Speaking Writing Of God Jewish Philosophical Reflections On The Life With Others:

Speaking/Writing of God Michael Oppenheim, 1997-05-23 Identifies and examines the central insights of Franz Rosenzweig and Emmanuel Levinas concerning the religious dimensions of the relationships between persons and extends these insights in order to explore the relevance of religious language to speak of post Holocaust Jewish life the critique of the tradition by feminist Jewish philosophers and theologians and the challenges of religious pluralism Speaking/Writing of God Michael Oppenheim, 2012-02-01 Speaking Writing of God explores the manner in which religious language develops in answer to the challenges and promise of three features of the life with others the encounter between persons the quest by Jewish women to be accepted including their distinctiveness otherness as women as full participants in Jewish communal life and the dialogue between Jews and non Jews Although a major stream of modern Jewish philosophy has focused on the transcendent dimension of the relationship between persons this book studies the contribution of feminist Judaism to modern Jewish philosophy and the impact of religious pluralism on Jewish religious life and thought Jewish Philosophy and Psychoanalysis Michael D. Oppenheim, 2006-01-01 What distinguishes one human from another What exactly does it mean to discover your true self In Jewish Philosophy and Psychoanalysis Michael Oppenheim added a modern twist to the age old theories of psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud with the interjection of Jewish Philosophy Idolatry and Representation Leora Faye Batnitzky, 2000 Although Franz Rosenzweig is arguably the most important Jewish philosopher of the twentieth century his thought remains little understood Here Leora Batnitzky argues that Rosenzweig's redirection of German Jewish ethical monotheism anticipates and challenges contemporary trends in religious studies ethics philosophy anthropology theology and biblical studies This text which captures the hermeneutical movement of Rosenzweig's corpus is the first to consider the full import of the cultural criticism articulated in his writings on the modern meanings of art language ethics and national identity In the process the book solves significant conundrums about Rosenzweig's relation to German idealism to other major Jewish thinkers to Jewish political life and to Christianity and brings Rosenzweig into conversation with key contemporary thinkers Drawing on Rosenzweig's view that Judaism's ban on idolatry is the crucial intellectual and spiritual resource available to respond to the social implications of human finitude Batnitzky interrogates idolatry as a modern possibility Her analysis speaks not only to the question of Judaism's relationship to modernity and vice versa but also to the generic question of the present's relationship to the past a subject of great importance to anyone contemplating the modern statuses of religious tradition reason science and historical inquiry By way of Rosenzweig Batnitzky argues that contemporary philosophers and ethicists must relearn their approaches to religious traditions and texts to address today's central ethical problems A Pathway of Interpretation Walter Brueggemann, 2009-01-01 Writing with the pastor and student in mind Walter Brueggemann provides guidance for interpreting Old Testament texts He offers both advice for the interpreter as well as examples of working with different sorts of passages from narratives prophecies and Psalms He also demonstrates how to work thematically drawing together threads from different traditions His goal is to work through the rhetoric of these passages to reach toward theological interpretation These investigations indicate Brueggemann's conviction that the process of moving from text to interpretive outcome is an artistic enterprise that can be learned and practiced A

Feminist Companion to Luke Amy-Jill Levine, Marianne Blickenstaff, 2002-07-15 The third volume in this series deals with Lukan themes in feminist perspectives The fourteen essays from an international authorship cover a range of issues including Imperial Masculinity Mary and Asceticism Martha in the Kitchen and Reading Luke 15 with Arab Christian Women The list of contributors includes Robert Karris Mary Rose D Angelo Brigitte Kahl Turd Karlsen Seim Barbara Reid Teresa Hornsby Ben Witherington III Esther DeBoer Veronica Koperski Loveday Alexander Warren Carter Pamela Thimmes Carol Schersten Lahurd and Maris Luisa Rigato The volume also includes an introduction by the editor and a bibliography

Trust and Trauma Michael Oppenheim, 2021-04-26 This interdisciplinary text brings together perspectives from leading psychoanalysts and modern Jewish philosophers to offer a unique investigation into the dynamic between the fundamental trust in the self other persons and the world and the devastating force of emotional trauma Chapters examine the challenges of witnessing and acknowledging suffering trust in God and the traumatic effects of the Holocaust The result is a deeper understanding of the fundamental relationality of humans the imperative of responsibility for the Other the fragility of meaning and the metaphorical powers of religious language Authors representing two standpoints the psychological psychoanalytic and the religious philosophical provide key insights Erik Erikson Jessica Benjamin Judith Herman and Bessel van der Kolk support the psychological discourse while Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber and Abraham Joshua Heschel present the Jewish philosophical discourse This book is written for professionals and advanced students in psychoanalysis philosophy and Jewish and religious studies Its accessible and engaging style will also appeal to general readers with an interest in philosophical psychological and religious perspectives on some of the most elemental human concerns Works of Love Robert L. Perkins, 1999 To claim that Works of Love is an important philosophical essay is to assume hazardous burden of proof The book's title is an allusion to the Bible's injunction that we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves a far cry far instance from Diotima's ladder of erotic desire up which we climb from the love of bodies until we catch a vision of that single sea of beauty beauty itself Plato Symposium This contrast given that some of some of our neighbors may not be particularly likable or one may even be a determined enemy suggests immediately to some that a book with such an obviously religious title must be excessively moralistic and at best full of sermon helps for the harried clergy or at worst laden with rules for the unlearned laity A casual perusal of a few paragraphs however shows these put down views of the book to be unfounded Dreaming Ecology Deborah Bird Rose, 2024-05-07 In the author's own words Dreaming Ecology explores a holistic understanding of the interconnections of people country kinship creation and the living world within a context of mobility Implicitly it asks how people lived so sustainably for so long It offers a telling critique of the loss of Indigenous life human and non human in the wake of white settler colonialism and this becoming cattle country It offers a fresh perspective on nomadics grounded in footwalk epistemology and an ethics of return sustained across different species events practices and scales This is the final and most substantial of Debbie s love letters to the Aboriginal people of the Victoria River Downs I say this because there is such a sense of reverence wonder and respect throughout the book The introduction of concepts of double death footwalk epistemology wild country are not only organising ideas but characterisations arising from what Debbie hears sees and feels of herself and Aboriginal others I think of it in terms of love if love is care reciprocal respect deep connectivity and a strong desire to never make less of the people she chose to commit herself to Richard Davis This book was a pleasure to read filled with careful description of people places and various plants and animals and insightful analysis of the patterns and commitments that hold them together in the world Thom van Dooren Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville, 2011-10-20 Edward Said s Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said s work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said s own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said s work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said s use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said s work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it
