Aging, Duration, and the English Novel Jacob Jewusiak, 2020 Argues that novelists graft aging onto narrative duration and reveals the politics of senescence in nineteenth and early twentieth century plots Narrating Irish Female Development, 1916-2018 Jane Elizabeth Dougherty, 2024-12-31 Narrating Irish Female Development 1916 2018 studies narratives of Irish female and feminized development arguing that these postmodern narratives present Irish female maturation as disordered and often deliberately disorderly The first full length study of the Irish female coming of age story the book develops a feminist psychoanalytic narratology derived from the belated oedipalization of Joyce s bildungsheld to read these stories This study argues that all Irish maturation stories are shaped by the uneven and belated maturation story of the Irish republic itself which took as its avatar the Irish woman whose citizenship in that republic was unrealized as indeed was her citizenship in an Irish republic of letters Dougherty takes the writing of Irish women as seriously as other critics have taken Joyce s work Jacques Rivette Douglas Morrey, Alison Smith, 2019-01-31 Jacques Rivette is perhaps the best kept secret of French cinema A founding figure in the New Wave and at the centre of the Cahiers du cin ma team he developed into one of the most unusual and adventurous French directors of the last sixty years yet his work remains little known in comparison with his contemporaries and this study is the first in English to look at the full span of his career Starting with his decisively influential film criticism of the 1950s it moves from the New Wave through the complex experimental films of the 1970s to the challenging playful dramas which ensured his visibility during the following two decades and ends in the present including Rivette's most recent films Histoire de Marie et Julien 2003 and Ne touchez pas la hache 2007 The book takes a thematic approach offering detailed discussion of key elements of Rivette's film world including games conspiracy and jealousy as well as a study of what Rivette's cinema adds to our understanding of key theoretical concepts in Film Studies such as narrative space and adaptation There are many close analyses of sequences from Rivette's films including Paris nous appartient 1961 Celine et Julie vont en bateau 1974 and La Belle Noiseuse 1991 The Workings of Diaspora Mario Nisbett, 2021-11-04 Engaging the past the present and the future The Workings of Diaspora Jamaican Maroons and the Claims to Sovereignty shows how the lived experience of Jamaican Maroons is linked to the African Diaspora In so doing this interdisciplinary undertaking interrogates the definition of Diaspora but mainly emphasizes the term's use Mario Nisbett demonstrates that an examination of Jamaican Maroon communities particularly their socio-political development can further highlight the significance of the African Diaspora as an analytical tool He shows how Jamaican Maroons inform resistance to abjection a denial of full humanity through claiming their African origin and developing solidarity and consciousness in order to affirm black humanity This book establishes that present day Jamaican Maroons remain relevant and engage the African Diaspora to improve black standing and bolster assertions of sovereignty

T. Morris, S. Goldsworthy, 2016-02-10 Public relations is a big and rapidly growing industry with annual growth rates of 20-30% It spans the worlds of business politics and culture sport and entertainment PR is everywhere And yet though it is much talked about it is little analyzed The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction

Susana Onega, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2018-04-27 The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction tracks the emergence of a new type of physically and or spiritually wounded hero in contemporary fiction. Editors Susana Onega and Jean Michel Ganteau bring together some of the top minds in the field to explore the paradoxical lives of these heroes that have embraced rather than overcome their suffering, alienation and marginalisation as a form of self definition. Literary Aesthetics of Trauma

Reina Van der Wiel, 2014-04-08 Literary Aesthetics of Trauma Virginia Woolf and Jeanette Winterson investigate a fundamental shift from the 1920s to the present day in the way that trauma is aesthetically expressed. Modernism's emphasis on impersonality and narrative abstraction has been replaced by the contemporary trauma memoir and an ethical imperative to bear witness. Chuck Palahniuk and the Comic Grotesque David McCracken, 2020-10-16 With the success of Fight Club his novel turned movie Chuck Palahniuk has become noticed for accurately capturing the exploitation of power in America in the 21st century. With cynicism and skepticism he satirizes the manipulative aspects of ideologies and beliefs pushing society's understanding of the norm. In this work Palahniuk's characters are analyzed as people who rebel against the systems in control. Mikhail Bakhtin's theory is applied to explain Palahniuk's application of the comic grotesque theories from Louis Althusser and Slavoj Žižek help reveal aspects of ideology in Palahniuk's writing. Yeats Richard J. Finneran, 2003-10-28 The most recent volume of this distinguished annual. Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal, Mónica Calvo, 2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives. The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma, historical trauma, absence vs loss, the roles of perpetrator and victim, dissociation, nachträglichkeit, transgenerational trauma, the process of acting out and working through, introjection and incorporation, mourning and melancholia, the phantom and the crypt, postmemory and multidirectional memory, shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma. Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma: the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival, healing and recovery.

