Ever Against the Stream Frank Jehle, 2012-03-02 While there are numerous studies of Karl Barth's theology this is the first book to explore the political side of Barth's work throughout all the phases of his long life As Frank Jehle shows Barth's political views are not only found in his formal writings but were also made clear in his active life Jehle here portrays Barth as a courageous man who was deeply concerned about world conditions and cared about people who were suffering It was the question What will happen to humanity that led Barth at a young age to support the working class of his congregation to work as a resistance fighter against National Socialism and to openly oppose Switzerland's tendency to accommodate Hitler's policy He also supported Jews and other refugees a position that quickly made him political enemies Jehle looks at how Barth continued to draw ethical consequences out of Christian belief and shows how in today's political context Barth's perspectives still provide astounding clarity Deliberately written for a broad audience this book is a valuable contribution to the literature on Barth

The Journal of the Friends' Historical Society
 Friends' Historical Society,1918 Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting,1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious

Confessional Theology? Rothney S. Tshaka,2010-04-16 Christian confessions are usually seen as statements of faith which has no relationship with politics The result is a tendency to view these documents as theological but not political This study discusses this misconception but adds that although these documents are not to be perceived as political per se that they can nonetheless not ignore the political contexts from which they emerge Two confessional documents are discussed to illustrate the point viz the Barmen Theological Declaration 1934 in Nazi Germany as well as the Belhar Confession 1986 during apartheid South Africa The findings of the study is that the theology of Karl Barth and therefore the Belhar Confession establishes and unavoidable link between christian confessions and politics The word confession is used here in relation to Barth's interpretation of our responsibility to speak about God because of the fact that we are Christian and also our inability to speak about God as if God is known in God's entirety to us Seen in this way confessional theology is opposed to tendencies that give the impression that we are able to speak about God as if we know Him in His entirety Five characteristics in the theology of Barth are investigated These characteristics illustrate the degree to which theology is related to politics It also points to the fact that politics was never a marginal factor in the theological reflections of Barth The study suggests that the theology of Barth remains relevant because it interprets the Word in a manner that does not ignore the contexts in which this interpretation of the Word takes place The study furthermore suggests that the entire theology of Barth can be construed as confessional theology It arrives at this end and makes very clear that confessional theology differs fundamentally from confessionism but that confessional theology always calls for those who espouse it to embody that which is confessed To uphold the characteristics of confessional theology in the theology of Barth it is agreed that his theology continued to play significant roles in different theological contexts It is because of this view that it is argued that the theology of Barth had a great influence on the Belhar Confession The debate around the Belhar Confession brings further important questions about the theological situation in South Africa today In the end it is suggested that confessional theology is a significant theological method which can safeguard theology from the claws of theologised politics Confessional theology can thus make a significant contribution to the current theological debates in democratic South Africa

Phraseology Sylviane Granger, Fanny Meunier, 2008 Long regarded as a peripheral issue phraseology is now taking centre stage in a wide range of fields This recent explosion of interest undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the development of corpus linguistics research which has both demonstrated the key role of phraseological expressions in language and provided researchers with automated methods of extraction and analysis The aim of this volume is to take stock of current research in phraseology from a variety of perspectives theoretical descriptive contrastive cultural lexicographic and computational It contains overview chapters by leading experts in the field and a series of case studies focusing on a wide range of multiword units collocations similes idioms routine formulae and recurrent phrases The volume is an invitation for experienced phraseologists to look at the field with different eyes and a useful introduction for the many researchers who are intrigued by phraseology but need help in finding their way in this rich but complex domain

Volunteering: Why we can't survive without it Melanie Oppenheimer, 2008 Timely lively and unflagging in its coverage of an extraordinary range of organisations and individuals

Volunteering takes the first comprehensive look at why Australians give so much of their time for free Journal of the Royal Microscopical Society Royal Microscopical Society (Great Britain),1906 A System Of Natural Philosophy Thomas Rutherford,1748 The Pilgrim's Staff, and Christian's Daily Walk, a Series of Meditations ... for Every Morning and Evening Throughout the Year, Compiled from the Writings of the Primitive Fathers, the Early Reformers, Etc Henry SMITH (of King's College, London.),1839 The Pilgrim's Staff and Christian's Daily Walk Henry Smith (of King's College, London.),1839 A Jewish Understanding of the World John D. Rayner,1998-03-01 In this second volume of Liberal Jewish sermons spanning the greater part of the second half of the twentieth century the author again combines a radically progressive stance with Jewish commitment and seeks to understand contemporary history from a prophetic point of view His comments cover a wide range of topics including Jewish continuity Progressive Judaism Zionism and the State of Israel world events social issues and Jewish Christian relations This volume as well as the first one offers fascinating reading for Jews and non Jews alike Great mottoes with great lessons, talks George Currie Martin,1902 Mater Gladiatrix Richard A. Marin,2017-07-17 In 1946 while Rosy the Riveter was taking her shop apron off and setting down her wrench for the last time Millie Uher got into a U S Army surplus Jeep and drove up into the hills southwest of Maracaibo Venezuela In this biography written by her son we learn she was much more than a working mother She was a woman of the world and a rare trendsetter that changed the world without design and perhaps intent The development and education expert would live 100 years and break ground and gender barriers as an athlete in basketball tennis golf and especially alpine skiing as she trekked the globe She dared to go where others including men dared not go living her life at full speed and never once touching the brakes From immigrant s child to global diplomat from rural schoolchild to urbane single mother and from first generation high school graduate to Ph D this is the story of a traditional American girl who became a bona fide adventurer
