Meet Me at the Palaver Tapiwa N Mucherera, 2010-04-29 Meet me at the Palaver shows the damaging impact of colonial Christianity on indigenous African communities The book opens with stories of destructive change brought to indigenous contexts where in the culture values religion and humanity of African peoples were often marginalized Mucherera argues for a holistic narrative pastoral counseling approach to assess and service the three basic areas of human needs in indigenous African communities body mind and spirit The book presents a hopeful strategy of recovering stories cultural traditions and values that have been subjugated in the past as effective means for dealing with contemporary life in indigenous contexts such as Zimbabwe Faitheist Chris Stedman, 2012-11-06 The story of a former Evangelical Christian turned openly gay atheist who now works to bridge the divide between atheists and the religious The stunning popularity of the New Atheist movement whose most famous spokesmen include Richard Dawkins Sam Harris and the late Christopher Hitchens speaks to both the growing ranks of atheists and the widespread vehement disdain for religion among many of them In Faitheist Chris Stedman tells his own story to challenge the orthodoxies of this movement and make a passionate argument that atheists should engage religious diversity respectfully Becoming aware of injustice and craving community Stedman became a born again Christian in late childhood The idea of a community bound by God s love a love that was undeserved unending and guaranteed captivated him It was he writes a place to belong and a framework for making sense of suffering But Stedman s religious community did not embody this idea of God s love they were staunchly homophobic at a time when he was slowly coming to realize that he was gay The great suffering this caused him might have turned Stedman into a life long New Atheist But over time he came to know more open minded Christians and his interest in service work brought him into contact with people from a wide variety of religious backgrounds His own religious beliefs might have fallen away but his desire to change the world for the better remained Disdain and hostility toward religion was holding him back from engaging in meaningful work with people of faith And it was keeping him from full relationships with them the kinds of relationships that break down intolerance and improve the world In Faithist Stedman draws on his work organizing interfaith and secular communities his academic study of religion and his own experiences to argue for the necessity of bridging the growing chasm between atheists and the religious As someone who has stood on both sides of the divide Stedman is uniquely positioned to present a way for atheists and the religious to find common ground and work together to make this world the one world we can all agree on a better place A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon,2005 The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin,2004-11-22 The issues are clear If one preaches Christ how does one avoid preaching oneself How do you avoid the fall into Narcissus pond What allows one s humility to show How much does one dare reveal about oneself Thulin handles these questions with sensitivity and skill using his own and others sermons for examples and critique He carefully and incisively describes four types of personal story available to preachers the features and functions of each and the degree of the preacher s self disclosure allowed by each Most of his book deals with the personal story as self portrayal that type being the most comprehensive form of first person narrative An appendix includes three sermons one each by Edmund Steimle Martin Luther King Jr and John Vannorsdall often used to disclose the intent of Thulin s I in this book The Creative Storytelling Guide for Children's Ministry Steven James,2002 Whether you re new to storytelling or you ve been telling stories for years this book will help you tell God s story more creatively and effectively than you ever imagined you could Enjoy this library of favorite Bible stories and storytelling techniques developed by award winning author and professional storyteller Steven James Each book includes creative storytelling techniques especially suited to help teachers tell God s story and involve children in the Bible story Look what Happened to Frog Pamela J.
