Syncope The Philosophy Of Rapture:

Syncope Catherine Clément, 1994-01-01 French Feminists on Religion Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. Poxon, 2002 French Feminists on Religion A Reader offers the first representative selection of important writings by French feminist thinkers on the topic of religion including the most influential and provocative texts on the subject from Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Hélène Cixous Monique Wittig and Catherine Clément Each thinker is introduced by a bibliographical preface while individual essays are preceded by an editorial commentary explaining the context and significance of each piece for the study of religion The collected texts cover a broad range of religious practices and discourses focusing primarily on Jewish and Christian concerns but including elements of ancient Goddess traditions Witchcraft Hinduism and Buddhism Critically examined themes include Jewish and Christian notions of sin defilement purity and redemption the relationship between subjectivity and divinity as conceived in the feminine the feminist re imaging of the Virgin Mary and of Catholic theologies of love the repression of the maternal in Judeo Christian culture Brought together for the first time in French Feminist on Religion A Reader these essays demonstrate the central importance of French feminism for the study of religion and at the same time make evident the significance of religious themes figures and concepts to the world of French feminists

The Gnostic Paradigm N. Elias, 2015-04-09 No study has been carried out examining the gnostic undercurrents in medieval England For the first time Natanela Elias investigates the existence of these gnostic traces using prominent late medieval English literary works such as Piers Plowman and Confessio Amantis and ultimately shedding light on a previously overlooked religious dimension Dwelling Orsolya Katalin Petőcz, Naomi Segal, 2024-07-15 Dwelling is both an action and a location it combines the spatial idea of habitation dwelling in with the temporal idea of lingering dwelling on We live not only in bricks and mortar a tent a hut or a spaceship but also in that most changeable of forms our body or in a remembered or virtual home Especially since COVID 19 we have seen changes in the topography of everyday life In this multi disciplinary collection a complex of meanings is approached from a variety of specific often personal angles Framed by two longer essays which theorise how the psychology of home may change under sudden pressure and how social relations are embodied in windows doors walls and stairs the book includes 18 further essays Part I Informal settlements shows how a slum urban development or nomadic life may create a self sustaining identity in Part II Huts and bridges impermanence shapes the state of dwelling while Part III Liminal bodies presents bodies suspended at thresholds of change Movement in time and space characterises the last three sections Part IV Moving home depicts transitions and arrivals Part V Dwelling in Memory focuses on recollections of past places and Part VI Are we there yet points the way to a future in which the consulting room changes to 2D a family is exiled onto the small screen or we imagine breaking away altogether into outer space Dance-Punk Larissa Wodtke, 2023-04-06 Beginning in the late 1970s as an offshoot of disco and punk dance punk is difficult to define Also sometimes referred to as disco punk and funk punk it skirts overlaps and blurs into other genres including post punk post disco new wave mutant disco and synthpop This book explores the historical and cultural conditions of the genre as it appeared in the late 1970s and early 1980s and then again in the early 2000s and illuminates what is at stake in delineating dance punk as a genre Looking at bands such as Gang of Four ESG Public Image Ltd LCD Soundsystem The Rapture and Le Tigre this book examines the tensions between and blurring of the rhetoric and emotion in dance music and the cynical and ironic intellectualizing associated with post punk

Ecopolitics Verena Andermatt Conley, 2006-07-13 Ecopolitics is a study of environmental awareness or non awareness in contemporary French theory Arguing that it is now impossible not to think in an ecological way Verena Andermatt Conley traces the roots of today's concern for the environment back to the intellectual climate of the late 50s and 60s The author considers key texts by influential figures such as Michael Serres Paul Virilio Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Michel de Certeau H l ne Cixous and Luce Irigaray Ecopolitics rehabilitates some ecological components of French intellectual thought of the past thirty years and reassesses French poststructural thinkers who explicitly deal with ecology in their work

Feminism and the Religious Significance of Laughing Bodies Nicole Graham, 2024-06-03 This book identifies the significance of the body through a feminist reconceptualisation of laughter as a means of insight It positions itself within the emerging scholarship on religion and humour but distinguishes itself by moving away from the emphasis on humour and instead focuses on the place and role of laughter Through a feminist reading of laughter which is grounded in the philosophical and psychological works of William James this book emphasises the importance of the body to offer an exploration of laughter as a means of insight In doing so it challenges the classificatory orders of knowledge by recognising and arguing for the value of the body in the creation of knowledge and understanding To demonstrate the centrality of the body for insight laughter and thus the creation of knowledge this book engages with laughter within three thematic areas religious experience gendered experiences of laughter and the ethics of laughter This book will be of interest to students and researchers in religious studies theology gender studies humour studies philosophy and the history of ideas

