Post-Apartheid Community-Based Activism Louise Penner, Rajini Srikanth, 2024-12-06 This book provides a timely study of community based activism in contemporary South Africa Grounded in oral history the book examines the acquired expertise and life experiences of an impactful South African activist Mandla Majola within the context of the people circumstances and affiliations that have shaped his strategic thinking and practice The authors situate Mandla Majola's activist and everyday experiences within histories of the complex connections between post apartheid political and social movements and human rights discourse as they emerged after 1994 The book illuminates the relationship of state power to public health activism for HIV tuberculosis and COVID 19 and for a life of basic human dignity including access to sanitation and housing Mandla Majola's life spotlights the inspiring sometimes grueling and tireless quotidian work of thousands of invisible community based activists whose collective actions have impacted the entire spectrum of social and economic rights of untold numbers of people in South Africa and beyond Service, Please, South Africa! Norman Blem, 1995 This text aims to promote service awareness in South Africa It is intended for anyone in business for people in the public sector and for consumers who should benefit by gaining greater insight into and appreciation of the elements of good service 1978-1989 Heinz-Dietrich Fischer, 2020-01-20 No detailed description available for 1978 1989 South African Gothic Rebecca Duncan, 2018-06-15 The term Gothic has rarely been brought to bear on contemporary South African fictions appearing too fanciful for the often overtly political writing of apartheid and post apartheid South Africa As the first book length exploration of Gothic impulses in South African literature this volume accounts for the Gothic currents that run through South African imaginaries from the late nineteenth century onwards South African Gothic identifies an intensification in Gothic production that begins with the nascent decline of the apartheid state and relates this to real anxieties that arise with the unfolding of social and political change In the context of a South Africa unmaking and reshaping itself Gothic emerges as a language for long suppressed histories of violence and for ongoing experiences at odds with utopian images of the new democracy Its function is interrogative and ultimately creative South African Gothic challenges narrow conceptions of the status quo to drive at alternative less exclusionary visions Africa ,1985 Documents of the Christian Church Henry Bettenson, Chris Maunder, 2011-09-29 This selection of writings from the most important moments in the history of Christianity has become established as a classic reference work providing insights into 2000 years of Christian theological and political debate While retaining the original material selected by Henry Bettenson Chris Maunder has added a substantial section of more recent writings These illustrate the Second Vatican Council the theologies of liberation Church and State from Thatcher's Britain to Communist Eastern Europe Black feminist and ecological theology ecumenism and inter faith dialogue The emphasis on moral debate in the contemporary churches is reflected in selections discussing questions about homosexuality divorce AIDS and in vitro fertilization amongst other issues This further expanded fourth edition brings the anthology up to date with a new section looking at issues facing the twenty first century churches This includes extracts exploring the churches responses to questions of social justice international politics trade and debt environmental change and technological development New material also covers the global growth of Christianity the progress of Christian unity and Kairos, Crisis, and Global Apartheid Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2016-01-12 In mission in multi faith and postmodern societies

1985 the Kairos Document emerged out of the anti apartheid struggle as a devastating critique of apartheid and a challenge to the church in that society This book is a call to discern new moments of crisis discernment and kairos and respond with prophetic resistance to global injustice Africa Air University (U.S.).
