begins with scripture and an inspirational quote and concludes with a series of reflection questions as well as tips on how to cultivate one's spirituality. The tips are easy to do activities that are grounded in a long tradition of spiritual exercises presented in a contemporary context. In Part II the authors also use their experience as co-coordinators of a community garden in their own church congregation to present step by step suggestions on how other communities of faith can start and maintain their own garden. Church gardens are introduced as a unique form of spiritual formation through a sense of community with other gardeners and a form of mission and ministry.
