cities in the Soviet Union That travel was in itself an adventure once his wife and he were forced to sleep in a provincial train station The KGB frequently tampered with his auto and personal possessions The author's job was to observe and report military activity that could have an impact on Soviet political military affairs After his earlier assignment with the U S Military Liaison Mission in East Germany where military observation was relatively easy the author became frustrated at the meager opportunities to gather useful military information in the USSR Consequently he became more aggressive in his collection efforts He began traveling more or less incognito about Moscow making civilian acquaintances and due to his language and cultural skills was able to blend into Soviet social gatherings He began to take risks some of which paid dividends Overconfidence however led to an incident in Rovno Ukraine There the KGB set up a swallow entrapment after which a Soviet intelligence officer whom the author had known in East Germany attempted to recruit him as a spy This memoir immerses the reader in an increasingly forgotten Cold War environment that unfortunately may once again be on the horizon of U S Russian relations
