From the first it intrigued listeners to know why it was called enigma and who were the friends pictured within to whom the work is dedicated. between looking at Manet's Woman with a Parrot and listening to Elgar's Cello Concerto both experiences provoke similar questions in the thoughtful aesthete why does the painting seem to express reverie and the music nostalgia? How do we experience the reverie and nostalgia in such works of art? Why do we find these experiences rewarding in similar ways? As our awareness of emotion in art and our engagement with art's emotions can make such a special contribution to our life it is timely for a philosopher to seek to account for the nature and significance of the experience of art's emotions. Damien Freeman develops a new theory of emotion that is suitable for resolving key questions in aesthetics. He then reviews and evaluates three existing approaches to artistic expression and proposes a new approach to the emotional experience of art that draws on the strengths of the existing approaches. Finally he seeks to establish the ethical significance of this emotional experience of art for human flourishing. Freeman challenges the reader not only to consider how art engages with emotion but how we should connect up our answers to questions concerning the nature and value of the experiences offered by works of art Franz Schubert Lawrence Kramer, 2003-09-18 The first book to examine Schubert's songs as active shaping forces in the culture of their era rather than a mere reflection of it His songs project a kaleidoscopic array of unexpected human types all of whom are eligible for a sympathetic response Kramer shows how Schubert sought to validate these types in his songs
