Speaking Cure A Novel:

Narrative and Identity in the Ancient Greek Novel Tim Whitmarsh, 2011-04-07 The Greek romance was for the Roman period what epic was for the Archaic period or drama for the Classical the central literary vehicle for articulating ideas about the relationship between self and community This book offers a reading of the romance both as a distinctive narrative form using a range of narrative theories and as a paradigmatic expression of identity social sexual and cultural At the same time it emphasises the elasticity of romance narrative and its ability to accommodate both conservative and transformative models of identity This elasticity manifests itself partly in the variation in practice between different romancers some of whom are traditionally Hellenocentric while others are more challenging Ultimately however it is argued that it reflects a tension in all romance narrative which characteristically balances centrifugal against centripetal dynamics This book will interest classicists historians of the novel and students of narrative theory

The Novels of Iris Murdoch Volume Three Iris Murdoch, 2018-10-16

From the Man Booker Prize winning author of The Sea, the Sea and one of the most significant novelists of her generation The Guardian A consummate storyteller British author Iris Murdoch grappled with questions of morality as well as the nature of love in novels that are every bit as entertaining as they are thought provoking The Independent Over the span of her career the prodigiously inventive Murdoch was the recipient of the Man Booker Prize the Whitbread Literary Award and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize The New York Times A Word Child Twenty years ago Hilary Burde was one of the most promising scholars at Oxford a student with a rare talent for linguistics and an unquenchable drive until the accident Now forty one and a decidedly ordinary failure Hilary finds his quietly angry routine shattered when his old professor reappears a man whose own demons are tied to Hilary's and the tragedy from years ago As the two men begin to circle each other again digging up old wrongs and seeking forgiveness for long buried ills they find themselves on a path that will either grant them both redemption or end in their mutual destruction Marvelous riveting fine and elegant Los Angeles Times An Unofficial Rose Hugh Peronett's life is tinged with regret Twenty five years ago he ended an affair with Emma Sands a detective novelist who had stolen his heart to be with his wife Fanny Now Fanny is gone and both Hugh and his grown son Randall find themselves at a crossroads of passion and righteousness As Hugh Emma Randall Randall's wife Randall's mistress and several others are caught in a dance of romance and rejection in bucolic rural England they search for the true meanings of love companionship and desire A Shakespearean comedy of misaligned lovers minus the spirits and potions Here the characters are responsible for their own actions and Murdoch delights in painting these young middle aged and elderly adventurers and the psychological processes that direct their actions Publishers Weekly Bruno's Dream With not much time left to live Bruno makes a final request to those who care for him He wishes to see his estranged son Miles once more After decades of broken contact due to Miles marrying a woman Bruno once found unsuitable the prodigal son returns home and finds himself confronting much more than a dying man's last demand As Miles his wife and his sister in law Bruno's son in law Danby and Bruno's nurses and aides gather at this deathbed vigil they become entangled in a web of affairs Shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize Bruno's Dream explores the turbulent passions and bitter grudges that will change them all even long after

Bruno is gone Murdoch is in command of her talents above all there are the transcending elements of passion and profundity on the subjects of death and love beautifully articulated in dramatic action The New York Times Beautiful Souls Eyal Press, 2025-10-16 On the Swiss border with Austria in 1938 a police captain refuses to enforce a law barring Jewish refugees from entering his country In the Balkans half a century later a Serb from the war blasted city of Vukovar defies his superiors in order to save the lives of Croats At the height of the Second Intifada a member of Israel's most elite military unit informs his commander he doesn't want to serve in the occupied territories Fifty years after Hannah Arendt examined the dynamics of conformity in her seminal account of the Eichmann trial Beautiful Souls explores the flipside of the banality of evil mapping out what impels ordinary people to defy the sway of authority and convention Through the dramatic stories of unlikely resisters who feel the flicker of conscience when thrust into morally compromising situations Eyal Press shows that the boldest acts of dissent are often carried out not by radicals seeking to overthrow the system but by true believers who cling with unusual fierceness to their convictions Drawing on groundbreaking research by moral psychologists and neuroscientists Beautiful Souls culminates with the story of a financial industry whistleblower who loses her job after refusing to sell a toxic product she rightly suspects is being misleadingly advertised At a time of economic calamity and political unrest this deeply reported work of narrative journalism examines the choices and dilemmas we all face when our principles collide with the loyalties we harbor and the duties we are expected to fulfill The Greatest Works of French

Travels in Cuba Marie-Louise Gay, David Homel, 2021-05-01 Even for an experienced traveler like Charlie Cuba is a place unlike any he has visited before an island full of surprises secrets and puzzling contradictions When Charlie's artist mother is invited to visit a school in Cuba the whole family goes along on the trip But the island they discover is a far cry from the all inclusive resorts that Charlie has heard his friends talk about Charlie has never visited a country as strange and puzzling as Cuba a country where he often feels like a time traveler Where Havana's grand Hotel Nacional sits next to buildings that seem to be crumbling before his very eyes Where the streets are filled with empty storefronts and packs of wild dogs but where flowers and sherbet colored houses may lie around the next corner and music is everywhere Where there are many different kinds of walls from Havana's famous sea wall to the invisible ones that seem aimed at keeping tourists and locals apart Then the family heads off the beaten track traveling by hot dusty bus to Viñales where Charlie makes friends with Lázaro who often flies from Miami to visit his Cuban relatives The boys ride a horse bareback find a secret cache of rifles inside a little green mountain and go swimming with small albino fish in an underground cave A rent a wreck takes the family into the countryside where they find an abandoned hotel inhabited by goats and a modern resort filled with tourists And as he goes from one strange and marvelous escapade to another Charlie finds that his expectations about a place and its people are overturned again and again
