The Delicious History of the Holiday Fred Inglis,2005-11-28 Our holidays lie near the heart of our emotional life enjoyed for a fortnight fed on imagination for eleven months of the year What we want from our holidays tells a lot about who we are and what we wish we were In this charming account Fred Inglis traces the rise of the holiday from its early roots in the Grand Tour through the coming of Thomas Cook and his Blackpool packages to sex tourism and the hippie trail to Kathmandu He celebrates the bodily pleasures of generations of tourists from Edwardian banquets in Paris to fish and chips on the beach from the Bright Young Things on the Riviera to the chosen hardships of the sea the desert wastes and the mountain tops He considers the ideals and the spiritual aspirations which are part of what we look for in a holiday but he also warns of a darker current how we have increasingly destroyed what we take most pleasure in and how the dealings between those who have much and those who have little can seldom however good our intentions avoid the taint of exploitation

London Paul Knox,2024-04-23 A lively new history of London told through twenty five buildings from iconic Georgian townhouses to the Shard A walk along any London street takes you past a wealth of seemingly ordinary buildings an Edwardian church modernist postwar council housing stuccoed Italianate terraces a Bauhaus inspired library But these buildings are not just functional They are evidence of London's rich and diverse history and have shaped people's experiences identities and relationships In this engaging study Paul L Knox traces the history of London from the Georgian era to the present day through twenty five surviving buildings Knox explores where people lived and worked from grand Regency squares to Victorian workshops and highlights the impact of migration gentrification and inequality We see famous buildings like Harrods and Abbey Road Studios and everyday places like Rochelle Street School and Thamesmead Each historical period has introduced new buildings and old ones have been repurposed As Knox shows it is the living history of these buildings that makes up the vibrant but exceptionally unequal city of today

Christiana Herringham and the Edwardian Art Scene Mary Lago,1996 Lady Herringham arrived on the Edwardian art scene with a translation of Il Libro dell'Arte o Trattato della Pittura Cennini's fifteenth century handbook on fresco and tempera It aroused new interest in those techniques and led to the founding of the Society of Painters in Tempera in 1901 To preserve Britain's art heritage from buyers abroad she provided the money that launched the National Art Collections Fund in 1903 creating what is still a vital and authoritative voice in Britain's cultural life Her work as the only woman on the NACF's first executive committee prepared her to assist in founding the India Society which urged respect for indigenous Indian traditions of the fine arts and encouraged appreciation for them in England Louise Blanchard Bethune Johanna Hays,2014-02-07 Louise Blanchard Bethune the subject of this biography was America's first female professional architect She belonged to the influential group of pioneer architects Daniel Burnham John Root and Louis Sullivan who supported her in becoming a fellow of the American Institute of Architects In the booming industrial city of Buffalo she preceded Frank Lloyd Wright and Alfred Kahn in factory design and was the key designer of the modern urban public school building developing standards still used today During her career 1881-1905 Bethune was consistently one of the most successful architects practicing in Buffalo and the driving force behind New York State's professional organizations for architects Beyond setting standards for public schools she was the go-to architect for factories warehouses police stations a Nikola Tesla power transfer station and the largest luxury hotel of the early 1900s Bethune moved from a small town on the Erie Canal the economic and technological marvel of the antebellum period to a rapidly industrializing major American city following the urban migration of many Americans Unlike many women of her day she seized the promise of the growing nation to pursue life liberty and happiness in an occupation of her choice and succeeded Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham,1997-05 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company London Bridget Cherry,Nikolaus Pevsner,2002-01-01 This volume on London architecture covers the boroughs of Barnet Camden Enfield Hackney Haringey and Islington It gives a view of London's expansion northward from formal Georgian squares to the hill towns of Hampstead and Highgate 'Designing Women' Annmarie Adams,Peta Tancred,2000-05-18 Historically the contributions of women architects to their profession have been minimized or overlooked Designing Women explores the tension that has existed between the architectural profession and its women members It demonstrates the influence that these women have had on architecture in Canada and links their so-called marginalization to the profession's restrictive and sometimes discriminatory practices Co-written by an architectural historian and a sociologist this book provides a welcome blend of disciplinary approaches The product of much original research it looks at issues that are specific to architecture in Canada and at the same time characteristic of many male-dominated workplaces Annmarie Adams and Peta Tancred examine the issue of gender and its relation to the larger dynamics of status and power They argue that many women architects have reacted with ingenuity to the difficulties they have faced making major innovations in practice and design Branching out into a wide range of alternative fields these women have extended and developed what are considered to be the core specializations within architecture As the authors point out while the profession designs women's place within it women design buildings and careers that transcend that narrow professional definition The Changing Image of Affordable Housing Ulduz Maschaykh,2016-03-09 Illustrated by a range of case studies of affordable housing options in Canada this book examines the liveability and affordability of twenty first century residential architecture Focussing on the architects and communities commitment to these housing programmes as well as that of the private building sector it stresses the importance of the context of the neighbourhoods in which they are placed which are either in the process of urban transition or already gentrified In doing so the book shows how and to what extent twenty first century dwelling architecture developments can help to create an integrated sense of community diminish social and demographic exclusions in a neighbourhood and incorporate people s desires as to what their buildings should look like This book shows that there are significant architectural projects that help to meet the needs and desires of low to middle income households as well as homeowners and that gentrification does not necessarily lead to the displacement of low income families and singles if housing policies such as those highlighted in this book are put into place Moreover the migration of the middle class can result in a healthy mix of classes out of which everyone can enjoy a peaceful and habitable coexistence

