South America Central America And The Caribbean 2005:

Hugo Chávez Nikolas Kozloff,2025-06-25 Audacious provocative and bombastic few world politicians are as colorful as Hugo Ch vez now making international news for his plans to nationalize U S owned businesses and his bold opposition to Washington s economic and trade policies As Venezuela gains importance as the fifth largest oil exporter in the world this firebrand leader is quickly moving to the public spotlight by uniting much of South America against the Bush administration and wielding oil as a geopolitical weapon To create this rich and objective portrait Nikolas Kozloff one of the few American journalists who has spent years in the Andean region has profiled Ch vez s top advisors leaders of his movement and other key figures in both Venezuela and the U S The result is a timely exhaustive analysis of Ch vez as a political leader and a nuanced examination of the president moving to the center of the global stage Includes a new afterword by the author with insights into Ch vez s reelection in relation to wider hemispheric politics South America, Central America and the Caribbean 2005 ,2004 An incomparable single source of reference on a huge and important region State of the World's Forests 2007 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2007-01-01 This is the 7th edition of the FAO s biennial report on the state of global forest resources recent developments and emerging issues in the forest sector This edition focuses on progress towards sustainable forest management at the regional and global levels with each regional report structured according to seven thematic elements the extent of forest resources biological diversity forest health and vitality productive functions of forest resources protective functions of forest resources socio economic functions and legal policy and institutional frameworks These summaries are based on the most current information available including new data from the Global Forest Resources Assessment 2005 FRA 2005 The report goes on to consider 18 key issues in the forest sector including climate change forest landscape restoration forest tenure invasive species wildlife management and wood energy The overall conclusion is that whilst progress is being made it is very uneven with those regions with developing economies and tropical ecosystems continuing to lose forest area whilst lacking adequate institutions to reverse this trend The biggest limitation for evaluating progress is weak data with many countries lacking the financial resources to undertake national forest assessments Fishery and Aquaculture Statistics - Yearbook 2021 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2024-02-07 The FAO Yearbook of Fishery and Aquaculture Statistics prepared by the Statistics Team of the FAO Fisheries and Aquaculture Division offers a synthesis of the major trends in the fisheries and aquaculture sector Statistics are presented in eight main thematic chapters covering statistics of production total aquaculture capture fisheries employment fleet consumption and trade together with a section with selected tables and an Annex including notes concepts classifications and a map of FAO major fishing areas The Yearbook is meant to constitute a primary tool for policymakers researchers and analysts as well as for the general public interested in the past and current paths of the sector Fishery and Aquaculture Statistics - Yearbook 2022 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2025-02-18 The FAO Yearbook of Fishery and Aquaculture Statistics prepared by the Statistics Team of the FAO Fisheries and Aquaculture Division offers a synthesis of the major trends in the fisheries and aquaculture sector Statistics are presented in eight main thematic chapters covering statistics of production total aquaculture capture fisheries employment fleet consumption and trade together with a section with selected tables and an Annex including notes concepts classifications and a map of FAO major fishing areas The Yearbook is meant to constitute a primary tool for policymakers researchers and analysts as well as for the general public interested in the past and current paths of the sector Climate Wars Harald Welzer,2015-02-03 Struggles over drinking water new outbreaks of mass violence ethnic cleansing civil wars in the earth's poorest countries endless flows of refugees these are the new conflicts and forces shaping the world of the 21st century They no longer hinge on ideological rivalries between great powers but rather on issues of class religion and resources The genocides of the last century have taught us how quickly social problems can spill over into radical and deadly solutions Rich countries are already developing strategies to garner resources and keep climate refugees at bay In this major book Harald Welzer shows how climate change and violence go hand in hand Climate change has far reaching consequences for the living conditions of peoples around the world inhabitable spaces shrink scarce resources become scarcer injustices grow deeper not only between North and South but also between generations storing up material for new social tensions and giving rise to violent conflicts civil wars and massive refugee flows Climate change poses major new challenges in terms of security responsibility and justice but as Welzer makes disturbingly clear very little is being done to confront them The paperback edition includes a new Preface that brings the book up to date and addresses the most recent developments and trends Rabies Alan C. Jackson,William H. Wunner,2010-07-26 Rabies is the most current and comprehensive account of one of the oldest diseases known that remains a significant public health threat despite the efforts of many who have endeavored to control it in wildlife and domestic animals During the past five years since publication of the first edition there have been new developments in many areas on the rabies landscape This edition takes on a more global perspective with many new authors offering fresh outlooks on each topic Clinical features of rabies in humans and animals are discussed as well as basic science aspects molecular biology pathology and pathogenesis of this disease Current methods used in defining geographic origins and animal species infected in wildlife are presented along with diagnostic methods for identifying the strain of virus based on its genomic sequence and antigenic structure This multidisciplinary account is essential for clinicians as well as public health advisors epidemiologists wildlife biologists and research scientists wanting to know more about the virus and the disease it causes Offers a unique global perspective on rabies where dog rabies is responsible for killing more people than yellow More than 7 million people are potentially exposed to the virus annually and about 50 000 people half of them children die of rabies each year New edition includes greatly expanded coverage of bat rabies which is now the most prominent source of human rabies in the New World and Western Europe where dog rabies has been controlled Recent successes of controlling wildlife rabies with an emphasis on prevention is discussed Approximately 40% updated material incorporates recent knowledge on new approaches to therapy of human rabies as well as issues involving organ and tissue transplantation Includes an increase in illustrations to more accurately represent this diseases unique horror Minerals Yearbook ,2007 Rice Situation and Outlook Yearbook , International Migration in the Age of Crisis and Globalization Andrés Solimano,2010-07-05 The international mobility of people and elites is a main feature of the global economy of today Immigration augments the labor force in receiving countries and provides many of the bodies and minds that are essential to any vibrant economy This book is based on a blend of theory varied country examples and rich historical material ranging from the mid nineteenth century to the early twenty first century It discusses the conceptual underpinnings of the push and pull factors of current migration waves and their impacts for development on the source and receiving countries The analysis reviews the historical context under which various migration experiences have taken place both in periods of internationalism and nationalism in order to contribute to debates on the desirability of and tensions and costs involved in the current process of international migration
