their reading preferences The Companioning the Grieving Child Curriculum Book Patricia Morrissey, 2013-06-01 Based on Alan Wolfelt's six needs of mourning and written to pair with Companioning the Grieving Child this thorough guide provides hundreds of hands-on activities tailored for grieving children in three age groups: preschool, elementary, and teens. Through the use of readings, games, discussion questions, and arts and crafts, caregivers can help grieving young people acknowledge the reality of the death, embrace the pain of the loss, remember the person who died, develop a new self-identity, search for meaning, and accept support. Sample activities include grief sock puppets, expression bead bracelets, the nurturing game, and writing an autobiographical poem. Activities are presented in an easy-to-follow format and each has a goal, an objective, a sequential description of the activity, and a list of needed materials.

Who's at Your Table? Mary Louise McSparin, 2019-10-10 One cannot help but to be drawn in as they read the personal heartwarming stories in Who's at Your Table. A loving venue of hospitality and meals, this book highlights an activity that the author feels few people participate in today: real, authentic community with those around us. Who's at Your Table shows how lasting memories and deep relationships can happen in the setting of table time with family, neighbors, and friends. Recipes complement the stories and help give insight to each tale itself. The author includes a section of her own unforgettable dishes in the last pages that will keep the reader returning to them again and again.

Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, 2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death, as well as the grief associated with these experiences. It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions. In order to help children through their pain, parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics, and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects. In Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth, Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators, professionals, parents, siblings, guardians, and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process. These resources include books, Internet sites, and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process. Chapters in this volume include fiction and non-fiction titles about the loss of a family member, a friend, and a pet, as well as general reference resources, curricular resources, and websites. Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries, and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited. Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible. Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool Having Tea With My Sisters Pamella Coffey, 2013-08 Memoir