The Victorian Art School Ranald Lawrence,2020-09-02 The Victorian Art School documents the history of the art school in the nineteenth century from its origins in South Kensington to its proliferation through the major industrial centres of Britain Charles Rennie Mackintosh s Glasgow School of Art together with earlier examples in Manchester and Birmingham demonstrate an unprecedented concern for the provision of plentiful light and air amidst the pollution of the Victorian city As theories of design education and local governance converged they also reveal the struggle of the provincial city for cultural independence from the capital Examining innovations in the use of new technologies and approaches in the design of these buildings The Victorian Art School offers a unique and explicitly environmental reading of the Victorian city It examines how art schools complemented civic Improvement programmes their contribution to the evolution of art pedagogy the tensions that arose between the provincial schools and the capital and the role they would play in reimagining the relationship between art and public life in a rapidly transforming society The architects of these buildings synthesised the potential of art with the perfection of the internal environment indelibly shaping the future cultural life of Britain

Dressed As in a Painting Kimberly Wahl,2013 In Dressed as in a Painting Kimberly Wahl provides a lucid exploration of the interrelations between fashion art and Aestheticism during the latter half of the nineteenth century Although artistic forms of dress have been the subject of short studies before no book has focused exclusively on Aesthetic dress and its various expressions in the visual cultures of Victorian Britain More important no book has attempted to investigate the gap between the material facts of artistic clothing as it was embodied on the wearer and its presence as an idealized sartorial trope in the visual and textual print culture of the period

The Rogue Goths Edmund Harris,2024-11-05 Part of a generation that came to prominence in the 1860s the rogue architects are a byword for Victorian Gothic at its most wayward and flamboyant Their work ranges from town halls to country houses and from hotels to churches It has drawn much attention both from contemporary observers and 20th century commentators such as Harry Goodhart Rendel who coined the term Ian Nairn and John Summerson But much about the rogues architecture its inspiration their aims why they built where and how they did and why it caused such a stir has been poorly understood until now Based on extensive primary research and presenting a lot of material never published before this book presents comprehensive studies of three of rogue architecture s most important exponents Robert Lewis Roumieu Joseph Peacock and Bassett Keeling Their careers although all very different provide valuable insights into a rich and complex episode in British architectural history These studies are prefaced by an introductory chapter which places them in context and looks at the numerous other architects who stand comparison with them not only throughout Britain but also in France and America It is handsomely illustrated with new photographs and archive material including drawings from the RIBA Collection Books for College Libraries: Humanities Association of College and Research Libraries,1988

Victorian Jamaica Tim Barringer, Wayne Modest, 2018-04-19 Victorian Jamaica explores the extraordinary surviving archive of visual representation and material objects to provide a comprehensive account of Jamaican society during Queen Victoria's reign over the British Empire from 1837 to 1901. In their analyses of material ranging from photographs of plantation laborers and landscape paintings to cricket team photographs, furniture and architecture as well as a wide range of texts, the contributors trace the relationship between black Jamaicans and colonial institutions, contextualize race within ritual and performance, and outline how material and visual culture helped shape the complex politics of colonial society. By narrating Victorian history from a Caribbean perspective, this richly illustrated volume featuring 270 full color images offers a complex and nuanced portrait of Jamaica that expands our understanding of the wider history of the British Empire and Atlantic world during this period.
