Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski, 2001 Rhetoric and Composition Richard Layton Graves, 1990 Rhetoric and Composition Richard Layton Graves, 1976 Rhetorical Agendas Patricia Bizzell, 2006-04-21 This volume represents current theory and research in rhetoric across disciplines and is of interest to scholars and students in rhetoric studies in speech communication English and related disciplines The Rhetoric of Pope Francis Christopher J.

Oldenburg, 2018-10-17 What is it about the rhetoric of one the most influential and powerful religious leaders in the world and in history Pope Francis that is so engaging and yet so challenging to the Church writ large the American Congress the news media and the world The Rhetoric of Pope Francis Critical Mercy and Conversion for the Twenty first Century provides extensive insight into this question through a close in depth rhetorical analysis of Pope Francis s visual spatial tactile written and oral discourse This analysis reveals how the interrelated topoi of illness space mercy and conversion converge to articulate Francis s vision for the Church Under Francis the Catholic Church s virtue of mercy gets renewed and redeployed to papal pastoral and political sites for the purpose of conversion Each chapter identifies several of Francis s dominant rhetorical strategies These pope tropes take the form of existing and widely held Catholic beliefs that while stable still invite interpretation disputation and open dialogue Studying Francis s various discourses provides us with an exemplary paradigm from which we can learn much about faith humility love and papal rhetoric s transformative capacity to help us live more compassionate lives Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies Carolyn R. Miller, Amy J. Devitt, 2024-11-01

Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies gathers major works that have contributed to the recent rhetorical reconceptualization of genre A lively and complex field developed over the past 30 years Rhetorical Genre Studies is central to many current research and teaching agendas This collection which is organized both thematically and chronologically explores genre research across a range of disciplinary interests but with a specific focus on rhetoric and composition With introductions by the co editors to frame and extend each section this volume helps readers understand and contextualize both the foundations of the field and the central themes and insights that have emerged It will be of particular interest to students and scholars working on topics related to composition rhetoric professional and technical writing and applied linguistics Purpose, Practice, and Pedagogy in Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2014-02-07 This edited volume fills a void in the literature concerning the purpose practice and pedagogy associated with performing rhetorical criticism Literature regarding these issues predominantly purpose exists primarily as scattered journal articles and as sections within chapters of textbooks on rhetorical criticism This book brings together 15 established rhetorical critics each of whom offers well thought out and argued opinion pieces that stress the more personal nature of criticism The purpose of this book is to serve as a disciplinary resource and as a teaching and learning aid Accessibility across areas of expertise and experience is stressed in this book Critics range from junior faculty to emeritus and represent a broad spectrum of views on criticism In this sense the book offers a snapshot of the views of a wide swath of successfully practicing contemporary rhetorical critics

Professing the New Rhetorics Theresa Enos, Stuart Cameron Brown, 1994 A Blair Press Book A collection of key texts in twentieth century rhetoric The first section contains important theoretical readings from the founders of modern rhetoric the second section provides influential commentaries on modern rhetorical theory Shades of Sulh Rasha Diab, 2016-04-26 Sulh is a centuries old Arab Islamic peacemaking process In Shades of Sulh Rasha Diab explores the possibilities of the rhetoric of sulh as it is used to resolve intrapersonal interpersonal communal national and international conflicts and provides cases that illustrate each of these domains Diab demonstrates the adaptability and range of sulh as a ritual and practice that travels across spheres of activity juridical extra juridical political diplomatic through time medieval modern contemporary and over geopolitical borders Cairo Galilee and Medina Together the cases prove the flexibility of sulh in the discourse of peacemaking and that sulh has remarkable rhetorical longevity versatility and richness Shades of Sulh sheds new light on rhetorics of reconciliation human rights discourse and Arab Islamic rhetorics Rhetoric and the Early Royal Society Tina Skouen, Ryan Stark, 2014-11-27 The Royal Society's establishment in 1660 signaled a new beginning for the rhetoric of science mainly because the organization's founders advocated a modern plain style for scientific communication Rhetoric and the Early Royal Society aims to initiate fresh debates about this watershed event in the history of rhetoric and science In the last twenty years scholars in numerous disciplines have produced significant work ranging from theoretical essays to case studies of founding members such as Wilkins Hooke and Boyle This is the first book to collect in one volume the key contributions The newly written introduction by editors Skouen and Stark places the reprinted essays into perspective by evaluating the Society's pioneering role in shaping modern scholarly communication

