Comparative Economic Systems John E. Elliott, 1985

Organized Social Complexity Todd R. La Porte, 2015-03-08 One striking feature of modern political and social development has been the construction of social systems encompassing more and more groups

The increase in social complexity the authors of this volume contend has reached a point where accepted concepts fail to describe social and political phenomena adequately The studies in this book reevaluate traditional assumptions Part One defines organized social complexity and discusses the effects of technological change Part Two assesses national planning and systems analysis approaches supposed to provide direct control over social matters Part Three describes methodological aspects and research applications and Part Four provides retrospective and prospective views of theories on social complexity Originally published in 1975 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Institutional Foundations of East Asian Economic Development Y. Hayami, M. Aoki, 1998-12-13 The International Economic Association was foremost in reviving professional economists concern with institutions and their impact in publications such as Economic Institutions in a Dynamic Society 1989 This volume concentrates on the states whose development has been characterised as the East Asian miracle in the light of the performance of other economies starting from similarly low income levels including India China African states especially Nigeria and Latin American countries including Brazil This comprehensive comparative survey in economic history demonstrates the external shocks and interacting domestic forces which constituted the growth dynamic Nobel Laureates Kenneth Arrow and Douglass North and past President of the IEA the late Michael Bruno are among the thirty four highly distinguished specialist contributors

Institutional Culture in Early Modern Society Anne Goldgar, Robert I. Frost, 2004 This volume offers new insights into the self perceptions strategies and rituals through which early modern institutions functioned Its wide range and its comparative vision of the nature of institutions prompts a new interpretation of the role of institutions in society With contributions by Florence Hsia Ian Anders Gadd Gayle K Brunelle Christopher Carlsmith Susan E Brown Victor Morgan Steve Hindle Janelle Day Jenstad Eve Rosenhaft Reed Benhamou James Shaw Kristine Haugen

Re-Thinking Green Robert Higgs, 2005-07-15 Environmental quality has been a major public concern since the first Earth Day in 1970 yet the maze of environmental laws and regulations enacted since then has fostered huge government bureaucracies better known for waste and failure than for innovation and success Can we do better than this failed environmental bureaucracy The noted contributors to this volume answer with a resounding yes Re Thinking Green exposes the myths that have contributed to failed environmental policies and proposes bold alternatives that recognize the power of incentives and the limitations of political and regulatory processes It addresses some of the most hotly debated environmental issues and shows how entrepreneurship and property rights can be utilized to promote environmental quality and economic growth Re Thinking Green will challenge readers with new paradigms for resolving environmental problems stimulate discussion on how best to humanize environmental policy and inspire policymakers to seek effective alternatives to environmental bureaucracy International Political Economy Benjamin J. Cohen, 2017-03-02 Prior to the 1970s few serious efforts were made to bridge the gap between economics and political science in the study of international relations Systematic scholarly analysis of International Political Economy IPE emphasizing formal integration of elements of orthodox market and political analysis is really of very recent origin This volume brings together some of the most important research papers published in the modern field of IPE since its birth less than four decades ago emphasizing work that has significantly advanced theoretical and analytical understandings Coverage includes grand questions of systemic transformation and system governance as well as more narrowly focused explorations of the two most central issue areas of the world economy trade and money and finance The introductory essay locates this selection of articles in the context of the field's broad evolution and development to date Green China Taco C.R. van Someren, Shuhua van Someren-Wang, 2012-10-30 China is creating the third growth wave in the sustainable sector This greening of the Chinese economy offers threats and opportunities for Western organizations Getting a piece of this new cake requires strategic innovations in both policy and corporate strategy Based on the theory of strategic innovation and their extensive practical experiences in doing business with China the authors propose potential areas and activities for strategic innovation in the West in response to Green China Corporate Social Responsibility Andreas Rasche, Mette Morsing, Jeremy Moon, 2017-03-23 This upper level textbook offers an original and up to date introduction to issues in corporate social responsibility CSR from a global perspective Written by an international team of experts it guides students through key themes in CSR including strategy communication regulation and governance Balancing critiques of CSR with a discussion of the opportunities it creates it includes chapters devoted to critical issues such as human rights anti corruption labour rights and the environment Pedagogical features include customised case studies study questions key term highlighting practitioner pieces and suggestions for further resources The book is also complemented by a companion website featuring adaptable lecture slides teaching notes for cases and links to related resources Tailored for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate courses on corporate social responsibility sustainability and business ethics it is also relevant to non business courses in political science international relations and communications Bingo Capitalism Kate Bedford, 2019-09-26 Casinos are often used by political economists and popular commentators to think critically about capitalism Bingo an equal chance numbers game played in many parts of the world is overlooked in these conversations about gambling and political economy Bingo Capitalism challenges that omission by asking what bingo in England and Wales can teach us about capitalism and the regulation of everyday gambling economies The book draws on official records of parliamentary debate case law regulations and in depth interviews with both bingo players and workers to offer the first socio legal account of this globally significant and immensely popular pastime It explores the legal and political history of bingo and how gender shapes and is shaped by diverse state rules on gambling It also sheds light on the regulation of workers players products places and technologies In so doing it adds a vital new dimension to accounts of UK gambling law and regulation Through Bingo Capitalism Bedford makes a key theoretical contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gambling and political economy showing the role of the state in supporting and then eclipsing environments where gambling played a key role as mutual aid In centring the regulatory entanglement between vernacular play forms self organised membership activity and corporate leisure experiences she offers a fresh vision of gambling law from the everyday perspective of bingo The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004

Public Finance in Transition and Developing Economies Robert W. McGee,2008-12-10 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap Taxation and Public Finance in Transition and Developing Economies is the third in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition economies The first book used Russia as a case study The second volume in the series examined some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looked at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia Eastern Europe and Central Asia The present volume examines taxation and public finance in transition and developing economies It is divided into three parts Part I consists of four general studies on various aspects of tax compliance corruption budget efficiency and fiscal policy Part II includes nine comparative studies of various aspects of public finance Part III consists of 23 country and regional studies of countries in Europe Asia Latin America and Africa Florida International University Robert W McGee v Table of Contents Preface v PART ONE GENERAL STUDIES

Commodifying Communism David L. Wank,1999 Commodifying Communism is an ethnographically grounded account of the institutional organization and political consequences of China s historically unprecedented market growth Drawing upon almost two years of ethnographic fieldwork this book challenges conventional views of post communist emerging markets being tied to the retreat of the state David Wank shows how entrepreneurs running private trading companies in Xiamen City Fujian Province one of China s five special economic zones maximize profit and security through patron client networks with local state agents The book examines how processes of opportunity exchange expectations and advantage are constrained by both statist and popular institutions in market clientelism It also considers the implications of market clientelism for the dynamism of China s emerging market economy relative to Eastern European post communist economies and its political consequences for state society and center local relations      New Labour's State of Health Calum R. Paton, 2006 In this timely and unique work Calum Paton assesses the political economy and politics of current health policy in order to explain the underlying causes of problems in the National Health Service He argues that the fundamental nature of health policy is dependent upon the prevailing regime in political economy and also that policy overload contradictions and confusion have rendered the task of coherent implementation very difficult
