Critical Content Analysis of Children's and Young Adult Literature Holly Johnson, Janelle Mathis, Kathy G. Short, 2016-06-17 In this book the authors describe their strategies for critically reading global and multicultural literature and the range of procedures they use for critical analyses They also reflect on how these research strategies can inform classrooms and children as readers Critical content analysis offers researchers a methodology for examining representations of power and position in global and multicultural children s and adolescent literature This methodology highlights the critical as locating power in social practices by understanding uncovering and transforming conditions of inequity. Importantly, it also provides insights into specific global and multicultural books significant within classrooms as well as strategies that teachers can use to engage students in critical literacy. Catching Readers Before They Fall Pat Johnson, Katie Keier, 2023-10-10

Every teacher of reading plays a vital role in helping to catch those readers for whom learning to read does not come easily. Through examples from both adults and children, the authors explain and describe the complex integrated network of strategies that go on in the minds of proficient readers—strategies that struggling readers have to learn in order to construct their own reading processes. This book is essential reading for all who work with struggling readers in any context and contains a wealth of resources including a thorough explanation of all the sources of information readers use to solve words, examples and scenarios of teacher-student interactions, prompts to use with struggling readers, lessons on modeling and assessment guidelines. Autism and Reading Comprehension Joseph Porter, 2016-07-18

The predictable format, repetition, and routine of these lessons will create a relaxed learning environment while the variations in the topics will hold students' attention and help them generalize the reading skills they need to succeed. Starting with Level 1, The Cat, and ending with Level 9, The Lizard, special educator Joseph Porter has developed an amazing 90 hours of animal-themed whole-group instructions. There are two student worksheets for each of nine animals, totaling eighteen worksheets. Each worksheet has four variations, and there is a ready-to-go lesson plan for each one. There are also two sentence-building exercises for each animal theme, which will build students' observation skills and help them transform those skills into conversation and written language. In addition to the step-by-step lesson plans, Joseph provides a detailed description of what the lessons will look and feel like in the classroom, complete with valuable first-hand advice. In the back, you'll find an appendix with numerous suggestions for complementary activities for each animal theme so you can supplement on the days with art projects, music, books, and videos. There is even a section containing Data Collection Sheets, assessment forms that will help you record students' progress per IEP standards. All of the worksheets, lesson plans, visual tools, and assessment forms are available for quick and easy print at www.fhautism.com/arc.html. Animals and Ourselves Kathy Merlock Jackson, Kathy Shepherd Stolley, Lisa Lyon Payne, 2020-10-13

The relationship between humans and animals has always been strong, symbiotic, and complicated. Animals, real and fictional, have been a mainstay in the arts and entertainment, figuring prominently in literature, film, television, social media, and live performances. Increasingly, though, people are anthropomorphizing animals, assigning them humanoid roles, tasks, and identities. At the same time, humans, such as members of the furry culture or college mascots, find pleasure in adopting animal identities and characteristics. This book is the first of its kind to explore these growing phenomena across media. The contributors to this collection represent various disciplines to include the arts, humanities, social sciences, and healthcare. Their essays demonstrate the various ways that human and animal lives are intertwined and constantly evolving. Mentor Texts Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10

and Rose Cappelli helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction Mentor Texts Teaching Writing Through Children's Literature K-6 2nd Edition the authors continue to show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies literary devices sentence structures and words Dorfman and Cappelli offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest At the end of each chapter a Think About It sTalk About It sWrite About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing focus content organization style and conventions The authors write in a friendly and conversational style employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers
