The Chase and Ruins Sharony Green, 2023-10-03 The author recovers an understudied but important period in Zora Neale Hurston's life: her 1947-48 stay in Honduras. Hurston, an anthropologist by training, was officially searching for a lost Maya ruin. But the author argues that Hurston was also engaged in a much more personal project: in escaping the Jim Crow South to Central America, she was able to sidestep wearying conversations about race in the United States while still embracing her privilege and power as a citizen of the United States in postwar Central America.
