Irish South Australia Susan Arthure, Fidelma Breen, Stephanie James, Dymphna Lonergan, 2019-01-17 Its capital is named after German born Queen Adelaide its main street after her English husband King William IV so it is not surprising that little is known about South Australia's Irish background However the first European to discover Adelaide's River Torrens in 1836 was Cork born and educated George Kingston who was deputy surveyor to Colonel Light the river was named in turn for Derryman Colonel Torrens Chairman of the South Australian Colonisation Commission Adelaide's first judge and first police commissioner were immigrants from Kerry and Limerick Irish South Australia charts Irish settlement from as far north as Pekina to the state's south east and Mount Gambier It follows the diverse fortunes of the Irish born elite such as George Kingston and Charles Harvey Bagot as well as doctors farmers lawyers orphans parliamentarians pastoralists and publicans who made South Australia their home with various shades of political and religious beliefs Anglicans Catholics Dissenters Federationists Freemasons Home Rulers nationalists and Orangemen Irish markers can be found in South Australian archaeology architecture geography and history Some of these are visible in the hundreds of Irish place names that dot the South Australian landscape such as Clare Donnybrook Dublin Kilkenny Navan Rostrevor Tipperary and Tralee as Tarlee The book's editors are twentieth century Irish immigrants from Dublin Dymphna Lonergan Portadown Fidelma Breen Trim Susan Arthure and by descent from eight Irish born Stephanie James

Scottishness and Irishness in New Zealand since 1840 Angela McCarthy, 2017-02-01 This book examines the distinctive aspects that insiders and outsiders perceived as characteristic of Irish and Scottish ethnic identities in New Zealand When how and why did Irish and Scots identify themselves and others in ethnic terms What characteristics did the Irish and the Scots attribute to themselves and what traits did others assign to them Did these traits change over time and if so how Contemporary interest surrounding issues of ethnic identities is vibrant In countries such as New Zealand descendants of European settlers are seeking their ethnic origins spurred on in part by factors such as an ongoing interest in indigenous genealogies the burgeoning appeal of family history societies and the booming financial benefits of marketing ethnicities abroad This fascinating book will appeal to scholars and students of the history of empire and the construction of identity in settler communities as well as those interested in the history of New Zealand

Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History Gay Lynch, 2010-10-12 Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History establishes that apocryphal stories in all their transformations contribute to collective memory Common characteristics frame their analysis irreducible and enduring elements often embedded in archetypal drama lack of historical verification establishment in collective memory revivals after periods of dormancy subjection to political and economic manipulation implicit speculation and literary transformations This book contextualises Unsettled an Australian novel about a convict play derived from the Irish apocryphal story of The Magistrate of Galway and documents previously unpublished primary material including apocryphal stories passed through generations of descendants of settlers Martin and Maria Lynch and The Hibernian Father a play by Irish convict Edward Geoghegan It puts forward new hypotheses that the Irish hero Cuchulain may have provided a template for the archetypal and apocryphal story of the Magistrate of Galway that disgraced Trinity College medical student and aspiring writer Edward Geoghegan enacted and recounted the same father son archetypal conflict when he was transported to Botany Bay in 1839 and wrote the The Hibernian Father based on the Magistrate of Galway that working class Irish families were marginalised in South east South Australian historical records that oral apocryphal Lynch stories may be true that Kate Grenville s The Secret River 2006 offers an alternative history of the Hawkesbury River settlement by some definitions apocryphal The mystery of Geoghegan s disappearance is solved and knowledge about his life increased French theorist Gerard Genette s notion advanced in Palimpsests Literature in the Second Degree 1997 of all novels being transtextual provides a model for the analysis of relationships between these key apocryphal texts

Australian English Reimagined Louisa Willoughby, Howard Manns, 2019-11-01 Australian English is perhaps best known for its colourful slang but the variety is much richer than slang alone This collection provides a detailed account of Australian English by bringing together leading scholars of this English variety These scholars provide a comprehensive overview of Australian English s distinctive features and outline cutting edge research into the variation and change of English in Australia Organised thematically this volume explores the ways in which Australian English differs from other varieties of English as well as examining regional social and stylistic variation within the variety The volume first explores particular structural features where Australian English differentiates itself from other English varieties There are chapters on phonetics and phonology socio phonetics lexicon and discourse pragmatics as these elements are core to understanding any variety of English especially within the World Englishes paradigm It then considers what are arguably the most salient aspects of variation within Australian English and finally focuses on historical attitudinal and planning aspects of Australian English This volume provides a thorough account of Australian English and its users as complex diverse and worthy of study Perhaps more importantly this volume s scholars provide a reimagining of Australian English and the paradigm through which future scholars may proceed
