Weston, Rachel Wagner, 2025-04-16 Fat on Campus: The Voices and Images of Fat College Students and the Impacts of Fatphobia amplifies the voices of 11 fat college students across the United States. Defined as a pathological fear of fatness, often manifested as negative attitudes and stereotypes about fat people, Robinson et al 1993 p 468, fatphobia, like other forms of oppression, impacts our students and our campuses. Unlike other cultural phenomena, fatness is one of the last socially acceptable forms of bias. This text sheds light on fat students, increasing their visibility in higher education, explaining why it is important to recognize and address this critical issue on campuses across America. Using rich stories from students who self-identify as fat, this text honors their experiences and highlights how they have created welcoming spaces for themselves in often unwelcoming collegiate environments. The book shares findings from a national photovoice research study, including narratives and photographs. A methodological technique combining storytelling and photography, photovoice is often used to inspire social change. Aligned with the idea of transforming the future of higher education, this book serves as both a call to action for educators and a love letter to fat students on campus. The book is designed to engage educators and amplify the voices of fat students in an accessible way. While it may be tempting for readers to flip to the section corresponding with their functional area of interest, readers are invited to read the whole book and ask themselves: How can I extend this research to my own place of work? Perfect for courses such as College Environments, Diversity in Higher Education, Understanding College Students, Arts Based Research, and Methodologies Qualitative Research      Million Dollar Baby Amy Patricia Meade, 2011-12-08 Successful young writer Marjorie McClelland leads a solitary comfortable life in the quiet post prohibition town of Ridgebury CT Her tranquil life is disrupted when Creighton Ashcroft a British heir with time and money to burn purchases a deserted mansion with a mysterious history on the outskirts of town Instantly smitten with the talented and beautiful Marjorie Creighton craftily arranges an intimate meeting but the mood is spoiled when they stumble across a body while touring the ample grounds of Creighton s new estate With the intention of reaping the story s literary benefits the two forge an unlikely partnership and research the mansion s sordid past but they soon find themselves in the middle of an unfolding series of hidden murders and family deceit On top of this the handsome detective assigned to the case has caught Marjorie s attention and Creighton s suspicious eye The trio must work together to break through a web of deceptively demure townspeople and the discreet upper class to solve the mystery of the mansion s past before becoming victims themselves Filled with rumor and humor this historical thriller delights to its captivating close      System Arch Wilkinson Shaw, 1926      System , 1926      Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1949      Space Feminisms Marie-Pier Boucher, Claire Webb, Annick Bureau, Nahum, 2024-01-25 Employing a global approach to feminist theory this book examines how scientific popular scholarly and artistic imaginations of space have since the 1950s reflected and embedded Earthly hopes anxieties and futures Rather than simply a platform for imagining the future it cultivates radical and alternative modes of inquiry around space through seeing space as a material reality that reflexively encodes humans self perceptions of their planet and beyond Bringing together essayistic reflections artworks and interviews with space scientists engineers and astronauts past and present in one volume Space Feminisms inspects the transformation of terrestrially held notions of gender race class and ableism as they migrate to the extraterrestrial whilst drawing new connections between feminist thought and extraterrestrial power structures Space Feminisms makes a radical enquiry into how earthly power structures are already expanding into our skies facilitating a collaborative and interdisciplinary platform for scholars artists and designers to imagine radical constructions of human futures beyond Earth At the intersection of scientific cultural social and artistic speculations the book gathers leading scholars scientists artists and designers to develop innovative tactics and disruptive participations to create generative alternative and radical futures of and in space
