South Africa's Radical Tradition A Documentary History:

South Africa's Radical Tradition: 1943-1964 Allison Drew, 1996      South Africa's Radical Tradition: 1943-1964

Allison Drew, 1996 Traces the relationship between socialist currents and the national liberation movement from the 1940s to the 1960s This documentary history presents varied approaches to the national question the agrarian question the armed struggle and the building of political alliances      The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability

The volume was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies      South Africa and the Communist International Apollon B. Davidson, Irina Filatova, Valentin P. Gorodnov, Sheridan Johns, 2015-12-22 This is a comprehensive selection of documents pertaining to the Communist Party of South Africa from the formerly closed archives of the

Communist International      The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson, 2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC's role in South Africa's struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC's contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies      The Cambridge History of

South Africa: Volume 2, 1885-1994 Robert Ross, Anne Kelk Mager, Bill Nasson, 2011-08-15 This book surveys South African history from the discovery of gold in the Witwatersrand in the late nineteenth century to the first democratic elections in 1994 Written by many of the leading historians of the country it pulls together four decades of scholarship to present a detailed overview of South Africa during the twentieth century It covers political economic social and intellectual developments and their interconnections in a clear and objective manner This book the second of two volumes represents an important reassessment of all the major historical events developments and records of South Africa and will be an important new tool for students and professors of African history worldwide as well as the basis for further development and research

Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

Rural Resistance in South Africa Thembele Kepe, Lungisile Ntsebeza, 2011-10-14 Drawing on scholarship from multiple disciplines this volume presents a fresh understanding of the Mpondo uprising in South Africa focusing on its meanings and significance in relation to land rural governance politics and the agency of the marginalized

Land and Nationalism in Fictions from Southern Africa James Graham, 2011-01-13 By employing a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist feminist and ecocritical Graham investigates the relation between land and nationalism in South African and Zimbabwean fiction from the 1960s to the present This study discusses a wide range of writing including novels by Coetzee Gordimer Head Hove and Vera

The Communist Party in South Africa Mia Roth, 2016-01-20 Why is the history of communism in a country at the bottom of the African continent still important enough to warrant this book South Africa is one of the few countries in the world that still has a strong communist party whose views are not only taken into account by the government but whose members hold important positions in both the cabinet and in government offices This is the first account of the history of the Communist Party of South Africa based on archival sources The initial accounts were written by party members and had very little to do with reality The months that Mia Roth spent in the newly opened Russian and South African Archives in 1998 and the number of years she spent in writing it revealed to her not only the racism in the South African party but also the role it played in destroying the ICU the only genuine African mass movement of that time Its depiction of the part played by African communists was only a facade

The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape Lindsay Michie, 2021-09-20 From an array of prominent activists including Nelson Mandela and Steve Biko to renowned performers and oral poets such as Johnny Dyani and Samuel Mqhayi the Eastern Cape region plays a unique role in the history of South African protest politics and creativity The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape concentrates on the Eastern Cape's contribution to the larger narrative of the connection between creativity mass movements and the forging of a modern African identity and focuses largely on the amaXhosa population Lindsay Michie explores Eastern Cape performance artists activists organizations and movements that used inventive and historical means to raise awareness of their plight and brought pressure to bear on the authorities and systems that caused it all the while exhibiting the depth originality and inspiration of their culture

Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy C.R.D. Halisi, 1999 a comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa's politicization process

Choice Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots This problem can be explained and surmounted but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa

Richard L Sklar from the Foreword What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship black consciousness populism racial proletarianization and their interaction with various political ideologies Halisi's analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa

Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics Lazlo Passemiers, 2019-03-11 Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics argues that as much as the Congo crisis 1960-1965 was a Cold War battleground so too was it a battleground for Southern Africa's decolonisation This book provides a transnational history of African decolonisation apartheid diplomacy and Southern African nationalist movements It answers three central questions First what was the nature of South African involvement in the Congo crisis Second what was the rationale for this involvement Third how did South Africans perceive the crisis Innovatively the book shifts the focus on the Congo crisis away from Cold War intervention and centres it around African decolonisation and regional geopolitics

The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa Peter Kallaway, 2021-07-29 The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa offers a detailed and nuanced perspective of colonial history based on 15 years of research that throws fresh light on the complexities of African history and the colonial world of the first half of the twentieth century It provides an analytical background to the history of education in the colonial context by balancing contributions by missionary agencies colonial government humanitarian agencies scientific experts and African agents It offers a foundation for the analysis of modern educational policy for the postcolonial state It attempts to move beyond clichés about colonial education to an understanding of the complexities of how educational policy was developed in different places at different times while giving credence to arguments that see schooling as a form of social control in the colonial environment It is essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers looking to better understand colonial education and contextualize modern developments related to the decolonizing African education It is intended to provide an essential background for policy makers by demonstrating the significance of a historical perspective for an understanding of contemporary educational challenges in Africa and elsewhere

Not White Enough, Not Black Enough Mohamed Adhikari, 2005-11-17 The concept of Colouredness being neither white nor black has been pivotal to the brand of racial thinking particular to South African society The nature of Coloured identity and its heritage of oppression has always been a matter of intense political and ideological contestation Not White Enough Not Black Enough Racial Identity in the South African Coloured Community is the first systematic study of Coloured identity its history and its relevance to South

African national life Mohamed Adhikari engages with the debates and controversies thrown up by the identity's troubled existence and challenges much of the conventional wisdom associated with it A combination of wide ranging thematic analyses and detailed case studies illustrates how Colouredness functioned as a social identity from the time of its emergence in the late nineteenth century through its adaptation to the postapartheid environment Adhikari demonstrates how the interplay of marginality racial hierarchy assimilationist aspirations negative racial stereotyping class divisions and ideological conflicts helped mold people's sense of Colouredness over the past century Knowledge of this history and of the social and political dynamic that informed the articulation of a separate Coloured identity is vital to an understanding of present day complexities in South Africa

The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mqgweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People's Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People's Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented

Red Road to Freedom Tom Lodge, 2022 Definitive and gripping narrative history of the Communist Party of South Africa Alfred B. Xuma Steven Gish, 2000 A thorough examination of Alfred B Xuma's life and times Gish's study not only broadens our understanding of African nationalism at a crucial period but also sheds light on white liberalism Pan Africanism and the world of the educated African elite BOOK JACKET Seven Votes Richard Steyn, 2020-08-01 If a mere seven more MPs had voted with Prime Minister JBM Hertzog in favour of neutrality South Africa's history would have been quite different Parliament's narrow decision to go to war in 1939 led to a seismic upheaval throughout the 1940s black people streamed in their thousands from rural areas to the cities in search of jobs volunteers of all races answered the call to go up north to fight and opponents of the Smuts government actively hindered the war effort by attacking soldiers and committing acts of sabotage World War Two upended South Africa's politics ruining attempts to forge white unity and galvanising opposition to segregation among African Indian and coloured communities It also sparked debates among nationalists socialists liberals and communists such as the country had never previously experienced As Richard Steyn recounts so compellingly in Seven Votes the war's unforeseen consequence was the boost it gave to nationalisms both Afrikaner and African which went on to transform the country in the second half of the 20th century The book brings to life

an extraordinary cast of characters including wartime leader Jan Smuts DF Malan and his National Party colleagues African nationalists from Anton Lembede and AB Xuma to Walter Sisulu and Nelson Mandela the influential Indian activists Yusuf Dadoo and Monty Naicker and many others

Internal Frontiers Jon Soske, 2017-12-01 In this ambitious new history of the antiapartheid struggle Jon Soske places India and the Indian diaspora at the center of the African National Congress's development of an inclusive philosophy of nationalism In so doing Soske combines intellectual political religious urban and gender history to tell a story that is global in reach while remaining grounded in the everyday materiality of life under apartheid Even as Indian independence provided black South African intellectuals with new models of conceptualizing sovereignty debates over the place of the Indian diaspora in Africa they also colonized other forces a reconsideration of the nation's internal and external boundaries In response to the traumas of Partition and the 1949 Durban Riots a group of thinkers in the ANC centered in the Indian Ocean city of Durban and led by ANC president and Nobel Peace Prize winner Albert Luthuli developed a new philosophy of nationhood that affirmed South Africa's simultaneously heterogeneous and fundamentally African character Internal Frontiers is a major contribution to postcolonial and Indian Ocean studies and charts new ways of writing about African nationalism
