Missionaries have been subject to academic and societal debate. Some scholars highlight their contribution to the spread of modernity and development among local societies whereas others question their motives and emphasise their inseparable connection with colonialism. In this volume fifteen authors from both Europe and the Global South address these often polemical positions by focusing on education, one of the most prominent fields in which missionaries have been active. They elaborate on Protestantism as well as Catholicism with cases from the 18th to the 21st century and cover different colonial empires in Asia and Africa. The volume introduces new angles such as gender, the agency of the local population and the perspective of the child.

Scholarship on Fire: A History of the Chair of Fire and Southern Baptist Evangelism in Theological Education takes a step back into early twentieth century Texas Baptist history and observes the unveiling of the crown jewel of the Southern Baptist Convention, the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and the events that led the forward thinking architect of theological education, Benajah Harvey B. H. Carroll, to the creation of the world's first endowed chair of evangelism and professorship of evangelism at his newly formed Texas seminary. This book carries the reader through a 112 year history of an academic chair and professorship that both educated men and women in the art of personal and mass evangelism and provided the necessary evangelistic spirit to forge the fervent pioneering soul winning denominational spirit that has thrust Southern Baptists to the forefront of evangelistic advancement since their inception in 1845. Studying the auspicious beginnings of evangelism taught in theological education will delve into the lives of the men who have taught Christians to reach their neighbors for Christ Jesus. The Chair of Fire has impacted all seminaries and Christian schools around the world because of the inclusion of evangelism in theological education.
