South Africa Renaissance Or Reformation:

South Africa, Renaissance Or Reformation? Tom Barlow, Peter Hammond, 1999 Reformed theology today: Biblical and systematic-theological perspectives Nico Vorster, Herculaas F. (Herrie) van Rooy, Hendrik (Hennie) de Goede, Francois P. Viljoen, H.J.M. (Hans) van Deventer, C.F.C. (Callie) Coetzee, Benno Zuiddam, Petrus Paulus Kruger, Conrad Wethmar, 2017-11-23 This book contributes to an extensive number of scholarly works produced in 2017 which commemorate the scientific revolution and paradigm shift that occurred in 1517 The year 2017 marks the 500th celebration of the Reformation actuated by Martin Luther when he published what later became known as the Ninety Five Theses on indulgences The Reformation was a religious social cultural and political event that reshaped the landscape of modern Europe and has had an influence on parts of the world far beyond This includes the far South such as South Africa where the legacy of the Reformers has moulded institutional and individual lives across boundaries of ethnicity and beliefs Worldwide celebrations of this quinqucentenary anniversary provide scholars with an opportunity to reflect anew on the consequences and lasting import of the Reformation This book provides one such a platform by discussing the scientific relevance of Reformed theology specifically with regard to biblical historical and systematic theological themes Comprising a collection of essays by scholars belonging to the Reformed tradition it aims at examining the historical heritage of the Reformation the current state of discourse in Reformed theology as well as the contemporary relevance of a Reformed approach to theology It contains biblical historical theological and systematic theological perspectives and addresses a variety of issues such as biblical interpretation text criticism translation constructive impulses emanating from classical Reformed thought Christian freedom anthropology and dialogue with non Reformed traditions Although the approaches followed are by no means exhaustive they do provide the reader with some indication of approaches followed in Reformed discourse Chapters 1 4 pertain to biblical interpretation A variety of methods are discussed and employed namely the grammatical historical text immanent socio historical redactional historical diachronic and synchronic approaches These analyses confirm that biblical interpretation requires a multi faceted approach to biblical texts Chapters 5 9 conversely discuss various historical and systematic theological themes Classical texts from the Reformation specifically works by Calvin and Luther are examined and contemporary theological literature are analysed compared and evaluated while innovative new ideas are proposed This book is written in the reformed spirit of semper Reformanda While it enters into dialogue with other traditions such as Pentecostal Neo Pentecostal Roman Catholic and Lutheran theology it also exhibits an attitude of self reflection and self correction This contribution does not only affirm the Reformed heritage as a living tradition but it also attempts to invigorate the tradition with innovating new ideas by drawing on classical and recent theological literature The target audience is mainly Reformed theologians but non Reformed scholars who are interested in engaging with the Reformed tradition would find this book informative Politics and Society in South Africa Daryl Glaser, 2000-12-22 Darryl Glaser supplies an illuminating overview of the scholarship since 1970 on South Africa's political history. His emphasis is on the debates between liberals, Marxists and to a lesser extent post-structuralists about the origins and the course of South Africa's racial order. Tom Lodge, University of Witwatersrand. A well-researched, well-argued, readable, interesting, informative and competent study. Capital and Class. Providing a wide-ranging and critical introduction to contemporary South Africa, this book uses an interdisciplinary lens to introduce the student to the main debates, historical context and issues that have characterized the study of South Africa over the last three decades. Key topics include the role of colonialism, capitalism and modernity in the formation of the racial order, changes in the South African state, questions of class, race and ethnicity, black resistance and the transition to democracy. A number of underlying debates are critically evaluated. For example, the contribution of materialist and class-analytic approaches, the application of post-structuralism and theories of modernity and the prospects for democratic liberalism and socialism in post-apartheid South Africa.

Transforming the Church in Africa Vernon E. Light, 2012. This book is a must-read for serious Christians hoping to obey the Great Commission to make disciples in Africa. Vernon strikes an admirable balance between academic depth and practical application, helping us to appreciate the interface between the gospel of Jesus Christ and the traditional African worldview. I heartily recommend this book to all thinking Christian leaders in Africa: pastors, teachers and missionaries. Kevin G. Smith, DLitt, PhD. Vernon Light wrote this book with an apostolic passion in the way the apostles presented and proclaimed the Gospel to world religions and cultures. It is an exciting study of African traditional religion and its relation to Christianity. It shows that for Christianity to thrive and be relevant biblically and transformationally in Africa, firstly Christian scholars and theologians are needed who understand and address Africa's traditional heritage and Western modern, postmodern and pluralistic ideologies, and secondly the Gospel must be contextually, relevantly, meaningfully and practically taught through an effective discipleship program. The book, based on extensive research and massive use of resources, is a valuable tool for students, pastors, scholars and theologians interested in the state of Christianity and religious change in Africa. Professor Yusufu Turaki, PhD. Much more than being a useful resource, this is a book with a mission. Like Jeremiah of old (Jer 20:9), Vernon is a man with a passion and message from God to the society to which God has called him. Like Jeremiah, Vernon is totally convinced of the absolute truth of his message in the midst of a myriad of conflicting opinions and that his message will change society from disaster to hope. Would that it is heard! Professor David T. Williams, DTh. The Rev. Vernon E. Light, BSc, BDHons, MTh, is a member of the academic staff at the South African Theological Seminary. UCANUUS, 1992.

Reconciliation as a Controversial Symbol Demaine J. Solomons, 2024-07-31. Reconciliation is never simple and straightforward; it is often tied to ideological conflict resulting in very different understandings of what this noble Christian ideal is all about. In this important study, Dr. Demaine Solomons provides a thorough conceptual analysis of the term reconciliation within the context of Christian discourse in South Africa. Analysing literature from the 1960s onwards, particularly in theological reflections on social conflict within the country, the author explores the diverse interpretations of reconciliation Drawing on the Christus Victor typology of atonement by Gustaf Aul n this study facilitates ongoing theological reflection by offering a constructive reinterpretation of reconciliation in contemporary South Africa By exploring creative uses of the reconciliation concept this study contributes to a nuanced understanding of its application in Christian contexts offering a more complete version of how South Africa s reconciliation narrative is understood and providing insight into how this theological concept might be understood in other social contexts

African Theology Today Emmanuel M. Katongole,2017-05-09 This book brings together twelve essays on a wide and rich range of topics discussions and methodologies in African theology today Even the book s limitations provide an insight into the situation its variety also indicates the absence of comprehensive and sustained discussion flowing from the economic and institutional limitation of Africa where research in theology is often beyond the means of many theologians Then there is the difficulty of staying abreast of continually changing contexts and events in Africa itself For all of these reasons then a compelling introduction to a dynamic analysis and conversation