Double-Consciousness and the Rhetoric of Barack Obama Robert E. Terrill, 2015-07-30 This incisive work examining Obama's speeches and the theories of W E B DuBois illuminates the influences of words and ideas Choice The racial history of US citizenship is vital to our understanding of both citizenship and race Robert E Terrill argues that to invent a robust manner of addressing one another as citizens Americans must draw on the indignities of racial exclusion that have stained citizenship since its inception In Double Consciousness and the Rhetoric of Barack Obama Terrill demonstrates how President Barack Obama's public address models such a discourse Terrill contends that Obama's most effective oratory invites his audiences to experience a form of double consciousness famously described by W E B Du Bois as a feeling of twoness resulting from the African American experience of always looking at one's self through the eyes of others An effect of cruel alienation this double consciousness can also offer valuable perspectives on society When addressing fellow citizens Obama asks each to share in the peculiar sensation that Du Bois described Through close analyses of selected speeches from Obama's 2008 campaign and first presidential term this book argues that Obama does not present double consciousness merely as a point of view but as an idiom with which we might speak to one another Of course as Du Bois s work reminds us double consciousness results from imposition and encumbrance so that Obama s oratory presents a mode of address that emphasizes the burdens of citizenship together with the benefits the price as well as the promise The Handbook of Communication and Corporate Reputation Craig E. Carroll,2015-06-22 With the latest insights from the world of communication studies into the nature of corporate reputation this new addition to Wiley Blackwell s series of handbooks on communication and media reflects the growing visibility of large businesses ethical profiles and tracks the benefits that positive public attitudes can bring Serves as the definitive research collection for a fast growing field featuring contributions by key international scholars Brings together state of the art communication studies insights on corporate reputation Identifies and addresses the lacunae in the research literature Applies new theoretical frameworks to corporate reputation

Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers,2009-07-16 Covering a broad range of rhetorical perspectives Rhetorical Criticism Perspectives in Action presents a thorough accessible and well grounded introduction to rhetorical criticism Throughout the text sample essays written by noted experts provide students with models for writing their own criticism In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism the volume presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives for example close textual analysis mythic criticism framing analysis ideographic criticism concept oriented criticism and critical rhetoric exposing student to a wide range of material Featuring nineteen chapters all written by leading rhetoric scholars the volume offers the most comprehensive introduction to rhetorical criticism available Features The chapters are written by a nationally recognized scholar in that area giving students the best and most current research for each perspective Each chapter includes an original sample essay that gives students a model of rhetorical criticism for their own assignments Each author comments on his or her writing process to demonstrate the personal nature of criticism This unique emphasis allows students to appreciate that writing criticism is not a simple formulaic process Every chapter features a Potentials and Pitfalls section that highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the rhetorical perspective being discussed Seasoned Speech

James E. Beitler III,2019-05-07 Being a faithful disciple of Christ means having seasoned speech practicing a rhetoric that beneficially and persuasively imparts the surprising truth of the gospel James Beitler seeks to renew interest in and hunger for an effective Christian rhetoric by closely considering the work of five beloved Christian communicators C S Lewis Dorothy L Sayers Dietrich Bonhoeffer Desmond Tutu and Marilynne Robinson Political Vocabularies Mary E.

Stuckey,2018-03-01 Political Vocabularies FDR the Clergy Letters and the Elements of Political Argument uses a set of letters sent to Franklin D Roosevelt in 1935 by American clergymen to make a larger argument about the rhetorical processes of our national politics At any given moment national politics are constituted by competing political imaginaries through which citizens understand and participate in politics Different imaginaries locate political authority in different places and so political authority is very much a site of dispute between differing political vocabularies Opposing political vocabularies are grounded in opposing characterizations of the specific political moment its central issues and its citizens for we cannot imagine a political community without populating it and giving it purpose These issues and people are hierarchically ordered which provides the imaginary with a sense of internal cohesion and which also is a central point of disputation between competing vocabularies in a specific epoch Each vocabulary is grounded in a political tradition read through our national myths which authorize the visions of national identity and purpose and which contain significant deliberative aspects for each vision of the nation impels distinct political imperatives Such imaginaries are our political priorities in action Taking one specific moment of political change the author illuminates the larger processes of change competition and stability in national politics

Contrastive Rhetoric Ulla Connor, Ed Nagelhout, William Rozycki, 2008-01-09 This volume explores contrastive rhetoric for audiences in both ESL contexts and international EFL contexts exposing the newest developments in theories of culture and discourse and pushing the boundaries beyond any previously staked ground The book presents a comprehensive set of empirical investigations involving a number of first languages 13 of the 17 authors are English as a second language speakers many working in non US contexts This work develops a coherent agenda for contrastive rhetoric researchers studying genres such as school writing grant proposals business letters newspaper editorials book reviews and newspaper commentaries Four chapters provide ethnographies and observations about contrastive rhetoric and the teaching of EFL and ESL The book ends with a look to the future suggesting it is more accurate to use the term intercultural rhetoric to account for the richness of rhetoric variation of written texts and the varying contexts in which they are constructed

Slipping the Surly Bonds Mary E. Stuckey, 2006 Millions of Americans including hundreds of thousands of schoolchildren watched in horror as the Challenger shuttle capsule exploded on live television on January 28 1986 Coupled with that awful image in Americans memory is the face of President Ronald Reagan addressing the public hours later with words that spoke to the nation s shock and mourning Focusing on the text of Reagan s speech author Mary Stuckey shows how President Reagan s reputation as the Great Communicator adds significance to our understanding of his rhetoric on one of the most momentous occasions of his administration

The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy, Byron Stay, 2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director s Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles duties and responsibilities It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi dimensional view of writing center work In the end this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations
