development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers      Sponsoring Nature Maano Ramutsindela, Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2013-11-05 Saving the world's flora and fauna especially high profile examples such as chimpanzees, whales and the tropical rain forests is big business. Individuals and companies channel their resources to the preservation of nature through various ways, one of which is the funding of environmental non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and community based organizations (CBOs). This book is the first to comprehensively address this issue and focus on a dominant theme in environmental philanthropy: the links between NGOs and CBOs and their sponsors, especially the private sector. It has been argued that donor support is based on recipient's perceived expertise and needs with no favouritism of flagship environmental organizations as recipients of donor funds. A counterview holds that the private sector prefers to fund mainstream NGOs for environmental research and policy reforms congenial to industrial capital. The authors show that the debate about these arguments together with the empirical evidence on which they are based may shed light on certain aspects of the nature of environmental philanthropy. The book evaluates practical examples of environmental philanthropy from Africa and elsewhere against philosophical questions about the material and geographical expressions of philanthropy and the North-South connections among philanthropists and NGOs and CBOs      XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts Michele Robert, 2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology. The one-time apartheid pariah is now a continental leader that is both envied and resented. Its politicians and diplomats have worked on peace interventions and new Pan-African institutions while South African business has practically stampeded north of the Limpopo in search of new markets. In this rigorous policy relevant book a diverse group of Pan-African scholars examine South Africa's post-apartheid foreign policy, arguing that an effective foreign policy requires a strong domestic base. The book assesses key regional challenges for South Africa: leadership, military and economic power and less conventional foreign policy concerns such as land conflict and HIV/AIDS. Detailed case studies describe South Africa's role in developing the AU and NEPAD and its relations with strategic countries in West, Southern and North Africa, the Great Lakes region and the Horn of Africa. This unique volume is the first in-depth study of South Africa's critical role in Africa over the last thirteen years. Book jacket      Encyclopedia of Africa Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2010 The Encyclopedia of Africa presents the most up-to-date and thorough reference on this region of ever-growing importance in world history, politics and culture. Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on African history and culture from 2005's acclaimed five-volume Africana; nearly two-thirds of these 1 300 entries have been updated, revised and expanded.
