Fernandez, 2007-03 When the Spanish Civil War began in 1936 loosely affiliated groups of writers artists and other politically aware individuals emerged in New York City to give voice to anti fascist sentiment by supporting the Spanish Republic Facing Fascism New York and the Spanish Civil War examines the participation of New Yorkers in the political struggles and armed conflict that many historians consider a critical precursor to World War II Nearly half of the 2 800 Americans who volunteered to fight in the Abraham Lincoln Brigade against Generalissimo Francisco Franco came from the New York area Fundraising propaganda and deployment for anti fascists everywhere in America were orchestrated through New York City At the same time powerful voices in New York expressed sympathy for the pro fascist side The fighting in Spain brought to the surface the complex ideological and ethnic identities always present in New York politics Facing Fascism examines the full range of this experience including that of the New Yorkers who supported Franco It addresses the role of doctors nurses and social workers who left New York hospitals to provide assistance to the defenders of the Spanish Republic as well as those who remained active on the home front The book also describes the involvement of students in the war the key role of writers and the media and the contributions made by members of New York s art and theater communities Facing Fascism also serves as the catalog to an exhibition of the same name appearing at the Museum of the City of New York in the spring of 2007 The book and exhibition both make use of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives extensive holdings which range from historical documents to video recordings of oral histories Numerous other libraries archives museums and private collectors have also been consulted to make this the most complete exhibition of its kind ever mounted The exhibition will also appear in Spain      Bad Faith Andrew Feffer, 2019-01-08 This history of an anticommunist hysteria that swept the 1940s New York City school system captures the mania of the time and will shock readers The Times Union In summer 1940 as war spread across Europe and America pulled itself out of the Great Depression New York City was suddenly convulsed Targeting the city s municipal colleges and public schools the state legislature s Rapp Coudert investigation dragged hundreds of suspects before public and private tribunals to root out a perceived communist conspiracy to hijack the city s teachers unions subvert public education and indoctrinate the nation s youth Drawing on the vast archive of Rapp Coudert records Bad Faith provides the first full history of this witch

hunt which lasted from August 1940 to March 1942 Anticipating McCarthyism and making it possible the episode would have repercussions for decades to come In recapturing this moment in the history of prewar anticommunism Bad Faith challenges assumptions about the origins of McCarthyism the liberal political tradition and the role of anticommunism in modern American life With roots in the city s political culture Rapp Coudert enjoyed the support of not only conservatives but also key liberal reformers and intellectuals who well before the Cold War raised threats to national security joined in accusing communists of bad faith and branded them enemies of American democracy This study of the Rapp Coudert inquisition raises difficult questions about the good faith of the many liberals willing to aid and endorse the emerging Red scare as they sacrificed principles of open debate and academic freedom in the interest of achieving what they believed would be effective modern government based on bipartisanship and a new and seemingly permanent economic prosperity War is for the Living Chuong-Dai Vo, Midori Yamamura, Sylvia Wald and Po Kim Art Gallery, 2013 New York Magazine ,1994-01-10

A Tea Drinker's Novel: Chilverton Park Susan Russell Thompson, 2016-07-12 Chilverton Park the first in a planned series of Tea Drinkers Novels is a humorous light Victorian style romance in a period setting written in a manner reminiscent of both Anthony Trollope and P G Wodehouse At the heart of this charming story lies an unusual attachment between the gay confirmed bachelor about London Sir Erskine Wald and his childhood friend the winsome but delicate daughter of the Earl of Chilverton Lady Caroline Downey Lady Caroline who earnestly wishes to remain single reveals her intention to Sir Erskine who eventually acknowledges that they have that aim in common But avoiding marriage in Victorian England is an admittedly tricky business Lady Carolines Aunt Clara is determined to oppose her at every step and begins a program of ill conceived interference which brings Sir Erskine to Lady Carolines aid in league with his mother the formidable Mrs Hortensia Wald Lady Caroline manages with their help to stay above the Victorian era intrigue surrounding her until her Aunt Clara manages to corner her in an almost inescapable dilemma Brooklyn Museum Bulletin ,1960 New York Magazine
