Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat, 2018-03-14 This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku implying in between space and homing in diaspora women's narratives associated with the South Asian region The idea of in between space has been used differently in various cultures but gesture prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds Historically imperialism and the indentured grimit system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British Of course this was not the only cause of international migratory processes The partition of India and Pakistan led to large scale migration There was Punjabi migration to Canada Several Indians particularly the Gujaratis travelled to Africa for business reasons South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system Again these were not the only reasons The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push pull factors The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives They belonged to various ethnicities and races inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society Complete cultural assimilation was not possible creating layered and hyphenated identities These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross pollination of cultures inter racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture language music fashion cuisine and so on Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly Nostalgia loss of home culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives Women in the Indian Diaspora Amba

Pande,2017-12-05 This volume brings into focus a range of emergent issues related to women in the Indian diaspora The conditions propelling women s migration and their experiences during the process of migration and settlement have always been different and very specific to them Standing in between the two worlds of origin and adoption women tend to experience dialectic tensions between freedom and subjugation but they often use this space to assert independence and to redefine their roles and perceptions of self The central idea in this volume is to understand women s agency in addressing and redressing the complex issues faced by them in restructuring the cultural formats of patriarchy and gender relations managing the emerging conflicts over what is to be transmitted to the following generations renegotiating their domestic roles and embracing new professional and educational successes and adjusting to the institutional structures of the host state The essays included in the volume discuss women in the Indian diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives involving social economic cultural and political aspects Such an effort privileges diasporic women s experiences and perspectives in the academia and among policy makers Diasporic Inquiries into South Asian Women's Narratives Shilpa Daithota

Bhat,2020-02-28 The South Asian women s diaspora engages in spatio temporal interactions and power differentials in a variety of narratives articulating agency multiplicities of belonging and culturally integrative practices highlighting homing paradigms The sense of alienness in a new homeland rather in worldwide home places triggers rethinking of diasporic conceptions and epistemes of individual and group histories personal and collective experiences Some of the questions that this anthology seeks to consider are How do women from the South Asian diaspora represent cultural negotiations and alienness of the adopted homeland in various narratives What are the themes issues they select to portray their perceptions of foreignness How do culture history and politics intervene in their portrayal of lived experiences How do they locate themselves in the matrix of foreignness and diaspora The contributors to this anthology examine narratives depicting South Asian women their complexly positioned voices gesturing at the proliferating challenges and reflecting the grim realities of a globalized world The South Asian Diaspora Rajesh Rai,Peter Reeves,2008-07-25 This book uses the concept of transnational networks as a way to understand the South Asian diaspora Offering a unique and original insight into the South
