South Africa Human Rights And The Rule Of Law:

South Africa International Commission of Jurists (1952-),1988 Human Rights in Africa: Enhancing Human Rights Through the African Regional Human Rights System George Mugwanya,2021-10-01 The author argues that although the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the role the United Nations plays in promoting global awareness of human rights has had a positive influence in Africa their institutional financial and political impediments undercut the ability of a global system to address adequately the crisis in human rights violations occurring in Africa today Using case studies from South Africa and Uganda past difficulties in addressing human rights problems are analyzed and recommendations made for future methodologies including the creation of an African Court of Human and Peoples Rights Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Human Rights, the Rule of Law, and Development in Africa Paul Zeleza,Philip McConnaughay,2004-03-15 Part III NGOs and struggles for human rights Human Rights and the Rule of Law in Namibia Nico Horn,Anton Bösl,2008 The book provides a compilation of papers on current condition of the management of the rule of law in Namibia Human Rights Law in Africa, Volume 3 (1998) Christof Heyns,2021-11-01 Promoting the Rule of Law in Post-Conflict States Laura Grenfell,2013-07-11 Laura Grenfell critically evaluates how the rule of law is contextualized and promoted in states where customary law is prevalent Political Governance and the African Peer Review Mechanism Omololu Fagbadebo,Isioma U. Ile,2025-04-15 This book presents a comparative analysis of political governance and includes case studies from various African countries It further sheds light on the paradox of poverty despite Africa s plentiful resources and traces its roots in historical legacies of colonialism and leadership failures The book examines the African Peer Review Mechanism APRM initiated by the African Union AU in 2003 and explores the APRM s role in promoting sustainable development political stability and integration Against this background the book dissects the four thematic areas of the APRM with a focal point on democratic and political governance illuminating challenges and proposing solutions In case studies on selected African countries contributors present governance structures highlighting the struggle for accountability representation and public participation The book highlights alarming indicators of weak governance including corruption and declining public engagement and reflects Africa s journey toward effective governance By doing so the book scrutinizes African governing systems responses to crises and offers valuable insights into the continent s quest for progress and transformation Human Rights Law in Africa 1998 Christof Heyns,2001-04-11 Statute of the ICTR Business and Human Rights Law and Practice in Africa Olawuyi, Damilola S.,Abe, Oyeniyi O.,2022-09-06 This important book provides a comprehensive analysis of good fit and home grown approaches for advancing business and human rights norms across Africa It explores the latest developments in law regulations policies and governance structures across the continent focusing on key legal innovations in response to human rights impacts of business operations and activities African Human Rights Law Journal Volume 20 No 2 2020 ,2020-01-01 In 2020 the African Human Rights Law Journal AHRLJ or Journal

celebrates 20 years since it first was published The AHRLJ is the only peer reviewed journal focused on human rights related topics of relevance to Africa Africans and scholars of Africa It is a time for celebration Since 2001 two issues of the AHRLJ have appeared every year Initially published by Juta in Cape Town South Africa in 2013 it became as an open access journal published by the Pretoria University Law Press PULP PULP is a non profit open access publisher focused on advancing African scholarship The AHRLJ contains peer reviewed articles and recent developments discussing the latest court decisions and legal developments in the African Union AU and regional economic communities It contains brief discussions of recently published books With a total of 517 contributions in 40 issues 436 articles and 81 recent developments not counting book reviews on average the AHRLJ contains around 13 contributions per issue The AHRLJ is accredited with the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS and the South African Department of Higher Education Science and Innovation and appears in a number of open access portals including AfricanLii the Directory of Open Access Journals and SciELO Over the 20 years of its existence many significant articles appeared in the AHRLJ According to Google Scholar the mostcited articles that have appeared in the Journal over this period are i T Metz Ubuntu as a moral theory and human rights in South Africa 2011 11 African Human Rights Law Journal 532 559 with 273 citations ii D Cornell and K van Marle Exploring ubuntu Tentative reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 195 220 with 97 citations iii S Tamale Exploring the contours of African sexualities Religion law and power 2014 14 African Human Rights Law Journal 150 177 with 85 citations K Kindiki The normative and institutional framework of the African Union relating to the protection of human rights and the maintenance of international peace and security A critical appraisal 2003 3 African Human Rights Law Journal 97 117 with 59 citations and T Kaime The Convention on the Rights of the Child and the cultural legitimacy of children s rights in Africa Some reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 221 238 with 54 citations This occasion allows some perspective on the role that the Journal has played over the past 20 years It is fair to say that the AHRLJ contributed towards strengthening indigenous African scholarship in general and human rights related themes specifically Before the Journal there was no academic outlet devoted to human rights in the broader African context Both in quantity and in quality the Journal has left its mark on the landscape of scholarly journals The AHRLJ has provided a forum for African voices including those that needed to be fine tuned Different from many other peerreviewed journals the AHRLJ has seen it as its responsibility to nurture emerging but not yet fully flourishing talent This approach allowed younger and emerging scholars to be guided to sharpen their skills and find their scholarly voices The AHRLJ has evolved in tandem with the African regional human rights system in a dialogic relationship characterised by constructive criticism When the Journal was first published in 2001 the Protocol on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court Protocol was not yet in force Over the years the Journal tracked the evolution of the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court from a faltering start through a phase when it increasingly expressed itself in an emerging jurisprudence to the current situation of push back by states signalled by the withdrawal by four states of their acceptance of the Court's direct individual access jurisdiction. The same is largely true for the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children's Committee. It was in 2001 that the AU elected the first members of this Committee. It first met in 2002 and its first decade or so was lackluster. The Committee examined its first state report only in November 2008 and decided its first communication in March 2011. Articles by authors such as Mezger and Sloth Nielsen who also served as members of the Committee and Lloyd placed the spotlight on the work of the Committee. Initially these articles primarily served to describe and provide information that otherwise was largely inaccessible but over time they increasingly provided a critical gaze and contributed to the constructive evolution of the Committee's exercise of its mandate. By 2011 the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights African Commission was already quite well established but it also underwent significant growth over the subsequent 20 year period. Numerous articles in the Journal trace and analyse aspects of this evolution. Contributions in the Journal also cover most of the AU human rights treaties and soft law standards. A number of issues contain a special focus section dealing with a thematic issue of particular relevance or concern such as the focus on the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women 2006 no 1, 30 years of the African Charter 2011 no 2 and sexual and reproductive rights and the African Women's Protocol 2014 no 2. The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights. Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Eswatini, Ethiopia, Lesotho, Malawi, Mauritius, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, Uganda and Zimbabwe. From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection. See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub-Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2.

The Law and Society Reader II Erik Larson, Patrick Delbert Schmidt, 2014. Law and society scholars challenge the common belief that law is simply a neutral tool by which society sets standards and resolves disputes. Decades of research shows how much the nature of communities, organizations and the people inhabiting them affect how law works. Just as much law shapes beliefs, behaviors and wider social structures but the connections are much more nuanced. OCoand surprising OCo than many expect. Law and Society Reader II provides readers an accessible overview to the breadth of recent developments in this research tradition bringing to life the developments in this dynamic field. Following up a first Law and