Channeling Knowledges Rebeca L. Hey-Colón, 2023-05-09 2024 Honorable Mention Isis Duarte Book Prize, Haiti Dominican Republic section, Latin American Studies Association. How water enables Caribbean and Latinx writers to reconnect to their pasts, presents and futures. Water is often tasked with upholding division through the imposition of geopolitical borders. We see this in the construction of the Rio Grande/Rio Bravo on the US-Mexico border as well as in how the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean are used to delineate the limits of US territory. In stark contrast to this divisive view, Afro-diasporic religions conceive of water as a place of connection; it is where spiritual entities and ancestors reside and where knowledge awaits. Departing from the premise that water encourages confluence through the sustainment of contradiction Channeling Knowledges fathoms water's depth and breadth in the work of Latinx and Caribbean creators such as Mayra Santos Febres, Rita Indiana, Gloria Evangelina Anzaldúa and the Border of Lights collective. Combining methodologies from literary studies, anthropology, history and religious studies, Rebeca L. Hey Colón's interdisciplinary study traces how Latinx and Caribbean cultural production draws on systems of Afro-diasporic worship: Haitian Vodou, La 21 División Dominicana, Vodou and Santería, Regla de Ocha, to channel the power of water, both salty and sweet, in sustaining connections between past, present and not yet imagined futures.

Memory, Imagination and Desire in Contemporary

Anglo-American Literature and Film Constanza del Río Álvaro, Luis M. García Mainar, 2004. This volume offers a series of analyses on the renewed interest of western culture in themes and aesthetic proposals that either look back to the past or recreate future worlds. The turn of the century has witnessed artistic efforts to reconsider past literary and cinematographic forms and adapt them to the new social concerns of contemporary artists and readers/viewers. Similarly, science fiction and utopian narratives have attempted to reshape the world as we know it and speculate about the mysteries the future might hold for us. This book includes contributions that focus on and problematise the dialogue between past, present and future in literary works and films produced within the English-speaking context in the last two decades of the 20th century. It is divided in five sections: maps of the postmodern, the postcolonial experience, stories revisited, popular narrative genres and views of the future, which attempt to include all the motifs associated with that dialogue, from the interaction of memory and history to the reformulation of old stories and forms, or the representation of dystopian and utopian futures.

Remembering Conquest

Omar Valerio-Jiménez, 2024-04-10. This book analyzes the ways collective memories of the US-Mexico War have shaped Mexican Americans' civil rights struggles over several generations. As the first Latinx people incorporated into the nation, Mexican Americans were offered US citizenship by the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, which ended the war. Because the 1790 Naturalization Act declared whites solely eligible for citizenship, the treaty pronounced Mexican Americans to be legally white. While their incorporation as citizens appeared as progress towards racial justice and the electorate's diversification, their second-class citizenship demonstrated a retrenchment in racial progress. Over several generations, civil rights activists summoned conquest memories to link Mexican Americans' poverty, electoral disenfranchisement, low educational attainment and health disparities to structural and institutional inequalities resulting from racial retrenchments. Activists also recalled the treaty's citizenship guarantees to push for property rights protection from vigilante attacks and educational reform. Omar Valerio-Jiménez addresses the politics of memory by exploring how succeeding generations reinforced or modified earlier memories of conquest according to their contemporary social and political contexts. The book also examines collective memories in the US and Mexico to illustrate transnational influences on Mexican Americans and to demonstrate how community and national memories can be used strategically to advance political agendas.
