Genetic Reconstruction of the Past Henry A. Erlich, 2024 Genetic Reconstruction of the Past describes how DNA analysis can be used to make inferences not only in criminal cases but also about the ancient past Part One focuses on forensic genetics and crime scenes It gives an in depth account of how we developed PCR and used it on DNA evidence for the first time in a US court case in 1986 the first post conviction exoneration and the first identification of a missing person Part Two discusses how the same DNA technology and data can also illuminate the ancient past the history of human origins and migrations

Shelterball D.G. Mago, 2008-11-24 Dante Grabina was the latest great point guard coming out of New York City and the world seemingly was at his feet Not unlike many before him his dream was soon transformed when he saw nothing but dollar signs he declined to go to college and instead chose to go straight to the NBA Nicknamed Blur he was physically and mentally unprepared for the NBA and as a result he did not last When he tries to cash in on some easy money with an old friend from the neighborhood he is arrested and spends five long years in jail Shelterball picks up years later when unhappy with his tedious life Blur attempts to turn it around At the age of 35 he applies and is accepted to college While he is there he pushes himself to be a better student and citizen Focusing on educating himself and gaining a broader worldview he is approached by the basketball coach who remembers him from years ago and convinces him to come try out for the team With basketball back in his life he gradually transforms from the selfish boy of his youth to the selfless empathetic man that he always saw and admired in his father Moreover once his championship pedigree on the court transitions to the real world he begins a journey where loyalty honor friendship and a man s word become more valuable than money or fame Shelterball is about Blur s struggle with his family his friends a woman that he becomes involved with who is in an abusive relationship and most importantly himself
