Speaking Desires Can Be Dangerous The Poetics Of The Unconscious:

Speaking Desires can be Dangerous Elizabeth Wright, 2013-05-20 This new book is a lively and original study of psychoanalysis and its relations to the arts Landscapes of Desire in the Poetry of Vittorio Sereni Francesca Southerden, 2012-01-12 This is the first book length study in English on Vittorio Sereni 1913-83 a major figure in Italian 20th century poetry It argues that a key innovation of Sereni's poetry is the way in which it reworks the boundaries of poetic space to construct a lyric I radically repositioned in the textual universe with respect to its predecessors Speaking Desires can be Dangerous Elizabeth Wright, 2000-04-07 This new book is a lively and original study of psychoanalysis and its relations to the arts Celluloid Comrades Song Hwee Lim, 2006-08-31 Without question Song Hwee Lim has presented us with an exemplar of quality scholarship in the study of contemporary Chinese cinemas By combining an impressive command of Chinese and Western literary as well as film source materials with a sophisticated mode of analysis and an unassuming argumentative style he has authored an exhilarating book one that not only treats cinematic representations of male homosexuality with great sensitivity but also demonstrates what it means to read with critical intelligence and vision Rey Chow Andrew W Mellon Professor of the Humanities Brown University Celluloid Comrades is a timely demonstration of the importance of queer studies in the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Lim dissects gay sexuality in selective Chinese language films and vigorously contests commonly accepted critical paradigms and theoretical models Readers will find a provocative powerful voice in this new book Sheldon H Lu Professor of Comparative Literature University of California at Davis Celluloid Comrades offers a cogent analytical introduction to the representation of male homosexuality in Chinese cinemas within the last decade It posits that representations of male homosexuality in Chinese film have been polyphonic and multifarious posing a challenge to monolithic and essentialized constructions of both Chineseness and homosexuality Given the artistic achievement and popularity of the films discussed here the position of celluloid comrades can no longer be ignored within both transnational Chinese and global queer cinemas The book also challenges readers to reconceptualize these works in relation to global issues such as homosexuality and gay and lesbian politics and their interaction with local conditions agents and audiences Tracing the engendering conditions within the film industries of China Taiwan and Hong Kong Song Hwee Lim argues that the emergence of Chinese cinemas in the international scene since the 1980s created a public sphere in which representations of marginal sexualities could flourish in its interstices Examining the politics of representation in the age of multiculturalism through debates about the films Lim calls for a rethinking of the limits and hegemony of gay liberationist discourse prevalent in current scholarship and film criticism He provides in depth analyses of key films and auteurs reading them within contexts as varied as premodern transgender practice in Chinese theater to postmodern diasporic forms of sexualities Informed by cultural and postcolonial studies and critical theory this acutely observed and theoretically sophisticated work will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students as well as general readers looking for a deeper understanding of contemporary Chinese cultural politics cinematic representations and queer culture

Contemporary European Science Fiction Cinemas Aidan Power, 2018-08-14 Contemporary European Science Fiction Cinemas charts the evolution of European science fiction cinema in the 21st century a period in which Europe itself has faced myriad crises Key to this study is an exploration of how European science fiction responds to prevalent issues such as the financial crisis political extremism and violence large scale migration and indeed the potential breakup of the European Union itself What futures does science fiction cinema envision for Europe Is it capable of moving beyond dystopian visions of a continent beset by seemingly omnipresent turbulence Emphasising science fiction's unique ability to estrange exploit and reflect upon popular concerns this book directly engages with such questions accounting for ongoing mutations in the very nature of the European project as it does so

Lacan and Romanticism Daniela Garofalo, David Sigler, 2019-03-25 Draws from the work of Jacques Lacan to provide innovative readings of Romantic literature in the long nineteenth century Lacan and Romanticism uses the work of psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan to deliver progressive readings of Romanticism by examining canonical Romantic authors such as William Wordsworth Mary Shelley John Keats and Jane Austen as well as lesser known writers such as the graveyard poets and Sarah Scott The contributors develop innovative approaches to Lacanian literary studies focusing on neglected or emergent areas of Lacan's thought and approaching Lacan's best known work in unexpected ways The essay topics include the visible and seeable war the death drive nonhuman sexualities sublimation loss and mourning utopia capitalism fantasy and topology and they range from the mid eighteenth through the early decades of the nineteenth centuries The book reveals new ways of thinking about art and literature with psychoanalytic theory and suggests how theoretical approaches can contribute meaningfully to literary studies in general Reading this book may well entice the Romanticist who isn't already engaged in psychoanalytic theory to do so and the Lacanian scholar who may have concluded erroneously that Lacan's last word on Romanticism was his criticism of some well known lines from the Immortality ode to reconsider the value of returning to Romantic literature and visual culture Guinn Batten author of The Orphaned Imagination Melancholy and Commodity Culture in English Romanticism
