South Africa In The Twentieth Century From Empire To Rainbow Nation

Sarah Nuttall

South Africa In The Twentieth Century From Empire To Rainbow Nation:

African Literature and US Empire Katherine Hallemeier, 2024-05-31 Postcolonialism has long been associated with post nationalism Yet the persistence of nation oriented literatures from within the African postcolony and its diasporas registers how dreams of national becoming endure In this fascinating new study Hallemeier brings together African literary studies affect studies and US empire studies to challenge chronologies that chart a growing disillusionment with the postcolonial nation and national development across the twentieth and twenty first centuries The Nigerian and South African writings in African Literature and US Empire while often attuned to the trans and extra national repeatedly scrutinise why visions of national exceptionalism signified by a pan African Nigeria and new South Africa remain stubbornly affecting despite decades of disillusionment with national governments beholden to a neocolonial global order In these fictions optimistic forms of nationalism cannot be reduced to easily critiqued state sanctioned discourses of renewal and development They are also circulated through experiences of embodied need quotidian aspiration and transnational pan African relationship

The Anxieties of White Supremacy Christoph Marx, 2024-11-11 Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd 1958 1966 was an authoritarian modernizer and a true representative of the Age of Extremes How did the Architect of Apartheid grow his ideology of racial segregation into a comprehensive system and a policy for the future The Anxieties of White Supremacy Hendrik Verwoerd and the Apartheid Mindset explores his intellectual development and academic career prior to entering politics

Beyond the Black Atlantic Walter Goebel, Saskia Schabio, 2006-07-29 Exploring one of the hottest topics in humanities at the moment diaspora this controversial volume challenges prominent theoretical frameworks of Paul Gilroy to redefine and expand ideas of Black Atlantic

British Royal Visits and Black Loyalism in Twentieth-century Southern Africa Hilary Sapire, 2024-10-31 Exploring the entwined histories of British royal visits to Southern Africa in the twentieth century this book analyses the clashing voices of dissent and cheering crowds that accompanied royal tours providing insight into the shifting nature of Black loyalism Originating in the Indigenous empire loyalism of eighteenth century Canada Black loyalism encompassed loyalty to the British crown and a shared ideology of rights and entitlements which positioned the crown as a source of protection against white settler rapacity colonial violence and racial oppression However expressions of monarchical devotion were often double edged and addressed the fundamental contradiction of a crown that was both the source of rights and complicit in colonial conquest appropriation and misrule It was on royal occasions such as jubilees coronation celebrations and especially royal visits when the sovereign was literally amongst their more distant subjects that loyalist sentiment was rekindled reinvented and made directly relevant to the concerns of the day By analysing change and continuity in Black perspectives towards both the British and Indigenous African monarchy during these visits this book offers a fruitful way into examining an array of Black Southern African discourses on governance political values and cultural identities across the region It argues that the refashioning of British imperial monarchy in the twentieth century was profoundly shaped by African initiatives and re imaginings and provides valuable reading for those researching imperialism popular attitudes to the British monarchy in the twentieth century and the diverse politics and identities of southern Africa

Diversity and Empires Sophie Rose, Elisabeth Heijmans, 2023-06-02 Examining diversity as a fundamental reality of empire this book explores European colonial empires both terrestrial and maritime to show how they addressed the questions of how to manage diversity These questions range from the local to the supra regional and from the management of people to that of political and judicial systems Taking an intersectional approach incorporating categories such as race religion subjecthood and social and legal status the contributions of the volume show how old and new modes of creating social difference took shape in an increasingly globalized early modern world and what contemporary legacies these diversity formations left behind This volume shows diversity and imperial projects to be both contentious and mutually constitutive on the one hand the conditions of empire created divisions between people through official categorizations such as racial classifications and designations of subjecthood and through discriminately applied extractive policies from taxation to slavery On the other hand imperial subjects communities and polities within and adjacent to the empire asserted themselves through a diverse range of affiliations and identities that challenged any notion of a unilateral universal imperial authority This book highlights the multidimensionality and interconnectedness of diversity in imperial settings and will be useful reading to students and scholars of the history of colonial empires global history and race

Narratives of Nation Media, Memory and Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Charmaine McEachern, 2002 Narratives of Nation Media

