Square Of Sky:

A Square of Sky Janina David, 1966 This personal account of life in occupied Poland opens in 1939 when the author was nine years old living in western Poland near the German frontier She was the only child of a middle class Jewish family and her life was full and happy With the coming of war she moved to Warsaw with her parents and grandparents survived the savage bombardment of that city and endured the terrible hunger and constant terror of life in the ghetto jacket Square
