South Africa Chic:

Mud Chic Craig Fraser, Sindiwe Magona, 2006-01-01 In Xhosa culture the headman and elders of a tribe hold the key to all knowledge In this visual journey to the traditional dwellings and homesteads of the old transkei the photographer has elevated these rural abodes to a similar status For the design layout and materials used in these humble homes reveal much more than mere structure They reveal that dire poverty does little to dampen the irrepressible human impulse to adorn and beautify Here the realities of daily life are manifest in no running water some journey five times a day to collect water no electricity and scant employment and yet using little more than materials found in nature or sourced from the surrounding environment the personality of each homeowner is expressed in a rich elaborate vocabulary of symbols geometric patterns colour and decorative detail that is uniquely individual to each Collectively these homes reveal the nature of a society that lives according to the deep seated values of a fast vanishing way of life Here life is lived in tune with nature and in cognisance of community Here your worth and your lifestyle is measured by your number of cattle Fodor's South Africa Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc.  Library,1920 The Birth of Cool Carol Tulloch,2016-01-28 It is broadly recognized that black style had a clear and profound influence on the history of dress in the twentieth century with black culture and fashion having long been defined as cool Yet despite this high profile in depth explorations of the culture and history of style and dress in the African diaspora are a relatively recent area of enquiry The Birth of Cool asserts that cool is seen as an arbiter of presence and relates how both iconic and ordinary black individuals and groups have marked out their lives through the styling of their bodies Focusing on counter and sub cultural contexts this book investigates the role of dress in the creation and assertion of black identity From the gardenia corsage worn by Billie Holiday to the work wear of female African Jamaican market traders through to the home dressmaking of black Britons in the 1960s and the meaning of a polo neck jumper as depicted in a 1934 self portrait by African American artist Malvin Gray Johnson this study looks at the ways in which the diaspora experience is expressed through self image Spanning the late nineteenth century to the modern day the book draws on ready made and homemade fashion photographs paintings and films published and unpublished biographies and letters from Britain Jamaica South Africa and the United States to consider how personal style statements reflect issues of racial and cultural difference
 The Birth of Cool is a powerful exploration of how style and dress both initiate and confirm change and the ways in which they expresses identity and resistance in black culture
