God and spirituality Chapters include Writing a Personal Theology by Dr Neil Gillman The Changing Perceptions of God in Judaism by Rabbi Rifat Sonsino The Spiritual Condition of American Jews by Dr David Ariel The Image of God as Teacher by Dr Hanan Alexander Spiritual Mentoring by Dr Carol Ochs Tell Me a Story by Rabbi Sandi Eisenberg Sasso Finding a Spiritual Home Rabbi Sidney Schwarz, PhD,2012-07-12 The Jewish community has lost some of the most sensitive spiritual souls of this generation They are Jews who were looking for God and found spiritual homes outside of Judaism Their journeys traversed the Jewish community but nothing there beckoned them The creation of synagogue communities in which the voices of seekers can be heard and their questions can be asked will challenge many loyalist Jews It will upset and enrage them But it would also enrich them from Chapter 18 In this fresh look at the spiritual possibilities of American Jewish life Rabbi Sidney Schwarz presents the framework for a new synagogue model the synagogue community and its promise to transform our understanding of the synagogue and its potential for modern Judaism Schwarz profiles four innovative synagogues one from each of the major movements of Judaism that have had extraordinary success with their approach to congregational life and presents practical ways to replicate their success Includes a discussion guide for study groups and book clubs as well as a new afterword by the author describing developments in synagogue change projects since the book was first published The Church of All Ages Howard A. Vanderwell,2007-12-17 Many congregations today experience collisions between parents who ant to spend time with their children and age segregated church programming as well as between the children worshiping in their pews and the increasing number of seniors in the same pew Among the questions these congregations struggle to address are these Should we try to hold the generations together when we worship Is it even possible Led by pastor and resource developer Howard Vanderwell nine writers pastors teachers worship planners and others serving in specialized ministries offer their reflections on issues congregational leaders need to address as they design their worship ministry In addition numerous sidebars illustrate the diversity of practices in the church today Contributors do not propose easy answers or instant solutions Rather they guide readers as they craft ministries and practices that fit their own community heritage and history Each chapter includes questions for reflection and group discussion and an appendix provides guidelines for small group use The thread that connects these varied contributions is the belief that there is no greater privilege for Christians than worshiping God and there is no better way to do that than as an intergenerational community in which all are important and all encourage and nurture the faith of the others New York's Jewish Jews Jenna Weissman Joselit,1990-02-22 Attractively produced book traces an era of unprecedented creativity and achievement in literature the visual arts architecture music dance theater and social and political thought in a series of illustrated essays by respected scholars critics and commentators Traces the development of a distinctive American orthodoxy by first and second generation immigrant Jews in New York City during the 1920 s and 1930 s Choosing from a variety of Western and traditional influences the community established new behavioral cultural and institutional parameters Paper edition unseen