Memory Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Countries and Concepts Michael G. Roskin, 2004 Eminently readable and written with candor and spirit this 8th edition of Countries and Concepts continues the loose theoretical approach of the previous editions simply observing that politics is composed of human conflicts or quarrels forming patterns that can be studied Analyzing four European nations and Japan at some length and four Third World nations more briefly this text studies the history institutions geography and political culture of each to provide valuable comparative information in the course of the semester Updated and revised Enables students to stay abreast of the latest events in the global political environment Expanded political geography material Provides students with geographical insight that prepares them for globalization Aids students preparing for the state teacher certification exams Insights Includes some rational choice perspectives more geography and Russia as a quasi authoritarian system Improved Pedagogy includes highlighted boxes glossary maps and chapter opening questions Nine countries represented Extensive coverage of Great Britain France Germany Russia and Japan more brief coverage of four Third World A Current Bibliography on African Affairs, 1999 The Routledge History of Antisemitism Mark Weitzman, Robert J. Williams, James Wald, 2023-09-04

Antisemitism is a topic on which there is a wide gap between scholarly and popular understanding and as concern over antisemitism has grown so too have the debates over how to understand and combat it This handbook explores its history and manifestations ranging from its origins to the internet Since the Holocaust many in North America and Europe have viewed antisemitism as a historical issue with little current importance However recent events show that antisemitism is not just a matter of historical interest or of concern only to Jews Antisemitism has become a major issue confronting and challenging our world This volume starts with explorations of antisemitism in its many different shapes across time and then proceeds to a geographical perspective covering a broad scope of experiences across different countries and regions The final section discusses the manifestations of antisemitism in its varied cultural and social forms With an international range of contributions across 40 chapters this is an essential volume for all readers of Jewish and non Jewish history alike

Cultures of the Lusophone Black Atlantic N. Naro,R. Sansi-Roca,D. Treece,2007-10-15 This book addresses the Lusophone Black Atlantic as a space of historical and cultural production between Portugal Brazil and Africa The authors demonstrate how it has been shaped by diverse colonial cultures including the Portuguese imperial project The Lusophone context offers a unique perspective on the history of the Atlantic

The Cry for Peace Andrea Riccardi,2024-09-20 In these pages Andrea Riccardi reflects on the need to create a culture of peace a spiritual and social movement that puts peace at the center of public concerns and politics It is up to each of us to become an artisan of peace our choice lies at the beginning of peace building Not turning away means knowing becoming informed following events standing in solidarity with those suffering from war remembering them in prayer A living public opinion can influence and change national events and international policies It can hold back or prevent war and open avenues for peace

Performing Indigeneity Morgan Ndlovu,2019-01-20 Colonised subjects can play roles that sustain the power structure of coloniality In this book Morgan Ndlovu asks why people help support a system responsible for their own subjugation Morgan Ndlovu provides a critique of the agency of the colonised subjects as exercised under coloniality Eschewing abstract theory he takes a bottom up approach to theorising the agency of indigenous people Through analysis of the experiences of the performance of indigeneity and the staged representations of commodified culture in South Africa he recognises the efforts of the colonised subjects and the conditions under which they survive However he also cautions against choices and actions that may aggravate their conditions Performing Indigeneity provides an insightful evaluation of what could constitute an authentic indigenous agency among the colonial subalterns in India Australia Canada Africa and the Americas

Beyond Bystanders Nimrod Aloni,Lori Weintrob,2017-04-17 Beyond Bystanders calls for a shift in the professional self image of teachers from agents of socialization to active advocates of human flourishing social justice and world betterment The editors propose that it is irresponsible for teachers to posit themselves as bystanders and to conceive of globalization as something happening to them Their role as educators in all disciplines must be to establish educational leadership that would empower students to critically evaluate developing global realities mass migrations socioeconomic inequalities global warming and the dehumanizing effects of submission to social media and consumerism and achieve the overarching goals of humanization and facilitation of the fulfilling life A shared commitment to humanist ethics pedagogical activism and social engagement at Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv and Wagner College New York sparked this collaboration The authors of the book include educational thinkers such as Nel Noddings Michael Apple David Hansen Pasi Sahlberg and Wiel Veugelers as well as scholars and practitioners from six different countries and diverse professional and cultural backgrounds An essential part of our educational enterprise must involve promoting intercultural opportunities confronting cultural ills and ensuring that civic engagement is more attuned to political realities Educators in all disciplines can reframe their teaching and schools to be more cooperative and civic minded and challenge views of marginalized immigrant undocumented and refugee communities as strangers Education is not only about teaching people to read and to write It is about teaching human rights and cultural diversity nourishing peace and fostering inclusive and sustainable development I wish to commend Kibbutzim College of Education and Wagner College for joining forces to compile this volume to inspire readers in crafting new models of intellectual and intercultural understanding Irina Bokova Director General of UNESCO from the Foreword

