PETE FISHER • MARC RUBIN

First day of class. Five boys bad-ass down the block on their way to an early joint in Riverside Park. Another plays Stevie Wonder on his stolen Panasonic to ease himself awake. Hungover from too much Scotch and grass, another leaves Red Hook wearing the embroidered denim of THE DEADLY GHOULS, and carrying fifteen dollars hustled the night before in his pocket.

The teachers come too with their own lives and dreams: Rich Walsh, congratulating himself on his journey from a South Bronx youth gang to Directorship of the Lennox School. Keith Jones, hoping for an all-black school of his own. And Bob Davidson, uncomfortably aware that he is carrying a time bomb. The staff knows he's gay, but the students don't—and he's been filmed for a soon-to-be-aired TV documentary talking about being a gay teacher.

These boys and teachers are the Lennox School, a "special" school where a week-long absence may be spent in Riker's Island Detention Center, or where any student's father may be the neighborhood child molester. What happens here when a teacher comes out? The question is movingly answered in this finely-crafted novel about the effect on such a world of an act of honesty, performed with reluctance, relief, and love.

Special Teachers/special Boys Peter Fisher, Marc Rubin, 1979      The Report of a Survey of the Public Schools of the District of Columbia George Drayton Strayer, 1949      The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents Kirkland C. Vaughans, Warren Spielberg, 2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies. Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail. The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions. Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States. Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans and Warren Spielberg contain insights from the groundbreaking Brotherman study conducted over a ten year period to report on the lives and psychological challenges of over a hundred African American boys and their families. Among the myriad issues studied in this set are the often negative expectations of society, the influence of gangs and the impact of racism and poverty. Of equal importance the work explores culturally specific ways to engage families, youths, communities and policymakers in the development of healthy, safe, educated boys who will become whole and successful adults.      Good Housekeeping, 1927      San Francisco Municipal Reports ...