Infinity (stage) Spencer Golub, 2001 A moving and genre defying text written after a great loss that blurs the boundaries between writing and performance

Asian and Feminist Philosophies in Dialogue Jennifer McWeeny, Ashby Butnor, 2014-04-22 In this collection of original essays international scholars put Asian traditions such as Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and Confucianism into conversation with one or more contemporary feminist philosophies founding a new mode of inquiry that attends to diverse voices and the complex global relationships that define our world These cross cultural meditations focus on the liberation of persons from suffering oppression illusion harmful conventions and desires and other impediments to full personhood by deploying a methodology that traverses multiple philosophical styles historical texts and frames of reference Hailing from the discipline of philosophy in addition to Asian gender and religious studies the contributors offer a fresh take on the classic concerns of free will consciousness knowledge objectivity sexual difference embodiment selfhood the state morality and hermeneutics One of the first anthologies to embody the practice of feminist comparative philosophy this collection creatively and effectively engages with global cultural and gender differences within the realms of scholarly inquiry and theory construction

The Duplicity of Philosophy's Shadow Elliot R. Wolfson, 2018-04-24 Martin Heidegger 1889 1976 is considered one of the most influential philosophers of the twentieth century in spite of his well known transgressions his complicity with National Socialism and his inability to show remorse or compassion for its victims In The Duplicity of Philosophy's Shadow Elliot R Wolfson intervenes in a debate that has seen much attention in scholarly and popular media from a unique perspective as a scholar of Jewish mysticism and philosophy who has been profoundly influenced by Heidegger's work Wolfson sets out to probe Heidegger's writings to expose what remains unthought In spite of Heidegger's explicit anti-Semitic statements Wolfson reveals some crucial aspects of his thinking including criticism of the biological racism and militant apocalypticism of Nazism that betray an affinity with dimensions of Jewish thought the triangulation of the concepts of homeland language and peoplehood Jewish messianism and the notion of historical time as the return of the same that is always different inclusion exclusion and the status of the other the problem of evil in kabbalistic symbolism Using Heidegger's own methods Wolfson reflects on the inextricable link of truth and untruth and investigates the matter of silence and the limits of speech He challenges the tendency to bifurcate the relationship of the political and the philosophical in Heidegger's thought but parts company with those who write off Heidegger as a Nazi ideologue Ultimately The Duplicity of Philosophy's Shadow argues the greatness and relevance of Heidegger's work is that he presents us with the opportunity to think the unthinkable as part of our communal destiny as historical beings

Mythos and Logos, 2021-12-28 This book contains fifteen essays all seeking to regain the original meaning of philosophy as the love of wisdom Mythos and Logos are two essential aspects of a quest that began with the ancient Greeks As concepts fundamental to human experience Mythos and Logos continue to guide the search for truth in the twenty first century

Poetics of Listening Brandon LaBelle, 2025-03-20 In Poetics of Listening renowned sound studies scholar Brandon LaBelle brings critical attention to listening as a practice one that can wield significant impact onto individual interpersonal and community wellbeing From self determination to social participation somatic healing to collective repair political recognition to ecological engagement listening is vitally influential in negotiating our most fundamental challenges Through thoughtful examinations of listening's role across society Poetics of Listening convincingly shows listening to be not only important to social struggles but a form of poetic imagination and communion It moves listening toward a broader application and view which includes the ability to listen across human and more than human worlds to listen into or with one's body or to listen out for futures to come as well as addressing unfinished histories and it challenges us to think more broadly about what it means to hear and be heard within today's complex environments

Revivals William Robert, 2015-10-26 Presents new ways of thinking about the human and the humanities through a rethinking of Antigone Why revive Antigone again And why now William Robert responds to these questions through an inventive reading of Sophocles's Antigone reimagining Antigone in unprecedented ways These new possibilities of new Antigones offer fresh ideas on what it means to be human in relation to others Recast in novel roles Antigone is brought into contemporary conversations taking place in the humanities concerning animals biopolitics ethics philosophies religions and sexualities Robert also brings her into conversation with Luce Irigaray in ways that illuminate Antigone and Irigaray alike opening up new avenues for understanding them both and their potential for further contributions to the humanities

Religion in French Feminist Thought Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. Poxon, 2020-04-19 Religion in French Feminist Thought Critical Perspectives brings together some of the leading modern religious responses to major French feminist writings on religion It considers central figures such as Hélène Cixous Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Catherine Clément and its focus on questions of divinity subjectivity and ethics provides an accessible introduction to an area of growing philosophical interest Illustrating the ways in which French feminism has become a valuable tool in feminist efforts to rethink religion and responding to its promise as an intellectual resource for religious philosophy in the future Religion in French Feminist Thought is ideal both for independent use and as a companion book to French Feminists on Religion Routledge 2001

