 of counter culture people moved into rural communities in many parts of Australia This study focuses in particular on the town of Kuranda in North Queensland and the relationship between the settlers and the local Aboriginal population concentrating on a number of linked social dramas that portrayed the use of both public and private space Through their they also contributed to the cultivation and propagation of state effects The Disruption of Evangelicalism Geoffrey Treloar,2016-12-15 The Disruption of Evangelicalism is the first comprehensive account of the evangelical tradition across the English speaking world from the end of the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It offers fresh perspectives on conversionism and the life of faith biblical and theological perspectives social engagement and mission Tracing these trajectories through a period of great turbulence in world history we see the deepening of an evangelical diversity And as events unfold we notice the spectrum of evangelicalism fragments in varied and often competing strands Dividing the era into two phases before 1914 and after 1918 draws out the impact of the Great War of 1914 18 as evangelicals renegotiated their identity in the modern world By accenting his account with the careers of selected key figures Geoffrey Treloar illustrates the very different responses of evangelicals to the demands of a critical and transitional period The Disruption of Evangelicalism sets out a case that deserves the attention of both professional and arm chair historians Footsteps in the Sea John Garrett,1992 Should I Fight? Barry W. Bussey,2010-12-31 Since its organization in 1863 the Seventh day Adventist Church has been counter cultural In its Christian witness to modern society it has advocated keeping the seventh day Sabbath vegetarianism abstinence from tobacco and alcohol and refusal of its members to bear arms But the stance on the refusal to bear arms has seen a metamorphous in modern times Today more Seventh day Adventist young people have voluntarily joined the military than in any previous generation of the Church s history This volume is a compliation of essays that were presented at a conference called to discuss the Adventist Church s position on concientious objection The presenters considered the history of the Church s stand and the changing views These discussions were not limited to American context but considered other countries including South Africa and Canada The Theory and Practice of the God in the Landscape Kerrie Handasyde, 2021-07-15 This book shows how creative writing gives voice to the drama and nuance of religious experience in a way that is rarely captured by sermons reports and the minutes of church meetings The author explores the history of religious Dissent and Evangelicalism in Australia through a variety of literary responses to landscape from both men and women lay and ordained The book explores transnational themes along with themes of migration and travel across the Australian continent The author gives insight into the literature of Protestant Dissent concerned as it is with travel belonging and the intersection of national and religious identity Much of the writing is situated on the road a soldier returning from the Great War a child on a lone adventure a night time journey through urban slums all of these are in some way dependent on the theme of walking with Jesus as the Holy Land travelogues make explicit

God in the Landscape draws the links between landscape literature and spirituality with imagination and insight and is an important contribution to the historical study of religion and the environment Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Religions of Melanesia is the first comprehensive annotated bibliography of religious life in a region that boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions
