Bell, 2001-01-01 Offers a collection of Clarence Major's poetry fiction and art providing critical interpretations alongside each selection Teaching African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Sharon Pineault-Burke, Marianna White Davis, 2013-12-16 This book is written by teachers interested in bringing African American literature into the classroom Documented here is the learning process that these educators experienced themselves as they read and discussed the stories pedagogical The Symptom and the Subject Brooke Holmes, 2010-04-19 The Symptom and the Subject takes an in depth look at how the physical body first emerged in the West as both an object of knowledge and a mysterious part of the self Beginning with Homer moving through classical era medical treatises and closing with studies of early ethical philosophy and Euripidean tragedy this book rewrites the traditional story of the rise of body soul dualism in ancient Greece Brooke Holmes demonstrates that as the body's ma became a subject of physical inquiry it decisively changed ancient Greek ideas about the meaning of suffering the soul and human nature By undertaking a new examination of biological and medical evidence from the sixth through fourth centuries BCE Holmes argues that it was in large part through changing interpretations of symptoms that people began to perceive the physical body with the senses and the mind Once attributed primarily to social agents like gods and daemons symptoms began to be explained by physicians in terms of the physical substances hidden inside the person Imagining a daemonic space inside the person but largely below the threshold of feeling these physicians helped to radically transform what it meant for human beings to be vulnerable and ushered in a new ethics centered on the responsibility of taking care of the self The Symptom and the Subject highlights with fresh importance how classical Greek discoveries made possible new and deeply influential ways of thinking about the human subject Public Health in Postcolonial Africa Olukayode Faleye, Tanimola Akande, Innocent Moyo, 2023-11-03 This fascinating multi disciplinary collection examines how public health interventions in postcolonial Africa mirror wider manifestations of power in the region Beyond the role of public health intervention in tackling disease and prolonging life the book measures the social and political determinants of health which continue to exist in the postcolonial era The volume features contributions from scholars across both the social sciences and humanities exploring ongoing debates across a broad range of themes including Infopolitics biopolitics and healthcare Emerging infectious diseases environment and food cultures Health interventions and economic security Church administration and healthcare Livelihood sex sexuality and HIV AIDS Offering a fresh and insightful understanding of health issues in this important global region and including chapters on issues around the Covid 19 pandemic the book will interest students and researchers across a range of disciplines including global health politics and African studies American Negro Poetry Arna Bontemps, 1974 Revised and updated edition of the standard anthology of Negro poetry in America

The Comedies, Histories, Tragedies and Poems William Shakespeare, 1853 Inspiration and Insanity in British

Poetry Joseph Crawford, 2019-07-24 This book explores the ways in which poetic inspiration came to be associated with madness in early nineteenth century Britain By examining the works of poets such as Barrett Browning Clare Tennyson Townshend and the Spasmodics in relation to the burgeoning asylum system and shifting medical discourses of the period it investigates the ways in which Britain's post Romantic poets understood their own poetic vocations within a cultural context that insistently linked poetic talent with illness and insanity Joseph Crawford examines the popularity of mesmerism among the writers of the era as an alternative system of medicine that provided a more sympathetic account of the nature of poetic genius and investigates the persistent tension found throughout the literary and medical writings of the period between the Romantic ideal of the poet as a transcendent visionary genius and the medico psychological conception of poets as mere case studies in abnormal neurological development

Of an Alien Homecoming Charles Bambach, 2022-07-01 Few themes resonate as powerfully in Heidegger as those connected to homecoming homeland and Heimat This emphasis plays out most powerfully in Heidegger's reading of Holderlin and his turn towards language art and poetizing as a way of thinking through the poet's relevance in the epoch of homelessness and the abandonment of the gods As the first book length study in English of the Heidegger Holderlin relation Of an Alien Homecoming addresses the tension within Heidegger's work between his disastrous political commitments during the era of National Socialism and his attempts to open a path to a German future nurtured on Holderlin's ideal of poetic dwelling Charles Bambach reads this work on Holderlin from 1934 1948 in conversation with the Black Notebooks and Heidegger's metapolitics even as he uncovers an ethical dimension within Heidegger that pervades his reading of poetry Throughout all of these various stages on Heidegger's thought path Holderlin remains the poet who poetizes the possibility of finding our lost home amidst the homelessness brought about in the epoch of technological thinking

Conjunctions of Mind, Soul and Body from Plato to the Enlightenment Danijela Kambaskovic, 2014-09-25 This book examines the nexus between the corporeal emotional spiritual and intellectual aspects of human life as represented in the writing of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Authors from different fields examine not only the question of the body and soul or body and mind but also how this question fits into a broader framework in the medieval and early modern period Concepts such as gender and society morality sexuality theological precepts and medical knowledge are a part of this broader framework This discussion of ideas draws from over two thousand years of Western thought from Plato in the fifth century BC and the fourth century Byzantine dialogues on the soul to the philosophical and medical writings of the early 1700s There are four sections to this book each section is based on where the authors have found a conjunction between the body and mind soul The work begins with a section on text and self perception which focuses on creative output from the period The second conjunction is human emotions which are described in their social contexts The third is sex where the human body and mind are traditionally believed to meet The fourth section Material Souls engages with bodies and other material aspects of existence perceived studied or utilised as material signs of emotional and spiritual activity Narrating Medicine in Middle English Poetry Eve Salisbury, 2022-08-11 Exploring medical writing in England in the 100 years after the advent of the Great Mortality this book examines the storytelling practices of poets patients and physicians in the midst of a medieval public health crisis and demonstrates how literary narratives enable us to see a kinship between poetry and the healing arts Looking at how we can learn to diagnose a text as if we were diagnosing a body Salisbury provides new insights into how we can recuperate the voices of those afflicted by illness in medieval texts when we have no direct testimony She considers how we interpret stories told by patients in narratives mediated by others ways that women factor into the shaping of a medical canon how medical writing intersects with religious belief and memorial practices governed by the Church and ways that regimens of health benefit a population in the throes of an epidemic Tragedies.