Time, Doubt and Wonder in the Humanities Prasanta Chakravarty, 2021-12-30 Time Doubt and Wonder in the Humanities addresses a serious lacuna in humanities studies It affirms our commitment to wonder and adventure in living by confronting the subtext that lies within the manifold worldly social and political vicissitudes and tribulations The essays in this volume speak to our times and make sense of the idea of temporality in general by using wonder as an inclusive metaphor which engulfs fortitude anguish joy providence submission precariousness and revulsion Wonder could lead to curiosity to inspiration to doubt to questioning to indignation to seeking of justice The book offers a benchmark in thinking about why we must take literature and art seriously in times of great political turmoil It affirms that the shape and contour of literary studies shall depend on how the coming generation maintains a delicate balance among inspiration doubt and faith

The Plastic Turn Ranjan Ghosh, 2022-11-15 The Plastic Turn offers a novel way of looking at plastic as the defining material of our age and at the plasticity of plastic as an innovative means of understanding the arts and literature Ranjan Ghosh terms this approach the material aesthetic and through this concept traces the emergence and development of plastic polymers along the same historical trajectory as literary modernism Plastic s growth as a product in the culture industry its formation through multiple application and chemical syntheses and its circulation via oceanic movements Ghosh argues correspond with and offers novel insights into developments in modernist literature and critical theory Through innovative readings of canonical modernist texts analyses of art works and accounts of plastic s devastating environmental impact The Plastic Turn proposes plastic s unique properties and destructive ubiquity as a theory machine to explain literature and life in the Anthropocene Introducing several new concepts like plastic literature plastic literary etc into critical humanist discourse Ghosh enmeshes literature and theory materiality and philosophy history and ecology to explore why plastic as a substance and as an idea intrigues disturbs and haunts us

Sounding Latin Music, Hearing the Americas Jairo Moreno, 2023-05-16 Sounding Latin America studies popular music making by immigrants from Latin America and the Spanish speaking Caribbean in the United States It focuses on the points of contact and divergence in music making that result from competing values informed by how modernity is experienced across the Americas the relation of language to letters cosmopolitanism racial categories and adjacent traditions and notions of the past citizenship and migrancy globalization and belonging First study of the intra hemispheric linked but divergent relations of Latin music to the US and Latin America Proposes a comparative method for understanding the relations of immigrants to minority groups in the US with music making as the center Book places aurality intersensory affective cognitive discursive material perceptual and rhetorical network as central operation in the constitution of music

Lexicon of the Mouth Brandon LaBelle, 2014-06-19 Lexicon of the Mouth surveys the oral cavity as the central channel by which self and surrounding are brought into relation Questions of embodiment and agency attachment and loss incorporation and hunger locution and the non sensical are critically examined In doing so LaBelle emphasizes the mouth as a vital conduit for negotiating the foundational narrative of proper speech Lexicon of the Mouth aims for a viscous poetic and resonant discourse of subjectivity detailed through the micro oralities of laughing and whispering stuttering and reciting eating and kissing among others The oral cavity is posed as an impressionable arena susceptible to all types of material input contamination and intervention while also enabling powerful forms of resistance attachment and conversation as well as radical imagination Lexicon of the Mouth argues for the revolutionary promise of the laugh the spirited mythologies of the whisper the schizophonics of self talk and the primal noise of gibberish suggesting that the significance of voicing is fundamentally bound to the exertions of the mouth Subsequently assumptions around voice and vocality are unsettled in favor of an epistemology of the oral highlighting the acts of the tongue the lips and the throat as primary mediations between interior and exterior social structures and embodied expressions LaBelle makes a significant contribution to currents in sound and voice studies by reminding that to hear the voice and to consider a politics of speech is first and foremost to assume the mouth

Volume 16, Tome I: Kierkegaard's Literary Figures and Motifs Katalin Nun, Dr Jon Stewart, 2014-10-28 While Kierkegaard is perhaps known best as a religious thinker and philosopher there is an unmistakable literary element in his writings He often explains complex concepts and ideas by using literary figures and motifs that he could assume his readers would have some familiarity with This dimension of his thought has served to make his writings far more popular than those of other philosophers and theologians but at the same time it has made their interpretation more complex Kierkegaard readers are generally aware of his interest in figures such as Faust or the Wandering Jew but they rarely have a full appreciation of the vast extent of his use of characters from different literary periods and traditions The present volume is dedicated to the treatment of the variety of literary figures and motifs used by Kierkegaard The volume is arranged alphabetically by name with Tome I covering figures and motifs from Agamemnon to Guadalquivir
