African Books in Print, 1978 Approaches to Teaching Coetzee's Disgrace and Other Works Laura Wright, Jane Poyner, Elleke Boehmer, 2014-01-01 The novels of the South African writer J M Coetzee won him global recognition and the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2003 His work offers substantial pedagogical richness and challenges

Coetzee treats such themes as race aging gender animal rights power violence colonial history and accountability the silent or silenced other sympathy and forgiveness in an allusive and detached prose that avoids obvious answers or easy ethical reassurance Part 1 of this volume Materials identifies secondary materials including multimedia and Internet resources that will help instructors guide their students through the contextual and formal complexities of Coetzee's fiction In part 2 Approaches essays discuss how to teach works that are sometimes suspicious of teachers and teaching The essays aim to help instructors negotiate Coetzee's ironies and allegories in his treatment of human relationships in a changing South Africa and of the shifting connections between human beings and the biosphere Financial Mail ,2002-08 Gender Across

Languages Marlis Hellinger,Hadumod Bußmann,2001-10-09 This is the first of a three volume comprehensive reference work on Gender across Languages which provides systematic descriptions of various categories of gender grammatical lexical referential social in 30 languages of diverse genetic typological and socio cultural backgrounds Among the issues discussed for each language are the following What are the structural properties of the language that have an impact on the relations between language and gender What are the consequences for areas such as agreement pronominalisation and word formation How is specification of and abstraction from referential gender achieved in a language Is empirical evidence available for the assumption that masculine male expressions are interpreted as generics Can tendencies of variation and change be observed and have alternatives been proposed for a more equal linguistic treatment of women and men This volume and its follow up volumes will provide the much needed basis for explicitly comparative analyses of gender across languages All chapters are original contributions and follow a common general outline developed by the editors The book contains rich bibliographical and indexical material Languages of Volume 1 Arabic Belizean Creole Eastern Maroon Creole English American New Zealand Australian Hebrew Indonesian Romanian Russian Turkish The Dichotomy: Facts and

Perceptions LENKWANE H. MATHUNYANE,2015-08-14 The contents of this handy book reflect on subjects that would enable parents teachers and students to broaden and deepen their insight in the interdependences of human beings in the social environment Subjects like psychosocial development education religion leadership and tradition feature prominently as indispensable interrelated life aspects that complement each other for human co existence The concept dichotomy only seeks to highlight that in a diverse society apart from the prevailing similarities there are also differences which enrich the nation and have to be appreciated and celebrated The subject matter is structured in such a way that it is reader friendly Key words and or phrases used have been highlighted explained and described in order to facilitate a mellow understanding of the subject matter The educational implications in all subjects have been presented as guidance and a well crafted life orientation towards successful teaching and learning Syntheses have been provided in order to refresh the mind of the reader on what he had read The author at the beginning of each chapter and some paragraphs has drawn in the voices of great men and women who through their powerful influence changed the world This informative and educative book is
