South African War Machine Helmoed-Römer Heitman,1985 Discusses the organization weapons training and operations of the Army Air Force Navy and special forces of South Africa South African War Machine Helmoed-R. Heitman,1985

Do Not Feed the South African War Machine ,1984 Managing the South African War, 1899-1902 Keith Terrance Surridge,1998 Of all the wars fought by Britain between 1815 and 1914 the South African War was the most extensive and costly This book offers a survey of the disputes which arose between the British government and the era s most famous soldiers State Security in South Africa James Michael Roherty,1992 This work is a study of civil military relations in the Republic of South Africa while Pieter Willem Botha was prime minister 1978-89 The author s controversial thesis is that Prime Minister Botha recognizing that his country had reached the historical juncture when it needed to establish a new political order encompassing all of its diverse peoples moved effectively to prepare the ground for fundamental constitutional change What was needed above all were stabilization measures to assure the support of the white population for reform Botha used the South African defence force as his primary instrument By 1989 Professor Roherty maintains a striking degree of stabilization had been achieved within the country and throughout South Africa and the groundwork for epochal change had been prepared The author makes use of exclusive interviews with South Africans from the political military intelligence corporate and academic worlds From Defence to Development International Development Research Centre (Canada),Group for Environmental Monitoring (Johannesburg, South Africa),1998 From Defence to Development Redirecting military resources in South Africa Air University Review ,1986-09 Aeroplanes and Dirigibles of War Frederick Arthur Ambrose Talbot,2020-01-01 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide Norway and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tore Linné Eriksen,Nordiska Afrikainstitutet,2000 This book documents and analyses the involvement of Norway in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa Apart from focussing on the formulation of official policies and the extensive cooperation with the liberation movements in the field of humanitarian assistance mainly based on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs records the study highlights the popular involvement and commitment to the struggle Separate chapters are concerned with the churches trade unions and solidarity movements such as the Norwegian Council for Southern Africa and the Namibia Committee The book also includes a case study on the battle for sanctions The Study forms part of the Nordic Africa Institute s research and documentation project National Liberation in Southern Africa The Role of the Nordic Countries At the Risk of Being Heard Bartholomew Dean,Jerome M. Levi,2003 An analysis of indigenous rights and the challenges confronting indigenous peoples in the twenty first century Aëroplanes and Dirigibles of War Frederick Arthur Ambrose Talbot,1915 Beskriver milit re flytyper og luftskibe samt mulighederne for luftkrig omkring 1915

Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton,2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia The Principles of War Historically Illustrated Edward Altham Altham,1914 Politics and History in

Band Societies Richard Lee,1982-09-30 The papers collected in this volume present important information on the history and culture of contemporary gathering and hunting peoples from Canada India Africa Australia and the Philippines The volume focuses on two themes first on the techniques which band living foraging peoples employ to organise their social and economic lives and second on their fight for the right to their own lands and for a measure of cultural and political autonomy The contributors maintain that gatherer hunters are not examples of a disappearing way of life but peoples who have maintained their social and economic practices through long periods of contact with stratified societies The aim of this volume it to make known to as wide an audience as possible the daily lives the patterns of relations between the sexes and the political orientations of the world s contemporary foragers Soldiers In A Storm Philip Frankel,2018-05-04 Soldiers in a Storm The Armed Forces in South Africa s Democratic Transition is a study of the role of the military in the creation and development of South Africa s new post apartheid system Philip Frankel asserts that the armed forces played a far greater role in the end of apartheid than is currently acknowledged in the literature and that the relatively peaceful negotiations that ended apartheid would not have been possible without the participation of the South African National Defense Force and two major liberation armies Frankel also examines the topics of military disengagement civilianization post authoritarian political behavior on the part of militaries and the process of democratic consolidation He also discusses how many of these themes have been explored in the context of Latin America and he points out that this is the only book that places these themes within the context of South Africa This is an important case study with universal implications Yearbook of

International Humanitarian Law - 2002 Horst Fischer,Avril McDonald,2011-03-04 The world s only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws of armed conflict the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this highly topical branch of international law The Yearbook also includes a selection of documents from the reporting period many of which are not accessible elsewhere and a comprehensive bibliography of all recent publications in humanitarian law and other relevant fields Ease of use of the Yearbook is guaranteed by the inclusion of a detailed index Distinguished by its topicality and contemporary relevance the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students

Carlos Cardoso Paul Fauvet, Marcelo Mosse, 2003 On 22 November 2000 Carlos Cardoso arguably the finest of post independence Mozambican journalists was assassinated in Maputo while investigating the theft of 14 million from the country's largest bank

Violence and Non-Violence in Africa Pal Ahluwalia, Louise Bethlehem, Ruth Ginio, 2007-03-12 This unique volume seeks both to historicize and to deconstruct the pervasive almost ritualistic association of Africa with forms of terrorism as well as extreme violence the latter bordering on and including genocide Africa is tendentiously associated with violence in the popular and academic imagination alike Written by leading authorities in postcolonial studies and African history as well as highly promising emergent scholars this book highlights political social and cultural processes in Africa which incite violence or which facilitate its negotiation or negation through non violent social practice The chapters cover diverse historical periods ranging from fourteenth century Ethiopia and early twentieth century Cameroon to contemporary analyses set in Kenya Tanzania Nigeria Cameroon the Ivory Coast and South Africa It makes a crucial contribution to a revitalized understanding of the social and historical coordinates of violence or its absence in African settings Violence and Non Violence in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars of African history and anthropology colonialism and post colonialism political science and Africanist cultural studies

Fighting for Time Charles D. Melson, 2021-02-05 This military study examines the evolution of the Rhodesian armed services during the complex conflicts of the Cold War era Through the 1960s and 1970s Africa endured a series of conflicts involving Rhodesia South Africa and Portugal in conflict with the Frontline States The Cold War brought outside influences including American interest at the diplomatic economic and social level In Fighting for Time military historian Charles D Melson sheds new light on this complex and consequential period through analysis of the Rhodesian military Drawing on a wealth of primary sources Melson examines the Rhodesian military's evolution into a special operations force conducting intelligence driven operations Along the way he identifies key lessons to be learned from this low intensity conflict at the level of tactics techniques and procedures Melson looks closely at the military response to the emerging revolutionary threat and the development of general and special purpose units He addresses the critical use of airpower as a force multiplier supporting civil police and army efforts ranging from internal security and border control to internal and external combat operations the necessity of full time joint command structures and the escalation of cross border attacks and unconventional responses as the conflict evolved

Gorbachev, Italian Communism and Human Rights Autori Vari, 2023-01-27T14:44:00+01:00 The chapters brought together in this volume build on the idea that in the 1970s 1980s the global language of human rights contributed to stimulating ideas of reform in the communist world The protagonists were Mikhail Gorbachev and the Italian communists The experience of the PCI was in many ways a peculiar case but one that was linked to underground ideas of cultural change even in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Gorbachev's ascent signalled a fundamental shift as he rejected the approach of reducing human rights to an ideological battleground and instead made it the centrepiece of a universalist relaunch By exploring the encounter between reform communists and human rights the authors reconstruct the metamorphosis and the end of communism within the context of the wider transformations taking place in European political cultures at the end of the Cold War
