Information Sources in Law J.R. Winterton, Elizabeth M. Moys, 2012-06-21 The aim of each volume of this series Guides to Information Sources is to reduce the time which needs to be spent on patient searching and to recommend the best starting point and sources most likely to yield the desired information The criteria for selection provide a way into a subject to those new to the field and assists in identifying major new or possibly unexplored sources to those who already have some acquaintance with it The series attempts to achieve evaluation through a careful selection of sources and through the comments provided on those sources The Foundations of Restitution for Wrongs Francesco Giglio, 2007-03-06 Restitution for wrongs or restitutionary damages is the judicial award which compels the wrongdoer to give up to the victim the benefit obtained through the perpetration of the wrong independently of any loss suffered by the victim The establishment of a civil trial in Roman law which left compensation as the main response and a widespread loss centred interpretation of the Aristotelian theory of corrective justice explain but do not justify the difficulties encountered by modern attempts to account for restitutionary damages Mistakes in the classification of this institution have complicated the picture To overcome some of these problems this study considers the basic structure of restitutionary damages from different angles In part one the topic is analysed from a comparative perspective Although the focus remains on English law the German the Italian and the Roman jurisdictions provide research data which in part two support the development of a theory of restitution for wrongs as corrective justice The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology Nancy A. Pachana, Ken Laidlaw, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology is a landmark publication in this field providing broad and authoritative coverage of the research and practice issues in the field today as well as innovations expanding the field's horizons It includes chapters from the foremost scholars in clinical geropsychology from around the world China, a Sourcebook of Information George Ephraim Sokolsky, 1920 Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae, Edward Bander, Francis Doyle, Joel Fishman, Paul Richert, 2021-12-13 Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense Developing Key Privacy Rights Madeleine Colvin, 2002-07-12 With the incorporation into domestic law of the European Convention on Human Rights the UK courts will increasingly be called upon to strike the balance between the potentially conflicting rights of the right to privacy under Article 8 and the right to freedom of expression under Article 10 This book looks at the legal and constitutional development of both these rights and the relationship between them in several other countries France Germany Canada New Zealand and Australia and before the European Court of Human Rights With a particular focus on cases concerning the media it is an important source for all those interested in the development of these areas of law under the Human Rights Act Contributors Madeleine Colvin Catherine Dupr Rosalind English David Lindsay Marguerite Russell Jemima Stratford Rosemary Tobin Source Book in Bioethics Albert R. Jonsen, Robert M. Veatch, LeRoy Walters, 1999-09-07 Government agencies and commissions courts and legislatures have during the past several decades produced reports rendered decisions and passed laws that have both defined the fundamental issues in the field of bioethics and established ways of managing them in our society Providing a history of these key bioethical decisions this Source Book in Bioethics is the first and only comprehensive collection of the critical public documents in biomedical ethics including many hard to find or out of print materials Covering the period from 1947 to 1995 this volume brings together core legislative documents court briefs and reports by professional organizations public bodies and governments around the world Sections on human experimentation care of the terminally ill genetics human reproduction and emerging areas in bioethics include such pivotal works as The Nuremberg Code The Tuskegee Report and In the Matter of Baby M as well less readily available documents as The Declaration of Inuyama the Council for International Organizations of Medical Sciences statement on genetic engineering and The Warnock Committee Report on reproductive technologies from the United Kingdom Three eminent scholars in the field provide brief introductions to each document explaining the significance of these classic sources This historical volume will be a standard text for courses in bioethics health policy and death and dying and a primary reference for anyone interested in this increasingly relevant field
