as migr s A consummate interviewer Jason Weiss spoke in depth with these pathbreaking artists regarding their lives their craft and their very special relationship to Paris Their writings were naturally the main focus of investigation but Weiss concern was always to build on previous interviews to deepen certain lines of inquiry and open new ones to contribute fresh material to the ongoing record The result is a series of invigorating detailed portraits that go beyond personality habits and pleasures to examine some of the causes and effects in the unique relationship of place and temperament Writing at Risk suggests that there is more than we suspect binding writers of such disparate cultures and genres perhaps their attitudes toward writing perhaps their common attraction to risk Readers will relish the immediacy of these interviews and will want to re discover the work of these exceptional artists

All Gall is Divided Emile M. Cioran, 1999 Romanian born E M Cioran moved to Paris at the age of 26 remaining there nearly six decades until his death in 1995 He was called a sort of final philosopher of the Western world and the last worthy disciple of Nietzsche the bleak aphorisms of All Gall Is Divided make a strong case for either appellation With every idea born in us he declares early on something in us rots Throughout the book he addresses the futile attempts of man to impose meaning on a meaningless existence That there should be a reality hidden by appearances is after all quite possible that language might render such a thing would be an absurd hope and nurses an ongoing fascination with the possibilities death holds for release from life s madness When the Dead Kennedys sang I look forward to death This world brings me down they might as well have been taking notes from Cioran Grim stuff but presented in brilliant crystalline form particularly in the translation by Richard Howard which retains Cioran s cold detached viewpoint

What's in a Name? Philip Dodd, 2008-12-30 A brilliant and personal literary journey in which Philip Dodd tells the curious tales of people whose names deliberately or by chance became household words What s in a name For Philip Dodd this question led to an international tour sleuthing the history of some of our most intriguing eponyms The result is a collection of surprising stranger than fiction stories from history the arts the halls of science and sometimes simply the realm of serendipity This armchair traveler s delight contains little known tales of such immortal figures as Roy Jacuzzi alive and well and still bubbling with ideas in Happy Valley California Joseph P Frisbie the baker whose pie tins inspired Wham O s ubiquitous flying disc Ernst Gr fenberg for whom the G spot was named Samuel Maverick the Texas pioneer who refused to brand his calves And many other colorful figures From Belgium to Buenos Aires from Orlando to Los Angeles Dodd s readers go along for the ride What s in a Name is a marvelous tribute to people who changed our language whether through hard work creativity or the luck of the draw

System Theory, the Schur Algorithm and Multidimensional Analysis Daniel Alpay, Victor Vinnikov, 2007-06-28 This volume contains six peer refereed articles written on the occasion of the workshop Operator theory system theory and scattering theory multidimensional generalizations and related topics held at the Department of Mathematics of the Ben Gurion University of the Negev in June 2005 The book will interest a wide audience of pure and applied mathematicians electrical engineers and theoretical physicists

What Makes Music European Marcello Sorce Keller, 2011-11-17 We seldom consider how much we mistakenly presume in hewing to definitions of music that differ dramatically from the standpoint of other cultures In What Makes Music European Marcello Sorce Keller examines the limitations of accepted wisdom about the concept of music in Euro Western culture His investigations of the conclusions reached by music researchers of the past several decades considerably upsets the concepts relied upon by the concert going public Sorce Keller insightfully asks Who makes the music Should music be original and how much can it be Why do people identify with songs pieces styles and repertoire Why is music so ideological Why do we misunderstand the music of different times and places and why do we enjoy doing so He also explores the juxtaposition of economy society and music making as well as the concept of illegal harmonies In What Makes Music European Sorce Keller addresses the little discussed matters that are essential to an understanding of how music intersects with the life of so many people Readers are offered an approach for thinking about music that depends as much on its history as on the concepts and attitudes of the social sciences What Makes Music European concisely demonstrates to those familiar with Western music how peculiar Euro Western concepts of music appear from a cross cultural perspective At the same time it encourages ethnomusicologists to apply their knowledge to Western music and explain to its public how much of what listeners take for granted is at the very least highly debatable
