own child or children Once this is taken into account we find that women who had murdered an adult had less hope of a reprieve than men Thus the author shows that the large proportion of women murderers as killers of their own children has created a false impression of how female murderers fared inside the criminal justice system Channel Island Murders Nicola Sly,2013-05-15 Although an idyllic setting where violent crime is thankfully rare the Channel Islands have a shadier side Contained within the pages of this book are twenty five historic cases of murder committed in the Channel Islands They include a fatal assault on John Francis in 1894 which remains unsolved the murder by Philippe Jolin of his father in 1829 and the murder and suicide committed by Eugenie Toupin in 1881 all of which occurred in Jersey In Guernsey elderly widow Elizabeth Saujon was murdered during the course of a robbery in 1853 Edward Hooper drunkenly beat his wife to death in 1890 and housekeeper Elizabeth de la Mare murdered her elderly employer in 1935 wanting to hasten his demise on the understanding that she was the sole beneficiary of his will Nicola Sly s carefully researched and enthralling text will appeal to everyone interested in true crime and the shady side of Jersey Guernsey and Alderney s history A Grim Almanac of the Black Country Nicola Sly,2013-01-01 A Grim Almanac of the Black Country is a day by day catalogue of 366 ghastly tales from around the area Full of dreadful deeds strange disappearances and a multitude of mysteries this almanac explores the darker side of the Black Country s past Here are stories of tragedy torment and the truly unfortunate with diverse tales of mining disasters freak weather bizarre deaths and tragic accidents including the gunpowder explosion at a factory in Tipton which claimed nineteen lives in 1922 Also featured is the corpse in West Bromwich that was twice wrongly identified in 1929 the collapse of a concert hall roof in Walsall in 1921 and the two labourers buried in molten glass near Stourbridge in 1893 All these plus tales of fires catastrophes mysteries and executions are here Generously illustrated this chronicle is an entertaining and readable record of the Black Country s grim past Read on if you dare A Grim Almanac of Oxfordshire Nicola Sly,2013-02-01 A Grim Almanac of Oxfordshire is a day by day catalogue of 366 ghastly tales from the county s past There are murders and manslaughters including the killing by Mrs Barber of her entire family in 1909 while temporarily insane and the brutal murder of four year old Edward Busby in 1871 killed by his mother to prevent his father ill treating him There are bizarre deaths including those of four year old Charles Taylor who was accidentally kicked clean through a top storey window in 1844 by a child playing on a swing George Sheppard who was struck by a cricket ball during a match in 1905 and of the vicar of Bucknell who starved himself to death in 1935 There is an assortment of calamities which include strange and unusual crimes devastating fires rail crashes explosions disasters mysteries freak weather and a plethora of uncanny accidents Generously illustrated this chronicle is an entertaining and readable record of Oxfordshire s grim past Delve into the dreadful deeds of Oxford s past if you dare A Horrid History of Christmas Nicola Sly,2012-09-01 This grisly collection of historic horrid happenings from across the country demonstrates that Christmas is not necessarily a time of peace joy and goodwill to all men The holiday season has witnessed a plethora of almost unbelievable accidents such as the amateur mechanic who died with his head stuck in a car engine the footballer who leaped into a quarry to retrieve a lost ball and the Christmas party guest who fell down a flight of stairs and broke his neck There are fatal rail crashes in Oxfordshire Bedfordshire Cheshire Cumbria and Scotland freak weather conditions and devastating fires such as the Christmas Eve fire in Glasgow that cost the lives of four firemen in 1927 Among the chilling crimes featured here is that of Nottinghamshire man Edward Kesteven who killed his wife on Christmas Day 1894 and the murder of Thirza Kelly in Norfolk by a local teenager on Christmas Eve 1900 Full of merry madness and hearty heartache A Horrid History of Christmas will make you want to bypass the festivities altogether Jack the Ripper: The Hand of a Woman John Morris, 2012-03-26 The Jack the Ripper murders of 1888 continue to exert a macabre hold on our imagination Among the first serial murders their brutality and bizarreness and the seeming impossibility of detection have a terrible fascination What kind of person could have performed such horrific deeds and could have overstepped the boundary of what marks humankind How could they not have been caught by the unprecedented police effort The murders were reported on around the world and the murderer was the first to be given a macabre nickname He has been the subject of hundreds of books and several films but his identity remains a mystery Suspects have included the eminent Victorian doctor Sir William Gull royal gynecologist Sir John Williams and the painter Walter Sickert Conspiracy theories abound involving Masonic Jewish and other connections This is the story of the extensive research of John Morris and his late father Starting with the many unresolved questions about the murders they shockingly concluded that they could be answered if Jack was in reality a woman not a man But who could she be After many twists and turns they reach an all too plausible conclusion
