Marcuse,2023-11-15 English Studies in India Banibrata Mahanta,Rajesh Babu Sharma,2018-11-03

This volume is a collection of scholarly papers that explore the complex issues concerning English Studies in the present Indian context The discussions in this volume range from historical perspectives to classroom specific pedagogies from sociological and political hierarchies to the dynamics of intellectual development in the English language environment Interrogating both policy and practice pertaining to English Studies in the context of Indian society culture history literature and governance the chapters seek to formulate contemporary perspectives to these debates and envision alternative possibilities Since the introduction of English to India more than 2 centuries ago the language has transmuted the very fabric of Indian society culture history literature and governance The idea of India cannot be conceived in its entirety without taking into consideration the epistemological role that English has played in its formation The present globalized world order has added dimensions to English Studies which are radically different from those of India s colonial and postcolonial past It is therefore imperative that the multitudinous shades and shadows of the discipline be re examined with inputs drawn from the present context This volume is for scholars and researchers of English literature and language studies linguistics and culture studies and others interested in exploring new paradigms of engagement with the disciplinary formulation of English Studies in India

Introduction to Bibliography George Thomas Tanselle,2002 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1974 Announcement Columbia University. Division of Modern Languages and Literatures,1922 How Is World Literature Made? Gesine Müller,2021-11-22 The debate over the concept of world literature which has been taking place with renewed intensity over the last twenty years is tightly bound up with the issues of global interconnectedness in a polycentric world Most recently critiques of globalization related conceptualizations in particular have made themselves heard to what extent is the concept of world literature too closely connected with the political and economic dynamics of globalization Such questions cannot be answered simply through theoretical debate The material side of the production of world literature must therefore be more strongly integrated into the conversation than it has been Using the example of Latin American literatures this volume demonstrates the concrete construction processes of world literature To that purpose archival materials have been analyzed here notes travel reports and correspondence between publishers and authors The Latin American examples provide particularly rich information about the processes of institutionalization in the Western world as well as new perspectives for a contemporary mapping of world literature beyond the established dynamics of canonization Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 46, 1907) ,
