d'Aubigné,1847 Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett,2017-03-16 Five hundred years ago the Reformers were defending doctrines such as justification by faith alone the authority of Scripture and God's grace in salvation some to the point of death Many of these same essential doctrines are still being challenged today and there has never been a more crucial time to hold fast to the enduring truth of Scripture In Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett has brought together a team of expert theologians and historians writing on key doctrines taught and defended by the Reformers centuries ago With contributions from Michael Horton Gerald Bray Michael Reeves Carl Trueman Robert Kolb and many others this volume stands as a manifesto for the church exhorting Christians to learn from our spiritual forebears and hold fast to sound doctrine provides a succinct overview of the European Reformation interweaving the influential events of the religious reformation with the transformations of political institutions socio economic structures gender relations and cultural values throughout Europe Examining the European Reformation as a long term process he reconnects the classic 16th century religious struggles with the political and religious pressures confronting late medieval Christianity and argues that the resolutions proposed by reformers such as Luther were not fully realised for most Christians until the early 18th century This new edition features a brand new chapter on the Reformation from a global perspective updated historiography a new chronology and updated material throughout including on the interrelationship between religion and politics after 1648 The Long European Reformation provides an even handed and detailed account of this complex topic providing a clear overview that is perfect for undergraduate and postgraduate students of history and religious studies New to this Edition New chapter on the Reformation in global perspective Incorporates new perspectives and current debates on Luther and the place of the