Botha, Smuts and the Great War Antonio Garcia, Ian van der Waag, 2023-10-30 In Botha Smuts and the Great War 1914 1918 authors Antonio Garcia and Ian Van Der Waag conducted painstaking research in South Africa and the United Kingdom to produce this first of a kind volume on the wartime roles of South African prime minister General Louis Botha and his deputy General Jan Smuts These very different men appealed to different audiences Botha's nuance and emotional intelligence complemented Smuts's intellectualism Thrown into a world conflagration in August 1914 and facing internal rebellion and the threat posed by German troops on the borders they led South Africa's Union Defence Force Both Botha and Smuts commanded in the field Steadily the South African army they commanded benefiting from wartime training sometimes in the field gained resilience experience and battle hardiness adapting to the conditions of the campaigns and the demands of the tasks South Africa's campaigns were complex and divergent starting with the invasion of neighbouring German South West Africa to neutralise enemy radio stations and so aid the security of the South Atlantic Suddenly suspended following the outbreak of the Afrikaner Rebellion the campaign recommenced in January 1915 Following its conclusion an infantry brigade raised for Western Front service was diverted to Egypt before facing near annihilation at Delville Wood Simultaneously a large South African force fighting alongside British African and Indian forces overcame German resistance in East Africa whilst a brigade of field artillery and later the Cape Corps served in Egypt and Palestine Moreover approximately 6 500 South Africans served in the British Army Royal Flying Corps Royal Air Force and in the Royal Navy Although lionised during the war by a British public hungry for heroes there is a different side to Botha and Smuts Shunned by Afrikaner nationalists at the time they have remained divisive figures Responsible for the enactment of the Land Act of 1913 which shaped South Africa's socio economic and political landscape Botha's statues in Cape Town Durban and Pretoria were vandalised on a number of occasions between 2015 and 2022 and there were recent calls for Smuts's statues to be removed Behind Botha's charming attractive fa ade and Smuts s stoic machine were two very human imperfect and quite probably inconsiderate men Together they provide a wonderful lens through which to examine the potent forces of the early twentieth century world and the country they hoped to forge Myopic compatriots had constrained their plans but it was the outbreak of war in 1914 that offered the most significant opportunities and brought the most adverse challenges They fought insurmountable odds and achieved great victories at home and abroad but also made startling errors and ultimately in classical fashion risked being crushed by the weight of the world they tried to create Rainbow Nation My Zulu Arse Sihle Khumalo,2018-10-12 After exploring more than twenty other African nations using only public transport Sihle Khumalo this time roams within the borders of his own country The familiarity of his own car is a luxury but what he finds on his journey through South Africa ranges from the puzzling to the downright bizarre Voyaging from the northernmost part of South Africa right to the south the author noses his car down freeways and back roads into small towns townships and villages some of which you ll have trouble finding on a map But this is no clich d description of beautiful landscapes and blue skies Khumalo is out to investigate the state of the nation from its highest successes to its most depressing failures Whether or not he s baffled surprised or sometimes plain angry Sihle Khumalo will always find warmth in his fellow South Africans security guards religious visionaries drunks political activists and the many other colourful personalities that come alive in his riveting account

South Africa, Greece, Rome Grant Parker,2017-08-31 How have ancient Greece and Rome intersected with South African histories This book canvasses architecture literature visual arts and historical memory Some of the most telling manifestations of classical reception in South Africa have been indirect for example neo classical architecture or retellings of mythical stories Far from being the mere handmaiden of colonialism and later apartheid classical antiquity has enabled challenges to the South African establishment and provided a template for making sense of cross cultural encounters Though access to classical education has been limited many South Africans black and white have used classical frames of reference and drawn inspiration from the ancient Greeks and Romans While classical antiquity may seem antithetical to post apartheid notions of heritage it deserves to be seen in this light Museums historical sites and artworks up to the present day reveal juxtapositions in which classical themes are integrated into South African pasts Meeting God in John David F.

