Spring Flowers Own And The Manifestations Of The Voyage:

The Spring Flowers Own ; & The Manifestations of the Voyage Etel Adnan, 1990 Poetry With this book of poems Etel Adnan establishes herself as a major poet who belongs beside internationally acclaimed poets like Tranströmer, Bly, Neruda, Vallejo and Pessoa. Eric Sellin Etel Adnan Lisa Suhair Majaj, Amal Amireh, 2015-10-02 This collection of essays concentrates on Arab American writer and artist Etel Adnan. Up until now there has been no single volume dedicated to her work despite Adnan's increasing recognition and acclaim across the United States, Europe and the Middle East. The essays fall into two sections. In the first the essays respond to the range of vision and experience in Adnan's writing and art through analysis and appreciation. The second section focuses on responses to and interpretations of Sitt Marie Rose Adnan's well known novel about the Lebanese war. As a whole the writings in this work seek to provide a comprehensive look at Adnan's literary and artistic accomplishments through analysis and close readings that place her texts within wider literary contexts.

Ecopoetic Place-Making Judith Rauscher, 2023-08-04 American ecopoetries of migration explore the conflicted relationships of mobile subjects to the nonhuman world and thus offer valuable environmental insight for our current age of mass mobility and global ecological crisis. In Ecopoetic Place Making Judith Rauscher analyzes the works of five contemporary American poets of migration drawing from ecocriticism and mobility studies. The poets discussed in her study challenge exclusionary notions of place attachment and engage in ecopoetic place making from different perspectives of mobility, testifying to the potential of poetry as a means of conceptualizing alternative environmental imaginaries for our contemporary world on the move.

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works, writers and themes. Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones, contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres, literary styles and themes. What plays have been written by women in the developing world? What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women? Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World? These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works, writers, and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries Memories of Our Future Ammiel Alcalay, 1999-12 This text features essays from Ammiel Alcalay covering Mediterranean culture Arabic literature the war in Bosnia the Israeli Palestinian conflict the destruction of Carthage and much more Desert Voices Moneera Al-Ghadeer, 2009-05-30 The Bedouin or desert dwellers have a rich cultural heritage often expressed through music and poetry Here Moneera Al Ghadeer provides us with the first comparative reading of women's oral poetry from Saudi Arabia She examines women's lyrics of love desire mourning and grievance We come to understand Bedouin mores and most significantly the unique description of a desert that is consistently held to be infinite evocative stimulating and an eternal freedom As the first English translation and analysis of this poetry Desert Voices is both a gesture to preserving the oral poetic tradition of Bedouin women and a radical critique addressing the exclusion of their poetry from current academic literary studies The book provides invaluable material for reflection in the debates around oral culture and women's poetic composition while it translates presents and critically examines a genre which opens Arabic poetry and literature to contemporary theory and criticism Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa Ghada Talhami, 2013 The overriding theme of this work is that women's struggles human rights myths and literary expression are indispensable to an understanding of the modern culture and socio political development of the Middle East region The work demonstrates that no aspect of Middle Eastern history and modern evolution was shaped in isolation of women's lives and contributions to society The dictionary covers the biographies and written work of prominent historical female figures in the Middle East and North Africa as well as 20th century feminists both male and female who advanced women's rights over many years The Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa includes a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and a dictionary section that has over 400 cross referenced entries on various aspects of Middle Eastern feminism and culture touching upon religious themes such as Sharia laws Islamic marriage divorce and inheritance practices This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the culture and history of women in the Middle East and North Africa The Untamed Garden Sonia Day, 2011 Which suggestive plant caused a queen to faint when it was presented to her at court What was the original French name for the Great Maiden's Blush rose that had the Victorians blushing Why are figs and pomegranates thought to be the real forbidden fruit that led Adam and Eve into temptation In this delightful gift book master gardener Sonia Day brings together delicious tidbits from myth history botany and plant lore to reveal how plants have seduced our hearts minds and bodies throughout the ages Organized in thematic chapters that loosely follow the arc of a love affair the book journeys from Innocence the notion of a virgin being deflowered originated with the belief that flowers were pure and sexless through such stages as Flirtation Seduction Lust Deception and Rapture Scattered throughout are love potions examples from the Victorian language of flowers and charming anecdotes all told in Day s delightfully irreverent and conversational voice Gorgeously designed and featuring full colour photos and illustrations throughout this is a sumptuous tribute to our enduring fascination with plants that is sure to seduce readers everywhere

Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature
