exclusively by disenfranchised black South Africans The century ended as it started with a war But this was a limited war a flashpoint of the Cold War which embraced more than just the subcontinent and lasted a long twenty three years The first of its kind A Military History of Modern South Africa provides an overview of South African military history from 1899 to 2000 Focusing on the campaigns and battles it also brings discussion on the evolving military policy and the development of the South African military as an institution into a single volume