Ford,2025-11-20 Whether you are completely new to John s Gospel or have read it many times before Meeting God in John will help you see the Fourth Gospel with fresh eyes and gain a deeper understanding of its essential meaning and purpose David Ford one of the world s most widely respected theologians and author of Theology A Very Short Introduction and The Gospel of John A Theological Commentary offers an accessible and absorbing introduction to the main message of John s Gospel packed with compelling observations into the personality and impact of Jesus both in the first century and today Meeting God in John explores what the Gospel reveals about God through the person of Jesus Christ Essential reading for anyone seeking a richer grasp of the gospel message it will leave you with a renewed appreciation of and enthusiasm for John s writing and the desire to return to it over and over again Ford's straightforward and illuminating approach also makes it eminently helpful for new Christians just starting out on their faith journey Each chapter includes questions for reflection or discussion making Meeting God in John ideal for Bible study whether individually or in small groups With its focus on the Passion narrative it also serves beautifully as a Lent devotional Simple yet profound this is an invitation to all who long to deepen their understanding of John's Gospel and through it to meet the God revealed in Jesus Christ Crack-Up Capitalism Quinn Slobodian, 2023-04-04 A Fortune best nonfiction book of 2023 In a revelatory dispatch from the frontier of capitalist extremism an acclaimed historian of ideas shows how free marketeers are realizing their ultimate goal an end to nation states and the constraints of democracy Look at a map of the world and you'll see a colorful checkerboard of nation states But this is not where power actually resides Over the last decade globalization has shattered the map into different legal spaces free ports tax havens special economic zones With the new spaces ultracapitalists have started to believe that it is possible to escape the bonds of democratic government and oversight altogether Crack Up Capitalism follows the most notorious radical libertarians from Milton Friedman to Peter Thiel around the globe as they search for the perfect space for capitalism Historian Quinn Slobodian leads us from Hong Kong in the 1970s to South Africa in the late days of apartheid from the neo Confederate South to the former frontier of the American West from the medieval City of London to the gold vaults of right wing billionaires and finally into the world's oceans and war zones charting the relentless quest for a blank slate where market competition is unfettered by democracy A masterful work of economic and intellectual history Crack Up Capitalism offers both a new way of looking at the world and a new vision of coming threats Full of rich details and provocative analysis Crack Up Capitalism offers an alarming view of a possible future Entanglement Sarah Nuttall, 2009-08-01 This original book is a much needed and far reaching exploration of post apartheid South African life worlds Entanglement aims to capture the contradictory mixture of innovation and inertia of loss violence and xenophobia as well as experimentation and desegregation which characterises the present The author explores the concept of entanglement in relation to readings of literature new media forms and painting In the process she moves away from a persistent apartheid optic drawing on ideas of sameness and difference and their limits in order to elicit ways of living and imagining that are just starting to take shape and for which we might not yet have a name In the background of her investigations lies a preoccupation with a future oriented politics one that builds on largely unexplored terrains of mutuality while being attentive to a historical experience of confrontation and injury FIFA (Fédération Internationale de Football Association) Alan Tomlinson, 2014-04-03 Founded in 1904 by representatives of the sporting organisations of six European nations then expanding into the Americas Asia and Africa FIFA has developed to become one of the most high profile and lucrative businesses in the global consumer and cultural industry Recent years however have been characterised by a series of crises leaving the organisation open to critique and exposure and creating a soap operatic narrative of increasing interest to the global media In this critical new account of one of the world's most important sporting institutions Professor Alan Tomlinson investigates the history of FIFA and the underlying political dynamics characterising its growth The book explores the influence of the men who have led FIFA the emergence of the World Cup as FIFA's exclusive product FIFA's relationships with other federations and associations the crises that have shaped its recent history and the issues and challenges that are likely to shape its future Particular focus is given to selected moments in the post Havelange administration and the way in which FIFA its current president Joseph Blatter and some key close colleagues have responded to and survived successive scandals The book provides a foundation for understanding the growth and development of what is widely accepted as the world's most popular sport sheds light on the shifting politics of nationalism in the post colonial period and reveals the opportunistic forms of personal aggrandizement shaping an increasingly media influenced and globalizing world in which international sport was both a harbinger and an early reflection of these trends and forces Fascinating and provocative this is essential reading for anybody with an interest in soccer sport and society sports governance or global organisations
